DE VALERA MOVES

Not in France, but in Dublin, It Is Now Stated - Report Designed to Hide Whereabouts

CORK MAYOR STILL IN U. S. night.

CORK MAYOR STILL IN U. S.

Inght.

By the Associated Press

Dublin, Jan. 28.—It is declared here today, on what was represented as the highest authority, that Eamonn De highest authority, that Eamonn De highest authority, that Eamonn De highest numbers of his will in Dublin, and that reports of his first to France were erroneous, probatisit to France were erroneous, probatis to france were erroneous, probatis to enjoy officials had were and ventilatin Parls. Jan 28.—(By A. P.)—Eamonn De Valera, who has been making a brief visit to France, will be back in Ireland within twenty-four hours, it was declared here today by Sean O'Ceallaigh, who is representative in France of the Irish Republican movement. He said De Valera was expected to arrive in Dublin today, or at the latest, by tomorrow forenoon.

Was many given to the chauffeur to drive home, seemed to have more nervous energy left than the man who appears in the advertisement of a certain well-known breakfast food.

All Kinds of Life

From a little schoolroom down on Fitzwater street, where the camaraderie of downtowners linked the Mayor with shining faced grade school gradulatest, by tomorrow forenoon.

to arrive in Dublin today, or at the latest, by tomorrow forencoon.

No effort had been made by the Irish Republican leader while he was in France to see Premier Lloyd George, now in Paris attending the supreme council sessions. declared O'Ceallaigh, nor had any attempt been made to bring the Irish question before the surgeme council.

With shining faced grade school graduates and their parents, to the gleaming ballrooms of the hotels de luxe. Mr. Moore went intrepidly through the hectic gamut.

As for his reward, he had the questionable pleasure of an interrupted motor ride and the greater satisfaction of knowing that his audiences, whether wentling the property from Chicago or wentling that his audiences, whether wentling the parents and their parents, to the gleaming ballrooms of the hotels de luxe. Mr. Moore went intrepidly through the hectic gamut.

route formerly used and that they were being answered through the same chan-

New York, Jan. 28.—(By A. P.)— The American committee for relief in Irelan announced today that the Donal O'Callaghan, lord mayor of Cork, who yesterday disappeared from sight, was still in the United States and would re-

TREASURER ADMITS THEFT

Marion Official Confesses He Framed Story of Hold-Up

Marion, O., Jan. 28 .- (By A. P.)-Treasurer Harry C. Forry, of Marion county, who reported Wednesday be had been robbed of $14,303 by two ban-dits who knocked him unconscious in his office in the courthouse, was arrested today.

Not satisfied with his story of the robbery, police say they became sus-picious of Forry and late last night obtained a written confession from the reasurer, admitting that he himself stole the money from the courthouse safe Tuesday night, taking it to his home where he hid it in a chest.

Forry was arrested early this morning, almost immediately following the arrival of a new baby at his home.

MILLIONS FOR CONNECTICUT

Bill for Charter Discloses Large Gift for Welfare Work

Hartford, Conn., Jan. 28 .- (By A. illions, to form a foundation for general welfare work in Connecticut, Mrs. Jenkius is a daughter of Marcellus Hartley, who was the dominating figure in the development of the Rem-ington Arms plant and the Union Metallie Cartridge plant in Bridgeport.

WILL BENEFITS CHARITIES

Alexander S. Strouse, Wine Merchant, Remembered Institutions Institutions and fraternal societies enefit by the will of Alexander S. trouse, retired wine merchant, who died in New York on January 3, whose isposing of an estate valued at These bequests are made; $1000 to the Jewish Hospital Association, $1000 to the Hebrew Orphans' Home, $1000 to the Masonic Home at Elizabethtown.

Ps., $1000 to the Eagleville Sanatorium, near Norristown, Pa.; $500 to the Jewish Foster Home, $500 to the Solidary School, $500 to the School, $500 to the Grand Lodge, Free and Accepted Masons; $250 to the Orphans' Guardian. $250 to the Young Women's Union; tesidue of the estate to the widow and five children.

will of the late William II. divides a $40,000 estate. The sum of $2000 is given to the endow-ment fund of the Westminster Presbyterian Church, and $200 to the Western Temporary Home, the remainder being bequeathed to relatives.

