EVENING PUBLIC LEDGER-PHILADELPHIA, FRIDAY, JANUARY 21, 1921

Two robbers, who broke into the Er-denheim postoffice, across the line from Chestnut Hill in Montgomery county. At 2 o'clock this morning, were discor-ared by suburban police, and after a fight, in which a number of shots were crchanged, one man was captured. He is being held prisoner at the sta-tion house of the Springfield township police, near Wyndmoor. The second man escaped.

street.

police, near Wyndmoor. The second man escaped. The Erdenheim postoffice is in . a huilding used as a lunchroom, and is apposite the stations of the P. R. T. Chestnut Hill lines and those of the Lib-erty Bell route to Allentown. The place faces on Montgomery avenue. About 2 o'clock George Keim, a watchman, found the men at work in the building. He first saw an open win-dow, and upon investigation saw two the building. The first saw an open win-dow, and upon investigation saw two men trying to open the drawer in which postofice receipts were kept. They had forced a slot stamp machine and taken stamps worth about $2 and a small sum money. The watchman attempted to halt the

The watchman attempted to hait the robbers as they fied from the building. First shots were fired, then Keim and the robbers grappled. He held to one thief, but was badly beaten by the other man, who tried to break Keim's grip on partner.

his partner. Fearing the noise of the five shots would bring help from the Wheel Pump Hotel, less than a half square away, one robber deserted his companion and twenty-one years.

ran. The shots had been heard and help reached Keim, who was almost ex-hausted by his battle, but who was still gripping his prisoner. The man was taken to the station house. He will be questioned today by federal agents.

MIXED JURY ACQUITS

Men and Women Serve on Same Panel in McCullen's Court

Bulk of Estate Goes to Relatievs. Five Institutions Also Beneficiaries For the first time since women were For the franchise, making them linble for jury duty, a mixed jury, with men-and women equally divided, was drawn today in Judge McCullen's Criminal The estate of Joseph G. Rosengarten. philanthropist and former trustee of the University of Pennsylvania, is be-queathed to members of his family with the exception of five gifts of $1000 each Fourt. The first two verdicts returned re-plted in acquittals. The first was that of five defendants charged with the larceny of an automobile, and the secto as many institutions. Estimates of Mr. Rosengarten's estat vary between $200,000 and $1,000,000 nd was of a man charged with high-

It was filed for probate yesterday. Legatees of the will are Fanny Rosengarten, a sister: Joseph G. Rosengarten, Jr., a nephew, and other relatives and servants in the home of the descient and was of a man charged with high-way robbery. George P. Barker, Frank Peterson, John Campbell, John Wright and Jo-seph Robinson, who reside in the vi-cinity of Fifty-second and Market treets, were arrested January 9 for the alleged theft of a machine belong-ing to Harry Sherry. the decedent. The sum of $1000 each is bequeathed The sum of $1000 each is bequeathed to the University of Pennsylvania, the Lankenau Hospital, the Glen Mills School, the Free Library of Philadel-phia and the Western House of Em-ployment, the latter as a memorial of the long services of Mr. Rosengarten's sister, Fanny, in its management.

the alleged there of a machine belong-ing to Harry Sherp. Rebert Driscoll, of Ridge avenue above Twenty-fourth street, was ac-quitted of the charge of robbing Leon-ard Carr, of 2443 Ridge avenue, of a signet ring and $7 in cash New Year's Eve.

BRIDE IS WITH BEATTY

The thirty-eighth annual meeting of the Indian Rights' Association will be held tonight in the Friends' Meeting House, 20 South Twelfth street, this evening. Herbert Welsh, president of the organization, and General H. L. Scott, U. S. A., will speak. Relative Admits Woman is in Hid ing With Fugitive

A member of the family of John Shaw, 2515 West street, Wilmington, admitted today that the daughter, Lil-lian, is now with her husband, Col-onel George W Beatty, veteran of the British air service, who is being sought by the New York police charged with nonsupport of a child by a former mar-

BANDITS ARE ROUTED LOVE-CRAZED GIRL Policeman Engages in Pistol Battle With Five Robbers

Held for Annoying Man, She Attempts to Leap From

Window TO HAVE FURTHER HEARING

Miss Beatrice Hebert, twenty-nine years old, of Montreal, arrested Wednesday night and held yesterday in $1500 bail for "annoying" the man she says she loves, attempted to leap from a sixth floor window of City Hall late

The car was identified as having been stolen last night from in front of the Majestic Hotel. It was the property of the Bloston, Lloyd & Pierpont Co., au-tomobile salesmen, at 502, North Broad street. yesterday. The information was made public only today.

