COLBY TRIES TO GET BERGDOLL BACK

Secretary of State Joins Baker in Effort to Recapture Deserter

TO SEE JUDGE ADVOCATE

By a Staff Correspondent

Washington, Feb. 2.—Secretary of State Bainbridge Colby has joined with Secretary of War Baker in the latter's efforts to find a way to bring Grover Cleveland Bergdoll back to the United States for trial.

The secretary of state announced today that he would confer with the judge advocate general of the army to determine whether there may be a way to bring the deserter back to serve his prison term.

Secretary Colby believes there may be some provision of military law which will make it possible for the American army authorities to demand Bergdoll's surrender by the German military authorities.

The secretary today expressed the opinion that a demand for Bergdoll's surrender could be made on Germany under the armistice terms.

Secretary Colby's announced intention of conferring with the judge advocate general followed an interview given out by Secretary Baker.

Wilson and President-elect Harding were proposed, and there was an exchange of felicitations between government officials and the visitors.

After reviewing the parade from the government house, President Alessandro turned to Admiral Rodman and said: "Although it is not within our diplomatic procedure for the president of the republic to make a speech, after seeing the flag of my country saluted through the playing of the national anthem by a band from the United States fleet I cannot resist the desire to express the hope that the constellation in the North American flag may continue spreading its powerful rays of light for the material and moral progress of the world, and that under the light of those rays the new humanity will be fused in universal harmony and fraternity."

At last night's banquet warm tribute was paid the United States navy in a speech by Carlos Silva Cruz, minister of war and marine. He declared that both material and moral greatness were the two characteristics of the people of North America, which were reflected in their naval institutions.

Lima, Peru, Feb. 2.—(By A. P.)—President Leguia, of Peru, accompanied by the minister of marine, called upon Admiral Hensley B. Wilson, commander of the United States Atlantic fleet, here today. This was a return of the compliment paid the president by Admiral Wilson yesterday. Shortly after noon the minister of marine was host to Admiral Wilson and his staff.

During the afternoon the program of entertainment included a bull fight at a reception at the National Club, the evening Admiral Wilson was to be guest of honor at a banquet given by Lieutenant Commander Paul F. Simmons, member of the United States naval mission to Peru, and his wife, who formerly was Elsie French Van Bilt. Later the higher officers of the fleet planned to attend a ball given by the ministry of foreign affairs at the Union Club.

Thieves entered the Square Circle Cigar Store, Fifth and Walnut streets, early this morning and took $20 from a cash register. The glass in a door was broken with a padded brick, the intruders putting their arms through and unhooking the bolts. Police of the Third and De Lancey streets station are investigating.
