Nancy Wynne Speaks of the Junior Dances Tonight. Theatre Parties and Opera Occupy the Social Set These Days

YOU know there will be the Junior dance this evening in the Rose Garden of the Bellevue-Stratford, and quite a number of dinners will take place before that event. The Powell place will entertain for Russell French and his wife, Mrs. Henry Tucker, who, as you know, is the daughter of Anne Ashton, another and a constant of this year. Anita and Harry Adams will be in the party. It does not seem funny to realize that Anita Adams, who is in a position to stay longer in this country. She expects to sail today to the Aquitania, to rejoin Mr. Harry Adams in Paris. Mrs. Adams was Frederica Berwind, who has been staying for a short time at the Aldine, where her mother, Mrs. Charles Berwind, is spending her winter. Mrs. Berwind was Boecklin, her other daughter, who is now in New York with her mother.

It is too bad that Mrs. Harjes could not stay longer in this country. She expects to sail today to the Aquitania, to rejoin Mr. Harry Adams in Paris. Mrs. Adams was Frederica Berwind, who has been staying for a short time at the Aldine, where her mother, Mrs. Charles Berwind, is spending her winter. Mrs. Berwind was Boecklin, her other daughter, who is now in New York with her mother.

Speaking of Europe, did you know that Marian Taylor, whose engagement to Charlie Willing was announced last week, sailed last Saturday with her uncle, Mr. Newbold, and her mother, Mrs. Newbold, for Italy? They will spend several months there and later travel through the continent. Mrs. Taylor will be accompanied by her mother, Mrs. Newbold, and her mother-in-law, Mrs. Willing. They will be in Rome, Florence, and Venice, and will spend some time in each of these cities. They will be in Rome, Florence, and Venice, and will spend some time in each of these cities.