After the hearing, at which Miss Hebert was held by Magistrate Mecleary for a further hearing next Thursday,

ARREST ARMED SAILORS

ROSENGARTEN WILL FILED

Indian Rights Association Meets

Patrolmen Find Revolver, Blackjack and Brass Knuckles on Pair

Possession of a blackjack, a pair of brass knuckles and a, revolver by two railors from League Island brought about their arrest early today. Police of the Eleventh and Winter streets station, who made the arrests, suspect the men of having intended to commit highway robbery. Patrolmen Pagliotto and Wilmer no-ticed the men, shortly after midnight, acting in a suspicious manner. They Miss Mary Moore, natron at the Central Station, was busy in another corner of the cellroom. Glancing up she saw Miss Herbert lower the upper sash of a window and start to climb the brass bars which extend half way up the window.

Miss Moore reached the window and clutched the woman's skirts just as she was about to hurl herself over the bars acting in a suspicious manner. They stopped the sailors and searched them. Then the miniature arsenal was found. The men are Ralph Williams, thirty-three years old, and J. B. Blanchard, They into the areaway. "Why did you do that?" Miss Moore

Mrs. Snellenburg Burled Today Funeral services for Mrs. Nathan Snellenburg, wife of Nathan Snellen-burg, founder of N. Snellenburg & Co., who died Wednesday following an ill-ness of several months, were held at her home. 2120 North Broad street, at 2 o'clock this afternoon. Rabbi Joseph Krauskopf officiated and interment was made in St. Sinai Cemetery.

cluding Miss Hebert, around the world last summer. During the tour she fell in love with him, followed him to Philadelphia and was so persistent in her attentions that he finally preferred charges which led to her deportation. Wednesday night she appeared at the office of the touring agency and de-manded to see Zinser. When Detective

Taggart, of City Hall, sought to dis-suade her she attacked him.

THIEF SUSPECT ARRESTED

Man Belleved to Have Robbed Aged Woman in Custody

Charged with the theft of $565 from Mrs. Anna Waters, sixty-five years old. Ars. Anna waters, sixty-live years old, of 4617 Oakland street, December 2 last, when she fainted on the street, Harry Baumgarten, of 2073 Janney street, was arrested by District Detective Slavin, of the Frankford station, last night. The police allege Baumgarten was one of several persons who rushed to the woman's aid when she fell to the pavement.

from shock.

æ

"Beware. You have gone far enough. Watch your step." Judge Jeffrey appeared unconcerned today as he discussed the letter. "I think some 'rumhound' is responsible." he said. "I have been handing out stiff sentences to boolleggers. I guess, they think they can put the fear of the Lord in my heart." The judge laughed at the idea of cxtra guardis in his courtroom. He believes the letter was simply a "bluff." He still will impose heavy sentences, he said, on those convicted of selling liquor illegally. It was suggested that perhaps he is carrying a revolver as a precaution.. "I wouldn't be surprised if some one tackled me and found I had one," was his diplomatic reply. the young woman, who said she had flown across the Canadian border in an airplane to reach the man she loves, was being held in a cellroom until a van arrived to take her to Moyamensing his diplomatic reply. FOX DIVORCE SUIT SURPRISE

No Reasons Disclosed for Action by

Mrs. Caleb Fox, Jr. Mrs. Helen W. Fox has entered suit for diverce in Common Pleas Court No. 5 against Caleb Fox, Jr., clubman and son of a widely known Philadelphin banker. They eloped and were married in Elkton eight years ago. The reasons for the suit were not disclosed. Mr. Fox, who is living at the Racquet Club, appeared astonished when informed of the suit. The couple formerly lived at Ogontz. Mrs. Fox was Miss Helen L. Wilm-ser, of this city.