Other wills admitted and the value of the estates were: Edward T. Fulmer.
1501 O'd York road, Oak Lane, $14.200: Charles P. Hoyt, 856 North Twenstatter, 2041 North Sixth street, 90: Elizabeth J. Thompson, of In City, $8000. These inventories were filed: Estate of Virginia R. Bowers, $248,802,45; Elizabeth J. Curran, $61,315,90; Oster Goehrin, $5358,54.

Letters of administration were granted in the estate of Frank A. Hoppe, 1917 West Somerset street. The estate is valued at $16,500.

Deaths of a Day

Peter Di Donato

Peter Di Donato, agent for the Met an Life Insurance Co. and a lown resident of West Philadeldied yesterday in his nome, 526 yn road. He was forty three years

Di Donato was founder of the fourth Ward Italian American ns Club, secretary of the Italian on of the Liberty Loan committee prime mover in the recently ord Haddington Taxpayers' Associated the second of the second wed Mayor Moore last September ling the removal of the quarry in the Haddington district. His and three children survive him. Uneral services will take place at it residence Monday.

George Thomas Seai

corge Thomas Seal, a member of old Quaker Seal family, who died hesday at his home, 1010 Clinton et, will be buried tomorrow. Mr. "s death was due to heart trouble.

was in his seventy ninth year. He sa veteran of the Civil War and one the few surviving members of the jatone Battalion. Mr. Seal was ratione Battalion. Mr. Seal was tive up until a few days of his death, he funeral services will be held at 2 clock. ek tomorrow afternoon at 1924 astreet. Interment will be private,

FAIL EVEN TO TIRE MAYOR "later tonight." To a bellboy, he added, with the air of a true man about town, "Oh, well, I'm getting used to it, even if the wife isn't." HARDING ON SHAKY CRAFT FIVE ADDRESSES IN NIGHT

CREATE MYSTERY

Secretary, Bodyguard and Chauffeur Suffer More as They

Speech No. 4 of the evening was delivered in the ballroom of the Bellevue-Whisk His Honor From One End of Town to Other

> A lot of folks who think they are away and then jump on to the next doing a man a favor when they elect function. him Mayor should have been along with would have in explaining things to Mrs.

Johnson, the Mayor, when the word was finally given to the chauffeur to drive home, seemed to have more nervous energy left than the man who appears in the advertisement of a certain well-known breakfast food.

Bellevue-Stratford. By the time the Mayor's turn came to speak, all the good puns about hot air, warm receptions and so forth had been used.

But the Mayor came up smiling, qualifying as an expert on hot air by announcing that he had served once as a congressman. He told the 450 momentary whereabouts of De Valera or his mission in France, but said the Irish leader had been in Paris and in several other cities during his visit to this country.

It was stated by Cold in the least object to showknowing that his audiences, whether ventillating experts from Chicago or this country.

It was stated by O'Ceallaigh that letters addressed to De Valera were reaching him through the roundabout route formerly used and that they were being answered through the same chan-

Thirty-eight boys and girls—the girls in new white chiffon and organdle—and the boys, some of them in their first long-trousered suits were expectantly waiting for that part of the program given over to the Mayor. At the long rows of desks in the main still in the United States and would reappear publicly tomorrow at an Irish meeting in this city. The committee denied romors that, like Eamonn De talera, he had slipped quietly out of this country, headed for Ireland.

At the long rows of desks in the main assembly room, parendes of the boys and girls who are leaving the eighth grade to enter high school, beamed proudly upon their favorite members of the graduating class. Down in the street more than a score of urchins, who had no brothers or sisters in the graduating class and who had no entree to the large swinging Philadelphia's first citizen. Then 8 o'clock came and an official locking limousine was driven up to the door of the school. As the Mayor step-ped to the sidewalk, his juvenile friends set up a cheer, that belied their size.

The Mayor bowed his thanks for the unofficial greeting. In his address to the eighth-grade pupils and their parents, he drove home a few truths concerning America and the rewards to be gained by hard work. Feels at Home

He was very much at home, in spite of his formal black clothes, and a cruelly stiff shirt and high collar.
"Let's see, you're from Third and Reed streets, aren't you?" he asked. turning to Miss Anna Campbell, principal of the school. "You're a down-towner, too?"

