

TAKING AIM. Miss Alice Hubbs, of the Drexel Institute Gun Club, has a good chance to carry away the honors in the rifle contests to be held soon.

ELEPHANTS BUSY DURING CONNECTICUT FIRE. A few days ago much damage was done in a railroad yard fire, at Bridgeport, Conn. Circus elephants wintering close at hand were used to get cars from the path of the fire.

RELIGIOUS HUNGER STRIKER. Mrs. Sadie Harrington, of Danville, Ill., has not taken food for seven weeks, because her husband refuses to join church.

REMARKABLE FOOTBALL ACTION. A Spanish player in mid-air, where he has just struck the ball, in a contest against the Portuguese team.

YE GEDDES EXPRESS. Such was the name given to "Bob" and the sled combination, as seen at the driver's position, outside the Brixton jail, near London.

MERRY COASTERS HAVE SPILL. In Switzerland, haven for European winter sports, the photographer caught the party just as the pile-up took place.

FACTORY EMPLOYEES AWARD LIMERICK PRIZE. This jury of employees in the paper box factory of the Edwin J. Schoettle Co., 533 N. 11th street, awarded the limerick prize announced today. In the picture, from left to right, are (front row) Ethel Vorhees, Anna Kates, Mary Roffe, May Basquill, Anna Arcaro; (back row) J. L. Lewis, foreman; E. M. Van Houten, foreman; John Buerli, Harrison Brady, John Gilbert, Beatrice Willits, welfare worker.

STRIKING MINERS LIVE IN TENTS. Miners in Mingo county, West Virginia, with their families have been saving rent while they fought their strike.

BAPTIST GIRLS PLAY BASKETBALL. Louise Van Camp, manager of the Green Sox, blocking Mary C. Conway, captain of the Lorraine team, as she is about to toss for a basket, in the gymnasium of the First Baptist Church, Seventeenth and Sansom streets.

MYSTERIOUS DEATH IN PARIS. Hallye Whatley Peck, the American actress found dead, a suicide.

EPHRAIM LEDERER, collector of internal revenue, discusses the income tax law in an interview on the Editorial Page.

QUEEN ELIZABETH OF BELGIUM. A new and excellent portrait of the much-loved queen of the Belgians.

MARRIED AFTER FOUR ATTEMPTS. George Burch, fifteen years old, and his thirteen-year-old bride, who was Carmine Emmons, were married in Kansas City, Mo. Their parents agreed to the match.