ASK SILESIAN PLEBISCITE

Mandatory Government by Germany Opposed by Natives Here Resolutions advocating a plebiscite for Silesia were adopted last night by 500 persons who attended a meeting in Lu Lu Temple under the auspices of the Polish relief committee. C. Sienkie-wicz presided. Federal Judge Joseph Buffington was one of the speakers. Mandatory government by Germany over Silesia, a rich territory of 5000 square miles, would serve only to en rich Germany and make it more power ful, it was argued, while the granting of the plebiscite would be in line with the policy of allowing small nations to choose their own government.

tello without hall for court on a charge of highway robbery. It is alleged that on December 2. 1920, he helped Mrs. Anna Waters, sixty-five years o'd, to her home at 4617 Oakland street, after she had be-come suddenly ill at Leiper and Ortho-dox streets, and after helping her into the house grabbed her pocketbook, con-taining $565, and escaped. Mrs. Waters died later in the Frankford Hospital. Baumgartner was arrested last night at his home, on a description by District Detectives Slawin and Dougherty, of the Frankford station.

Frankford station. At the hearing today, his wife said he had told her he won the $565 in a lottery. The diary she kept recorder that with the money they had been able to make final payment on a piano and to make final payment on a piano and redeem a pawned ring. There were entries of expenditures for "movies." suppers and stamps. One expenditure was $27, spent by Baum-gartner for a Christmas gift for his father. Another item was $8 for a dol for one of his two chlidren. Grace Carty, colored, of 714 Perry street, Camden, maid in the Waters home on the day of the robbert identi.

home on the day of the robbery, identi-fied Baumgartner as the man who had disappeared with Mrs. Waters' purse. Mrs. Mary Nees, of 4615 Oakland street, who was called in when Mrs. Waters was brought home ill, also iden-tified Baumgartner and McMargd Octified Baumgartner, as did Edward Or-rell, of 1626 Seller street, in whose delivery truck Baumgartner took Mrs. Waters to her home.

Motor-Crash Victim Gets $6000 Reading, Pa., Jan. 21 .-- A verdict of $6000 was given by a jury to Harry Croll, a motorcyclist, struck by the mo-torcar of Ephraim P. Wanner, in an accident, in which Croll's leg was broken, making him permanently lame.

of Sick Woman FIRST HELPED HER HOME A diary kept by his wife, containing entries of expenditures, was produced today at a hearing given Harry Baum-gartner, of Janney street, below Indi-ana avenue, held by Magistrate Cos-tello without hail for court on a charge of highway robbery. It is ana avenue, held by Magistrate Cos-tello without bail for court on a charge Old York Road Car Jumps Ralls, Delaying Early Travelers

GOVERNOR CELEBRATES

Observes Wedding and Inauguration

Anniversaries at Home

Governor Sproul has Inid aside offiof at his desk in Harrisburg.

al duties today and will be at Lapidea

Hundreds of passengers on trolley ars of Routes 23 and 65, on Old York road, were delayed a half-hour when a car jumped the tracks on German town avenue below Tenth street shortly after 7:30 o'clock this morning. Cars bringing passengers from Ger-mantown, Chestnut Hill and the sub-urbs along the Old York road wer-blocked. Many of the riders grew impatient at the wait and walked to Twelfth street and continued toward the center of the city in the Twelfth street cars. At the P. R. T. offices it was said the car was off the rails for twentyseven minutes.

してして、して、して、して、して、

Supremacy - assuring permanent satisfaction

ICE RETARDS RIVER BORINGS

Cable is Cut by Floes-Rock 110

Feet Down at Walnut Street

Chickens and Ducks.

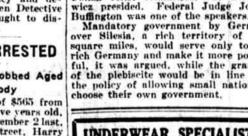

¶ After all-the only real test of Clothes Value is the Service given.

I There are many glittering propositions in the Clothing Advertisements at present. How many of them are really worth con-

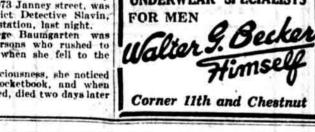

Old - fashioned Values at old-fashioned Prices! Worsteds that it will do your heart good to look at, to feel, and to wear! Conservative models, conservative patterns, plain colors, single stripes and self - twills! Overcoatings of fine, warm fabrics, ample of cut, deep of collar-the kind to wear in the severest weather.

> Only Two Days left to get yours at these Prices-$32, $35, $38, $42

HATS

UNDERWEAR SPECIALISTS FOR MEN

asked. "I wanted to kill myself," She Miss Hebert said, hysterically. She was given medical attention by Dr. John H. WBS Egan, police surgeon. Miss Hebert was deported to Canada last October after she had annoyed William Zinser, representative of a touring agency, at 1335 Walnut street. He had conducted a touring party, in-cluding Miss Hebert, around the world

