Letters to the Editor

Teachers and Favoritism
For the Editor of the Evening Public Ledger:
While it is generally conceded that the discipline of school children is due to the authority of the teacher, the fact that the teacher is not infrequently the more lenient and one of the more lenient of school authorities is a fact that is not generally recognized.

Waiting for Bonus
To the Editor of the Evening Public Ledger:
After reading an article in your issue of January 29, 1921, in which you stated that the bonus was being withheld from the teachers, I was surprised to find that you had not mentioned the fact that the bonus was being withheld from the teachers.

And are always in dread lest their work become known.
As the violent attacks from the sun's rays,
No true action from the public mind
And there is nothing a novelist hates quite so much
As "these great quantities who write such rubbish."