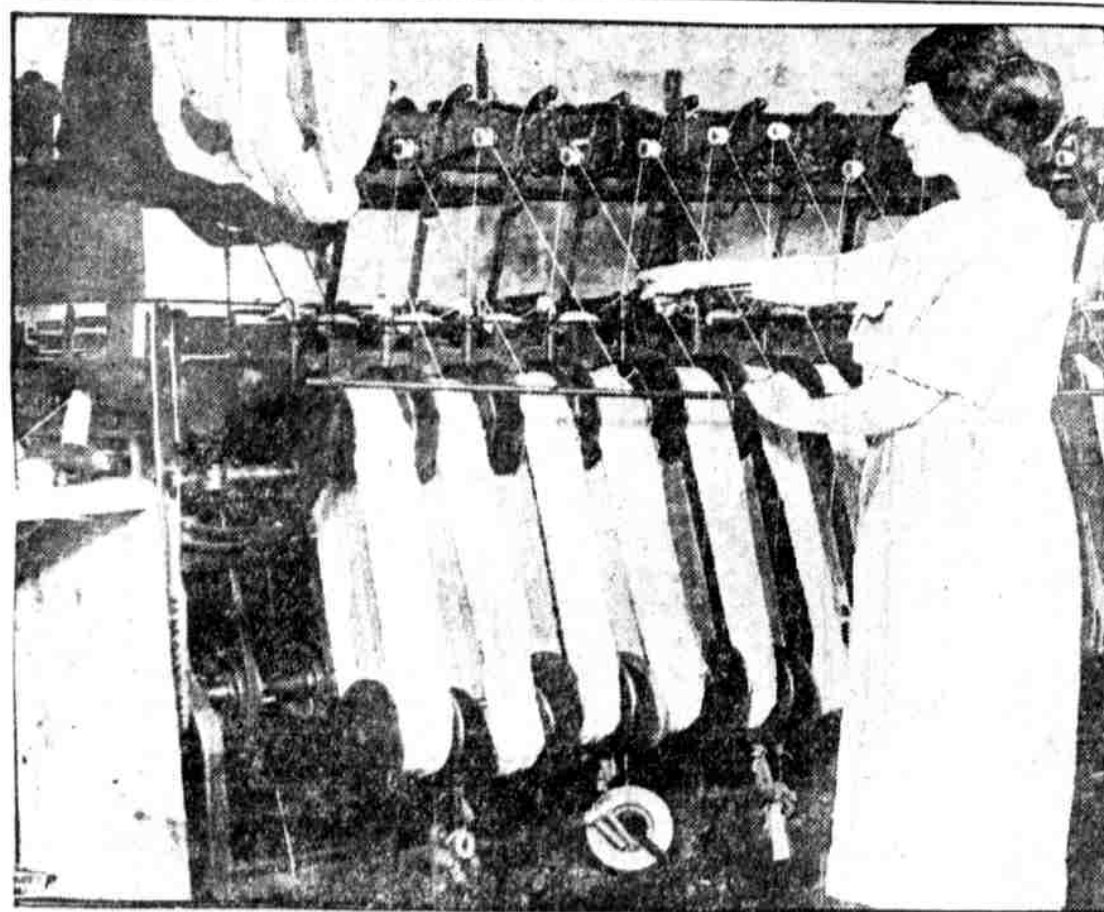

LOUIS C. BLOCK, chairman of the Philadelphia Annual Automobile Show committee. It opens tonight at the Commercial Museum.

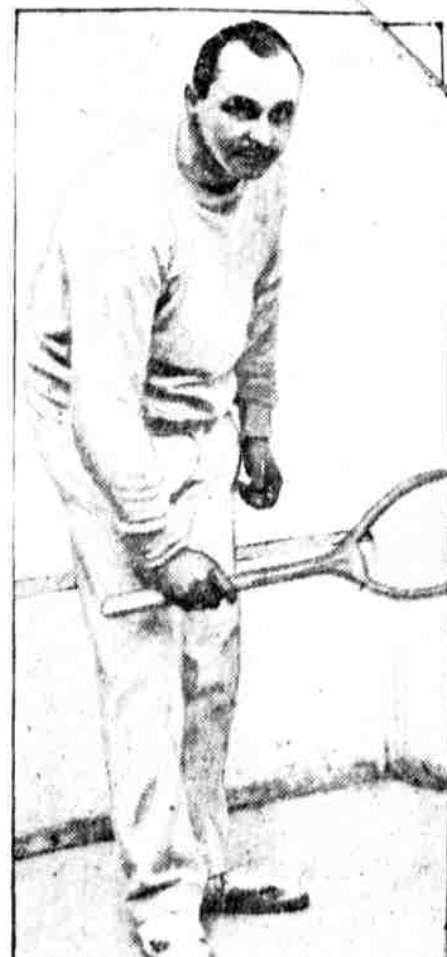

ENGLAND'S NEW PLAN FOR LICENSE TAGS. Since January 1 the official automobile license must be kept in holder. It is circular and shown near the windshield.

OUR CITY'S WORKERS AND WHAT THEY DO

MAY SPROWLES, 3611 Tasmanian street, operating a winding machine at the La France Textile Co., 1129 Frankford avenue. She is winding material on bobbins to be used in the weaving of tapestry.

JAY GOULD. The New Yorker will defend his title as the world's court tennis champion at the Racquet Club next week.

SEMAPHORE SENTINELS

AFTER SIXTEEN YEARS IN THE U. S. MARINE CORPS, Charles Nelson is now the reserve patrolman at Fifteenth and Chestnut streets. He has been on the force six months. Nelson, who is thirty-five years old, lives at 2415 South Watts street.

GERMANY'S STRONG BOY. Frank Urbani, the nine-year-old marvel, has been astonishing German folks by his acrobatic performances.

THE BEAUTY CORNER

MISS REBA GREENFIELD, 930 North Fifth street, Philadelphia.