MAYBE IT IS SO MUCH KICKING OR SOMETHING THAT MAKES A GOAL TENDER IN SOCCER

FRANK BANCROFT, IDENTIFIED WITH BASEBALL FOR 50 YEARS, IS "GRAND OLD MAN" OF GAME

Sports Editor Evening Public Ledger

FRANK C. BANCROFT, business manager of the Cin-cinnati baseball club, has been replaced. Another has taken his job and will pilot the Reds through the South this spring.

Business managers have been in and out of baseball for a long time, but none can compare with Bancroft, of the Reds. He was an institution in Redinad. He stoed alone as the gran old man of baseball, and despite his years was considered the best in either league. Now he is laid up with neuritis and cannot fulfill his duties.

Bancroft is the oldest man connected with our great national pastime. For fifty years he has been in the game, starting as a player in the early sixties when a soldier in the Union army. For forty-four years he has been in organized baseball, a record which never has been equaled. He always has been active and few realize he is seventy. six years old. He doesn't look it.

He has been in Cincinnati since 1890 and has had a lot to do with the specess of the Reds. He is a great showman and never overlooks a bet. Every year he gets a list of conventions to be held in the various cities on the circuit and the visiting delegates know when he arrives in town. He has arranged the barnstorming trips of the Reds for years and is acquainted with every town and hamlet in the United States. It was he who discovered Cisco, Tex., as a 1921 training camp-

Banuy became manager of the New Bedford team in 1877 and proved to be a wizard. He had a wonderful team, which included Jake Frans, famous afterward as the greatest right fielder; theory there, the outfielder who later became a member of Anson's White Stockings; George Washington Bradley, who became the leading pitcher in the American Association; Harry Storey, the king of base manners. Jim Mutrie, who later managed the original New York Giants, and Reilly, who gained fame as a catcher in the National Lengue.

Bancroft was a business man hud paid his players $50 a month. They were satisfied with the salary. Bradley, who was an exception received $100 a month and stood out like Babe Ruth, Ty Cobb and Tris Speaker

In 1870 he organized the Hop Bitters team of Rochester and created quite a sensation when he trained at New Ofleans and took the team over to Cuba. This is the first time the island had been invoded by ball tossers The game was so successful that the players left in the dead of night on a freight steamer headed for Tampa.

In 1880 Banoroft went to Worcester, taking with him Arthur Irwin, who later became a star. The next two seers Banny managed the Detroit Nationals, and in 1884 assembled the Providence National League team, which won the first world's championship from the Metropoli tans, of New York.

Then followed engagements at Rochester, Philadelphia Indianapolis and Milwaukee until 1890, when he went to Cincinnati, and has lived there ever since. . . .

BASEBALL is on learned with regret of Banciaties B illusia and lope he will be a shape to take an other trip ground the conditional year.

Further Jolts for the Reds

WHILL on the subject of Cincinnati, it might be weat condition that the loss of Bandroft is not the only one sustained by the Reds. "Bubbles" Hargraves, considered the best entries in the minor leagues last year and who was purchased from the St. Paul club for a bale of dough, has broken his leg. This hands Moran's team a terrible joit for the youngster was considered so good and so much was expected of him that Nick Allen was traded and Hill Rariden allowed to resign. Ivy Wingo is the only eatcher left and the fans are howling about their hard luck already.

The trade which sent Ring and Neale here in exchange for Rixey did not make much of a hit. The natives be-lieve they received the worst of it, but Moran needed a port-sided pitcher and was willing to pay well for one Pat evidently does not think much of Marquard or bas arranged a deal in which the Rube will figure. Bill Phelon, the scribe, thinks it was a fifty fifty break for both clubs. He says :

"Cincinnati fans greatly admire Neale and think Ring is a wonderful pitcher, but, all things considered, the deal has its good points and its advantages for both clubs. Philadelphia needed another outfielder, and with no sun in his eyes Neale not only will play a great fielding game but will hit around .280, and his base running will liven up that collection of dead ones. Jimmy Ring will be a great aid to Donovan if Wild Bill can make James take off weight and tend to business. Jimmy will be glad to play so near home, too, as he can spend much more time with his family.

"Therefore, all things given equal balance, the Quakers did splendidly on the deal."

NOTHER piece of seves from Redland is that A the fans already are buying tickets for the upening game. They also are making reservations for the battle on July 25 when Babe Ruth and the Yankees play an exhibition same there

Fight Is Still Homeless

THE Carpentier Dempsey $500,000 extravaganza still I is without a home. Tex Rickard is listening to offers from out of town and Canadian promoters, but has not indulged in conversation regarding what is to be A Montreal syndicate has offered a guarantee of $700,000 hold the battle in that moist and popular city, and Floyd Fitzsimmons is boosting Benton Harbor, Mich.

While this is going on Jess Willard is in the East all Let up ever his approaching fuss with the champion. Joss seems to think the battle will be held as per schedule and Rickard shares this belief. However, there is a persistent rumor that Jack Kearns will throw a wrench into the machinery and the bout will be transferred to some other state where $15 is not the maximum price for seats.

Kearns had visions of a huge purse at the Garden and probably will not stand for a cut. He will be in New York on Monday to talk things over with the promoter.

A Dempsey-Willard match is about the biggest thing that could be pulled in fistic circles at this time. Jess, after crawling out of the ring in Toledo with a broken jaw and battered countenance, declated he was through with the fight game for good. Then, after thinking it over, he started to train-something he neglected to do before the battle.

He is in good condition and says he wants to mix with Dempsey again to prove the outcome of the other affair was a mistake. Many believe he has a chance to cop the champion on the chin. . . .

ANYWAY, it will be a great toxi-it it is held

Tendler Should Have Chance

EW TENDLER'S victory over Willie Jackson makes L him the foremost contender for the lightweight championship, and Benny Leonard will have to recognize him before the year is out. Tendler has defeated every light-weight with the exception of the champion and should be given a chance at the title.

: Leonard says he will not engage in another champion-ship bout until next summer. He has been quite busy this winter and claims he needs a rest. Tendier, too, has been active and is willing to rest with him. Wonder if he pair ever will meet?
