

ANOTHER USE FOR THE AUTOMOBILE. Reserve Patrolman Keser found that the heat from the radiator was useful yesterday morning in keeping his fingers warm. Ledger Photo Service.

SAYING GOOD-BY. President-elect Harding shaking hands with friends at St. Augustine, Fla., as he stands on the deck of the house boat on which he made a river trip. Underwood & Underwood.

WILL VISIT AMERICA IN SPRING. Queen Marie of Rumania, comes through arrangements made by the wife of the Rumanian minister. Central News Photo.

MRS. JAMES R. WORTH, OF RICHMOND, VA., only surviving child of Commodore Matthew Fontaine Maury, of Virginia, will name the scout cruiser Richmond, to be launched at Cramp's shipyard. Wide World Photo.

SKATING INSTRUCTOR FOR CHICAGO SCHOOLS. Miss Bonnie Miller holds down the job in a fine manner. She's some fancy skater, too. Underwood & Underwood.

MISS THEODORA S. BUTCHER, of the Y. W. C. A., discusses employer and employee, in an interview on the Editorial Page.

REJECTED DIPLOMAT AND FAMILY AWAIT ORDERS. Alfred Nagle sent by the Etyvian Republic accompanied by his wife, recently arrived in New York. Since their arrival the baby was born. International Photo.

GETTING READY FOR ACTORS' FUND BENEFIT. A mass-meeting of members of the theatrical profession was held at the Forrest Theatre yesterday to plan for the event to be held on Friday of next week. Raymond Hitchcock and his wife Ethel entertained the crowds that lined Broad street at noon. At the right are Miss Julia Sanderson and Donald Brian, stage folk, who are helping a lot. Ledger Photo Service.

POPULAR WASHINGTON DEBUTANTE. Miss Evelyn Wallace, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon H. Wallace, of Brooklyn Heights, N. Y., has been entertained extensively. Central News Photo.

USING BLOCK AND TACKLE ON WRECKED AUTOMOBILE. A large touring car, stolen from owner Monday night, crashed through the fence, at Hermit Lane, in Fairmount Park, running into Wissahickon creek. Photo.

TEACHERS AWARDED LIMPIN' LIM'RIK PRIZE. Federal Board of Vocational Training Instructors, at the Spring Garden Institute, Broad and Spring Garden streets, made the award announced today in the limeric contest. In the picture from left to right are (seated, front row) Foster H. Welkel and G. Howard Neuber; (seated, second row) B. B. Charles, Miss Hannah Hall, Miss Sara Rene Goldberg, Robert H. Erny and Jay W. Worrall; (standing, back row) A. Boone Post, F. S. Gilbert, M. J. Noone, M. G. Kramer and William Lawrence. Photo.

IN THE MINUET. It's part of the graduation exercises to be held at the Furness School, Third and Mifflin streets, tonight. Left to right, the girls are Hilda Bimstock, Helen Kaempfer and Rose Trichonsky. Ledger Photo Service.

OUR CITY'S WORKERS AND WHAT THEY DO

D. H. DIXON, of 6106 Spruce street, at work in the shop of the Leader Vulcanizing and Tire Co., 1327 Race street. The tires are in the molds being cured under fifty pounds steam pressure, at the rate of twenty-five a day. Ledger Photo Service.

SOCIETY HELPS ITALIAN MILK FUND. Mrs. John A. Drabow, at the dress rehearsal for Cupid's Ball, to be held in New York. Wide World Photo.

CONGRESSMAN L. W. PARTRISH, holding a walking stick, presented to President Wilson by the Democrats of Wise county, Texas. Herald & Irving.

AT THIRTEENTH AND MARKET STREETS. This is Reserve Patrolman James J. Hendrick, forty years old, of 836 North Forty-third street, who has been on that corner for three years. He was made a patrolman eight years ago. Hendrick is married and has two children. Ledger Photo Service.

CRANKED AS NO. 2. Miss Helen Sewell, of this city, has been picked by the United States Lawn Tennis Association from among the girl tennis players of 1920. Ledger Photo Service.

MISS MAE TSCHOPP, 3743 Kensington avenue Philadelphia. Ledger Photo Service.