

GUARDING AGAINST UPRISINGS. Soldiers on the roofs of Dublin homes are keeping watch in the besieged area, as most Dublin folks stay indoors.

THE POULTRY SHOW. Elick Isaacson walked about the streets yesterday carrying the goose and chicken, telling people of the exhibition in progress at the Parkway Building.

OPPOSING JUMPERS. These two suburban girl athletes are star basketball tossers and play the center position for their high school team. They met yesterday. "Dickie" Harper (left), of the Lower Merion High School, and Katherine Maguire, of the Upper Darby High School.

A FORMER PHILADELPHIAN. Lady Ribblesdale, formerly Mrs. John Jacob Astor, wearing unique costume, enjoying the snow sports at St. Moritz.

MME. OLGA SAMAROFF talks on tradition in interpretation of music in an interview on the Editorial Page.

A PART OF THE PENNSYLVANIA RAILROAD SPILL. While five tracks were covered with wreckage at Plainsboro, N. J., most of yesterday, some of the wrecked cars went over the embankment. It will take several days to clear up the debris.

MISS ELIZABETH STREUBLING as Glasgow. MISS ELEANOR McCRAWLEY as Dublin. MISS MARGARETTA HARRISON as Constantinople. SOCIETY GIRLS IN "PORTS OF THE WORLD." They will assist in this pageant, a part of the actors' fund benefit program, to be given at the Forrest and Garrick Theatres on Friday afternoon.

"MIXED DOUBLES." The musical comedy was written, arranged and last night produced by employees of the Philadelphia Electric Co. at the Manufacturers' Club. It was the big social night of the year for the electric workers. In the cast were Miss Lynn South (left), Homer Berry and Mary Callahan (right).

SKILLFUL TOBOGGANING. A student of the Cambridge University, of England, in the hills at Davos, Switzerland.

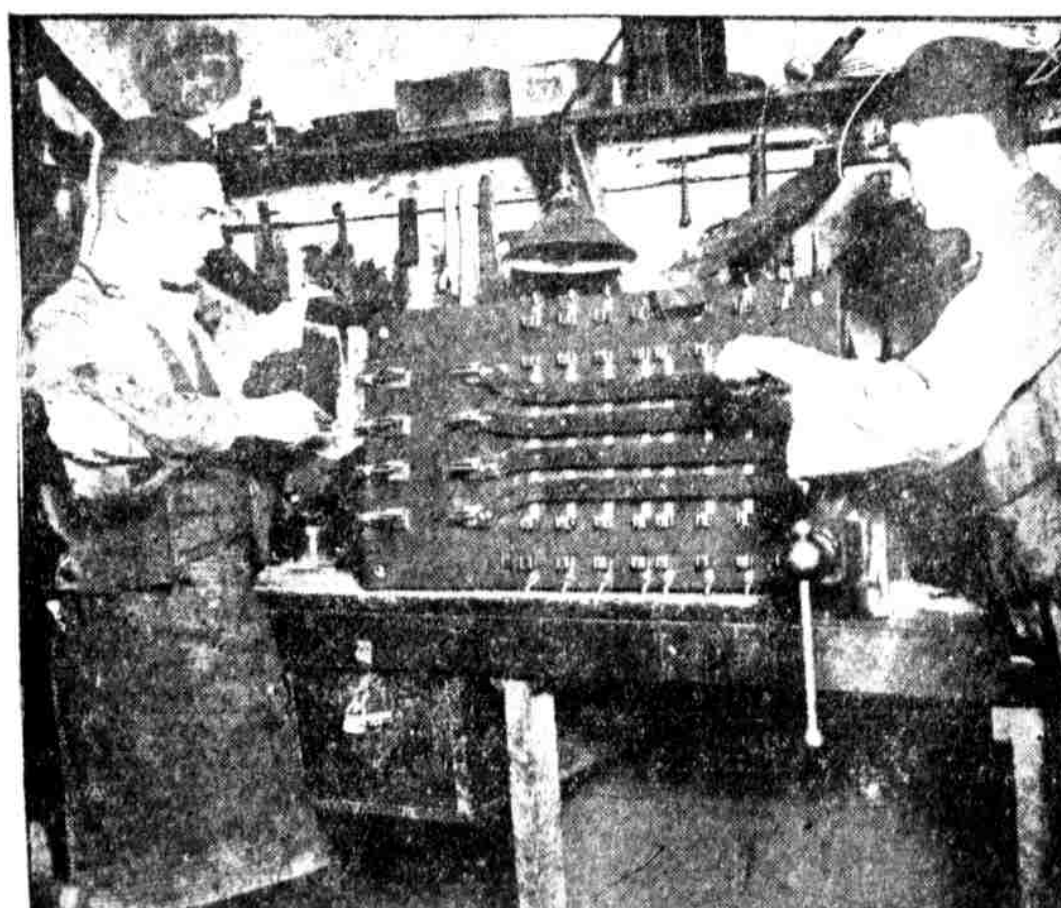

JOHN T. LEWIS & SONS CO. EMPLOYEES JUDGE LIMRICKS. This jury met in the Lewis office, in the Lafayette Building and made today's award in the limpin' limrick contest. From left to right they are: (Front row), G. B. Beltzel, George A. Watts, William E. Cannon; (middle row), Charles A. Wilson, Rosalie Toomey, Annette Metzger, Minerva Dorfman; (back row), Dorothy A. Solomon, Bessie A. McCarran, Theresa Nushaumer, Eleanor Smith.

SHE PAYS THE PRESIDENT. Mrs. Kate Shea, messenger of the Treasury Department, who delivers the chief executive's pay check each month.

OUR CITY'S WORKERS AND WHAT THEY DO

DAVID WEIR, 332 North Tenth street, Camden, and Harold McLaughlin, 200 Farmers street, Camden, assembling electric power distribution boards at the Large Dail Manufacturing Co., 690 Cherry street.

SEMAPHORE SENTINELS

AT CUPID'S BALL. The event was held in New York in aid of the babies' milk fund of Italy. Mrs. John A. Drake appeared as Touca.

MEMBER OF THE POLICE BAND

MEMBER OF THE POLICE BAND. Reserve Patrolman Samuel McKinley, 2930 North Twenty-seventh street, is stationed at Eleventh and Market streets. He has been on that corner two years of his seven as patrolman. McKinley is thirty-two and single.

THE BEAUTY CORNER

MISS BEBA SOLOMAN. 307 Wharton street Philadelphia.

THE BEAUTY CORNER

PENN'S CAPTAIN. Pringle, the star ice hockey player, is getting his team in fit condition for several hard games.