

MOTHER AND CHILD. The baby macaque, less than two weeks old, with the mother monkey, at the Philadelphia Zoo.

TEN DAYS OLD. Another addition to the family at the Zoo is the baby llama, shown with the mother, which stood with head erect as the photographer made an exposure.

THEY TESTIFIED AGAINST BRINES. At the left is Henry J. Fitzgerald, an expert from the Colt Arms Co., where the pistol introduced in the murder trial of the Penn student was manufactured.

Handwritten signatures and notes on a board, including names like 'Druid', 'Reading', 'Vague', 'Wald', 'Hest', and 'No. 8-88 of of 2'.

INITIATED INTO SIOUX TRIBE OF INDIANS. Such was the recognition given Miss Cyrena Van Gordon, the opera singer, for her work in gathering funds for Indian charity.

PRESIDENT OF THE CLASS. Katherine M. Eavenson, of the West Philadelphia High School for Girls.

GRADUATION PROGRAM HAS HISTORIC SETTING. Pupils of the Robert Morris School, Twenty-sixth and Thompson streets, appeared in costume at the exercises, held yesterday afternoon.

At the left are Carl Wright and Ida De Beer. In the 'Spirit of '76' group are John Bird, Jack Bright and Norman Brown.

CLASS OFFICERS. Nearly two hundred girls were graduated from the William Penn High School last night.

The president of the class is Katharine B. Rosenbaum (left), Gloria R. Glenn, vice president (center) and Helen S. Cottingham, secretary.

ARE YOU READY FOR SLIPPERY SIDEWALKS? The ladies wear skid-strips on their shoes in Cincinnati.

THE REV. ZED HETZEL COPP, chaplain of the Eastern Penitentiary, talks on social aims in an Easteral Pageant.

WITH CHAMPION DOGS. James Macy Willets, Jr., J. Kennedy Willets and Mary Gladys Willets, at the fish specialty show of the American Spaniel Club, in New York.

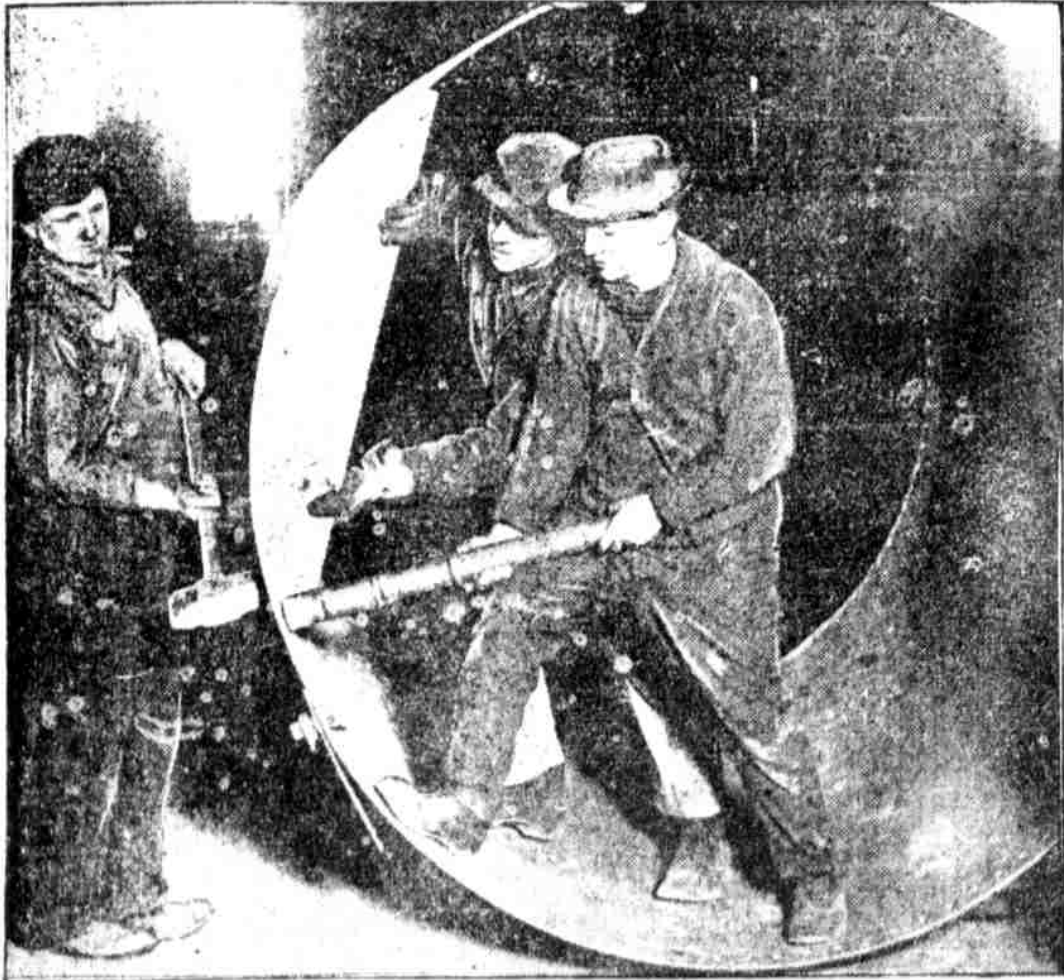

MISS ALWIDA LOBNITZ skiing at Murren, Switzerland, where English society folks are reveling in the winter sports.

LARKIN CO. GIRLS JUDGE LIMPIN' LIMRICKS. These employees in the premium department of the Larkin & Co. building, at 1926 Arch street, picked out the winning lim'rick that is announced today.

OUR CITY'S WORKERS AND WHAT THEY DO

ROUNDING BOILER PLATE INTO CIRCLE. William M. and William B. and Jim Wellington detaching the first rivets into the hole after cutting this section of boiler plate. They are workers in the Keystone Boiler Works, 6140 Columbia street.

MISS ANNA WELSH, harpist, will play at the concert for the St. Ignatius House and Farm for Unemployed Men, on January 31, at the Metropolitan.

SEMAPHORE SENTINELS. FARMOLMAN LEROY CKEAGLE, of Twelfth and Market streets. He lives at 773 North Thirty-eight street. Keagle is married and has one child. For nine years he has been a member of the police department.

CONGRESSMAN SOON TO BE REPORTER. Representative Isaac R. Sherwood, of Ohio, will represent Ohio paper in Texas gallery.

MISS FANNIE KILPATRICK 4022 North Eighth street Philadelphia