

SUNBURY DIVISION LAYS OFF 500 MEN

Further Cuts Expected in P. R. Working Force—Wages May Also Be Reduced

"FARM OUT" POLICY SEEN

Northumberland, Pa., Jan. 21.—More layoffs announced yesterday show a total of 208 furloughs on the Sunbury division of the Pennsylvania Railroad at this point, with 500 on the whole Sunbury division, which includes points between Wilkes-Barre, Pottsville and Sunbury. It is expected that a further reduction will be made today. Reduction in wages of department heads and yardmasters and their assistants is also promised.

Sunbury, Pa., Jan. 21.—Workmen here say they see in the present retrenchment policy of the Pennsylvania Railroad Co. the formation of a policy to "farm out" the repair work of the cars and locomotives that is being done at this and Northumberland shops. They assert that the American Car and Foundry Co. has big shops at Berwick and Milton and repair shops at Milton and Boonsburg. It is believed to be only the beginning of the end of doing away with all repair shops in the grand division centering here and being it all to the big carmakers. These plants all have larger capacities than they now use, it is said.

[Similar reports were current in Philadelphia some time ago, but met denial from P. R. R. and Baldwin officials.]

Hayre, Pa., Jan. 21.—Unless the 1000 employes in the Lehigh Valley Railroad shops here agree to lay off one day weekly a 10 per cent cut will be made in the force, R. L. Gebhart, superintendent of the Seaca division, said yesterday. It is expected that a like order will be submitted to the 3000 men under him. Each employe is asked to sign an agreement to go to the foreman every Friday and ask for Saturday off. By this procedure the national agreement providing for six days a week working days will be maintained. The agreement would be effective until the Lehigh restores all employes to full time. There is no indication as to what action the employes will take.

Wilmington, Del., Jan. 21.—Sixteen hundred Wilmingtonians, employes of the Pennsylvania Railroad, will be affected by recent orders for a 10 per cent reduction, according to an announcement of the company. While more than 2000 local residents have been laid off in the largest single cut yet made, an official announcement issued at the office here yesterday stated that the Southern Grand Division had dropped 6000 employes in the last year.

CLOTHING WORKERS SUED

Manufacturers Ask Court to Dissolve Amalgamated Association
New York, Jan. 21.—Dissolution of the Amalgamated Clothing Workers of America, an injunction restraining workers now on strike here from picking factories and $500,000 damages are asked in a suit filed in the Supreme Court by J. Friedman & Co., clothing manufacturers.

The suit, it was said, was brought in behalf of all members of the New York Clothing Manufacturers' Association. William A. Chandler, president of the manufacturers' organization, said that dissolution of the workers' association is sought because it is an "unlawful combination and conspiracy or trust" for the purpose of destroying the existing industrial structure in the clothing industry.

HUMANISMS : Inner Lights on Lives and Whims of Personages in the Public Eye

By WILLIAM AHERTON DU PUY
Joseph W. Folk is a man who cannot be disturbed by circumstance. This trait may have resulted from the experiences he has passed through, for it will be remembered that he first attracted attention by his prosecution of bribery cases in St. Louis, that as governor of Missouri he fought through much reform legislation that he was solicitor for the State Department and is now counsel for the Interstate Commerce Commission.
Certain it is he cannot be disturbed. This fact is attested to by Joseph E. Davies, of Wisconsin, formerly commissioner of corporations, for the United States.
These two government officials lived around the corner from each other in Washington. One summer they found yet made, an official announcement issued at the office here yesterday stated that the Southern Grand Division had dropped 6000 employes in the last year.

for a moment, smashed the glass of his door with the brickbat, reached in and turned the knob and clenched the argument he was making as he waived his friend to a seat. It was the third time he had thus let himself in.
Captain W. W. Helde, late of Military Intelligence, was at one time secretary to William J. Bryan. He is therefore full of stories, hitherto unpublished, about the Commissioner, stories that illustrate the agility of mind of that perennially interesting personality.
One such dates back to the occasion when Mr. Bryan visited Japan. In Tokyo an elaborate dinner was given in his honor and many celebrities of the Orient were present. Admiral Togo, naval hero of the Russo-Japanese war, sat next to the guest of honor.
The master of ceremonies was making his speech of introduction in the course of which he proposed a toast to the United States. At the moment of rising to drink it approached Mr. Bryan fumbled for his glass. Admiral Togo, unaware of the visitor's position on prohibition, noticed that he had grasped his water glass instead of that which contained wine. The admiral touched Mr. Bryan on the arm and drew his attention to what he considered an inadvertent mistake.

"Admiral," said the honor guest, "you won your victories on water. When you have won any of them on champagne I will drink toasts with you in it."

MAIL HORSE IS PENSIONED

Carrier Says Animal Covered 75,000 Miles in Last Seventeen Years
Greenville, S. C., Jan. 21.—Captain O. K. Brazzale, for seventeen years mail carrier on rural free delivery route No. 4, out of Westminster, S. C., retired this week. His horse "Dan" was also retired on a pension.

Captain Brazzale says he has kept a careful account of Dan's mileage and that the horse has carried Uncle Sam's mail a total distance of more than 75,000 miles over one route. During all time of his service, Dan has never missed a day on account of illness. Dan reached voting age last summer.

ABBOTT'S MILK

When you see the "A" on the cap of an Abbott milk bottle you can be sure that the milk is the cleanest obtainable. We pay the farmer a premium to produce clean milk—and we maintain a laboratory to see that he does it. Then, as additional safeguards, we thoroughly sterilize all utensils and bottles, so that the milk is delivered at your door as clean and sweet as it is humanly possible to make it.

Do Not Buy Ginger Ale That "Fizzes Over"

Ginger Ale that "fizzes over" when opened has been improperly carbonated, due to the fact that all the air has not been eliminated. Peacock Ginger Ale never "fizzes over" because by our exclusive method of making, all air is eliminated.

When you buy Peacock Ginger Ale notice how much more sparkling it is than other ginger ales. We boil and twice filter every drop of water used in Peacock before it is carbonated and combined with the pure flavoring ingredients. Peacock Ginger Ale comes from the bottle bubbling with vim and sparkle. The first taste of Peacock Ginger Ale will convince you of its superiority.

At grocery and drug stores in 16-ounce bottles. Look for the Peacock trademark and ask for PEACOCK.

You can also get Peacock Root Beer, Birch Beer, Sarsaparilla and Lemon Soda.