"Yes. I'm a downtowner," Miss Campbell replied, "and I'm proud of

As the Mayor left the school, he 2) - A bill for a charter for the Hart-by trust fund, presented to the General on his arrival were still standing in the discloses that Mrs. cold, waiting to catch another glimpse takins will be the donor of him.

He paused a minute before stepping into his car. boys for your fine reception," he said, smiling. The boys cheered him until his machine was out of sight. Back in his motorcar, the Mayor had no respite. "How about that speech Gaffney made this afternoon in Council?" a po-litical reporter asked him.

The next stop was at the Hotel Lorraine, where members of the East End Republican Club and their ladies were giving a testimonial dinner to Robert Patton, councilman from the Eighth district, one of the stanchest friends of the administration.

Members of the club who had worked for the Mayor's election a litt'e more function.

He reassured his friends he had not deviated from his purpose in beating i'the contractor combine.'' Then he posed with the crowd while photographers made a flashlight and was on his way again.

Ovation when he entered. Later, he was given an automatic pistol by T. J. Fernley, who said, albuding to the Mayor's enemies, ''If you can't get 'em any other way, try this.''

I'don't need this for my enemies.'' J. Hampton Moore on his whirlwind oratorical swing around the city last posed with the crowd while photographers made a flashlight and was on

But the Mayor came up smiling.

But the Mayor came up smiling.

qualifying as an expert on hot air by announcing that he had served once as a congressman. He told the 450 this city. All Kinds of Life

From a little schoolroom down on Fitzwater street, where the camaraderie of downtowners linked the Mayor with shiping feed and an all the Mayor in Chicago.

All Kinds of Life

a congressman. He told the 450 strangers that this city has the Philadelphia Navy Yard, Fairmount Park and nights—in this year, and two more years thereafter of the Mayor's equaled, even in Chicago.

Stratford at the thirty-fifth annual banquet of the Hardware Merchants' and Manufacturers' Association of

Which is a long, long trail that may da political situation that cannot be purely as the personage as the Mayor's bodyguard.

A Great Sale Tomorrow to Interest All Mothers and Guardians Generally Throughout Phi adelphia

Children's Button Shoes For Dress and School

A Final Cut! Sizes 7 to 2. Gunmetal or Patent Colt. Broken sizes, but all sizes contained in the splendid assortments. Let us say that this Final Cut brings the price of $2.90 far below original cost and even below "replacement value" today!

Another Lot of Shoes for Growing Girls . .

Also regardless of cost! Gunmetal lace with grey or black cloth tops. Sizes 21/2 to 6. Very Extraordinary Value. Downstairs Department.

Mothers: Buy your Kiddies' Hose here and now - at current reductions!

alsimer 'Tis a Feat to Fit Feet

1204-06-08 Market Street

SUITS & COSTUMES

All Fur-trimmed

Formerly up to 450.00 ... 149.50

Formerly up to 149.50 .... 59.50 Formerly up to 225.00 .... 79.50

GOWNS

Street, Afternoon and Evening Formerly up to 199.50 ..... 59.50

EVENING WRAPS

Formerly up to 695.00 ... 199.50

Formerly up to 350.00 .... 99.50

1310 Chestnut Street

Pre-Inventory Sale

The Entire Blum Store Stock

Reduced to Cost and Below Cost!

For Saturday!

All Sales Final: No C. O. D.: No Approvals.

THE BLUM STORE-A New Organization With an Old Name

FURS

Formerly 250.00 36 inch length, with deep collar of Australian Opessum. 1250.00 Jap Mink Wrap. 449.00

139.50 Sealine Coats.... 69.50

400.00 Sealine Wrap .... 189.50

895.00 Hudson Seal Wrap- 549.50

1200.00 Hudson Seal Wrap 449.50

Coat . . .

Natural Skunk collar.

