SAYS HE PRAISED SOLDIER FOR SHOOTING A CITIZEN

Prosecutor Kelsey, of Burlington county, is preparing an "ultimatum" which he says he will send to Major General Edward P. Summerall, commanding officer at Comp Dix.

The prosecutor says he will ask the grand jury of the county to review alleged acts of "military aggression" on the part of the commandant, and if the evidence warrants cause his indictment and trial.

The trouble began when officers with children of school age, who had been sending them to the Pemberton High School, refused, under General Summerall's instructions, it is said, to pay tuition, and when the school board re-fused to teach the children had them sent to the Mt. Holly schools, where they are puy pupils.

Prosecutor Kelsey says that following this incident the general inaugurated a system of petty persecutions; threw an armed guard around Pemberton, and refused to let soldiers enter the place declaring the town was insanitary and immoral.
