Tillie Gerish, Sent From Here With 17 Men, Hungry for Russia

SORRY TO LEAVE FRIENDS

There were tears in the eyes and a smile on the lips of Tillie Gerish...

The seventeen persons were taken in raids in Philadelphia by special service men in January, 1920, charged with defying the government...

"Oh, I'm glad I'm going home," said Tillie Gerish...

Excited About It

She was a slight girl with reddish hair showing beneath the black fur hat...

The special car awaited for radicals, hundreds of men and women spectators...

Some of the women were seen to be weeping and some of the men shouting...

The radicals were brought from the detention house at 13th street...

Wanted to Take Boy

A group of men, some 100 in number, gathered in the street...

"I'm glad I'm going home," said Tillie Gerish...
