

MISS AGNES E. SPECK, in skating costume

MISS MARY DUNCAN STEWART, in Greek attire

MISS AMELIA WARRINGTON gave East Indian dance

MISS IDA CUNNINGHAM, as the dancing girl

MISS AGNES LAND, as Miss Bob White

MISS RUTH A. WALRATH, as Miss Autumn

Among those who appeared in the carnival masquerade conducted by the Philadelphia Music Club in the roof garden of the Bellevue-Stratford last night, Miss Stewart gave some of her famous Greek interpretations. They were photographed during the rehearsal for "Miss Bob White" by members of the St. Francis Junior Aid at the Bellevue-Stratford last night. The play will be produced in the ballroom of the hotel tomorrow night.

AT THE NEW YORK POULTRY SHOW, Loretta Harris (left) and Dorothy Mackell, holding two of the prize-winning birds displayed at Madison Square Garden

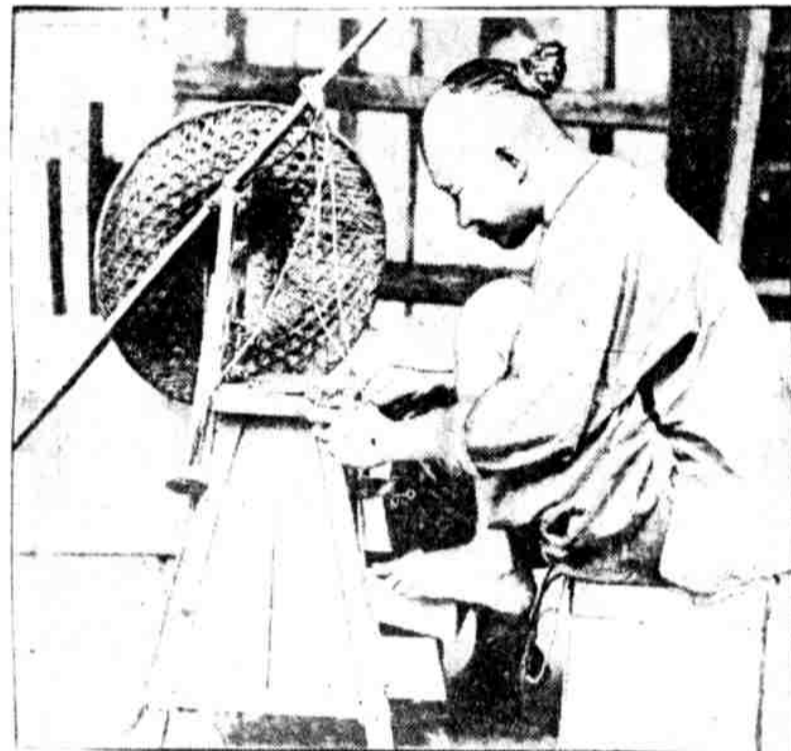

GREAT WEATHER FOR THE BOYS. The cold weather quickly made good ice along the Main Line. The photographer met this group of youngsters at Haverford. They were just making an attempt to "crack the whip"

CUTTING A FEW FIGURES. Miss Ruth Bristov was found on the ice in Fairmount Park

ADJUSTING HER SKATES. Peggy Binn, snapped at Concourse Lake, in Fairmount Park, yesterday afternoon, as she prepared to go on the ice for a few hours' skating

WHAT IS IT? GIVE YOU THREE GUESSES. We are showing a traveling locksmith at work in China. He travels from house to house, as do our umbrella menders

INTRODUCING "OULIA BOARD." The Pekinese dog doesn't seem to worry about his name, as he is cared for by Mildred Tracy, at the dog show being held at the Hotel Plaza, in New York

MRS. HARRY SCOTT, wife of Captain Harry Scott, of the Army of Occupation, has landed in New York. She was a French woman

FRANCISCO DE LA BARRA, former provisional president of Mexico, will head the Greco-Bulgarian arbitration tribunal

TEXTILE WORKERS JUDGE LIMPIN' LIM'RICKS. These textile workers met at Knitters' Hall, Fourth street below Huntingdon, to make today's award in the limrick contest. In the picture, from left to right, are (front row) Gustave Geiges, president Full Fashioned Hosiery Knitters' Local Union 706, and Frank McKosky, vice president United Textile Workers of America; (middle row) Lillie Tripp, Elma Cifelli, Mabel Young and Mabel McEntee; (back row) Mary Javes, Kathryn McClay, Anna Y. Torrance and Louise Fahrbach

OUR CITY'S WORKERS AND WHAT THEY DO

HOWARD J. SCHWEITZER, 2496 North Twelfth street, packing orders at the plant of the Larkin Company of Pennsylvania, 1926 Arch street

JACQUELINE LEBAUDY, of Westbury, L. I., is to receive $2000 monthly from the estate of her father, Jacques Lebaudy, who was slain by her mother

SEMAPHORE SENTINELS

TWENTY YEARS A POLICEMAN. Frank Stairiker, fifty-one years old, who lives at 121 South Fifty-seventh street, is the reserve patrolman at Eighteenth and Market streets. He has been stationed there for two years

HERE WITH HER HUSBAND, Mrs. G. K. Chesterton, wife of the noted English writer

TOOK HARDING'S PLACE IN SENATE. Frank B. Willis, former governor of Ohio, occupies the place vacated by the President-elect

THE BEAUTY CORNER

MISS O. NIXON 5003 Reno street Philadelphia