New York, Jan. 28.—(By A. P.)— collision Alleging the yacht Victoria, now housing President-elect Harding on a southern drydock. cruise, was defective, though represented as seaworthy when he purchased it, Senator Joseph S. Frelinghuysen. The new entrants for the coming of New Jersey, yesterday instituted suit term in the high schools of the city show sound except for two minor imperfec-tions. Discovery that several timbers one course was in the academic, where at the bow and stern were unsound was 785 enrolled.

made after the purchase, the senator states. A former captain of the vessel, which was originally called the yesterday the yacht was damaged in a the Victoria was being removed from Philadelphia. The Mayor received an ovation when he entered. Later, he was given an automatic pistol by T. J. Fernley, who said, albuding to the Mayor's enemies, "If you can't get "em any other way, try this."

I Sew Jersey, yesterday instituted suit term in the high schools of the city shown in Brooklyn to recover $5000 from the on advance of 784 over the number that an advance of 784 over the number that are determined in Brooklyn to recover $5000 from the city shown in Brooklyn to recover $5000 from the original owner.

Senator Frelinghuysen claims he purchased the vessel for $9000 last September to be provided the provided that the purchased the vessel for $9000 last September to be provided the purchased the vessel for $9000 last September to be provided the purchased the vessel for $9000 last September to be provided the purchased the vessel for $9000 last September to be provided the purchased the vessel for $9000 last September to be provided the purchased the vessel for $9000 last September to be provided the purchased the purchased

Values 8.50, 10.00 and 14.50

We have taken several hundred hats and marked them for Saturday only, in this splendid showing of newest chic models.

Delightful originality is in evidence, while the smart color-ings are all new. Materials are Faille and Gros-de-Londres Silks, Crepe de chine, All-over Straw Cloths, Candy Cloth and ever so

-CLOSE OUTS!----

All Velvet Hats and Fur Combinations

BELOW COST! =Purchasing Agents' Orders Accepted=

ELGIN

Jewelry (redit Is Yours For

JUR PRICES ARE BAC.

Credit to Honest Folks

ROGERS SILVER

39 NORTH 13TH STREET

Well Known to Thousands of People in Philadelphia as the Very Best Butter

Down ZQ c

The lowest price within the past two years.

Elgin Butter, 50c lb. A Very Fine Table Butter

Goshen Eggs, 72c doz.

EVERY EGG STRICTLY FRESH The Kind You Can Eat Raw and Enjoy

Look for a Mountaine Store in Your Neighborhood laboratory-tested. Then - and then only - we call it Clean Milk and put the "A" cap on.

Phone Us to Deliver a Bottle Tomorrow-Baring 205

ABBOTTS ALDERNEY DAIRIES, INC.

31st and Chestnut Atlantic City

Our Conservative Overcoats going like "Hot Cross Buns"!

And it is little wonder when we tell you that every standard, staple, Chesterfield overcoat in the William H. Wanamaker store's stocks is being sold at these prices

$65 for $90, $95 and $100 Overcoats

These contain finest Worombo fabrics and they are as genuine in worth as their cloths are in weave and quality.

Meltons and unfinished cloths; all

$45 for $75 Overcoats

silk lined with handsome velvet collars. $30 for $45 Overcoats

Handsome blacks, standard oxfords, and the desirable Cambridge grays. Your choice of velvet or cloth collars.

More $30 Worsted Suits

In some instances, their qualities run as high as $50. Not one is worth less than $40, and most of them are $45 qualities.

All patterns, all sizes, up to 44 inch breast measure. Splendid business suits.

All Fur Collar Overcoats—$75

This is a remarkable special offer when it is considered that some of these overcoats have sold as high as $175.

Otter, nutria, beaver and opossum skins cut into collars of most generous size. Handsome fabrics. Overcoats of firm velour coatings with handsome plaid backs of $65 and $70 qualities, all hand tailored to sell for ...

Your selection of any of our $60, $65 or $75 winter suitings, tailored to your meas-

Any of our $80, $85 or $90 winter suitings, tailored to your measure for .....

More Reconstruction Items!

$50 to $65 Overcoats and Ulsters, 35 $65 to $75 Overcoats and Ulsters, $45 $80 & $85 Overcoats and Ulsters, 55 $60, $55 & $50 all-wool Suits for $35 $70, $65 & $60 all-wool Suits for $45 $85, $80 & $70 all-wool Suits for 55

William H. Wanamaker

1217-19 Chestnut St.