

NEW FIREMEN GIVE EXHIBITION. Graduates of the Municipal Training School for Fire Service, located on Seventh street above Norris, yesterday afternoon showed Mayor Moore and other city officials what they could do in saving lives, climbing buildings and sliding down ropes and wires.

HONEYMOONING AT PALM BEACH. Mr. and Mrs. John H. Wilson, of Oak Lane. Mrs. Wilson was formerly Miss Madeline Asbury.

AT HEARING OF MOUNTED CONSTABLE. Ralph Forewood, of the Radnor township police, was confronted by Mr. and Mrs. Karl F. Knipe, yesterday afternoon, and charged with making an attack on them, at their home in Radnor, on Sunday night. Knipe appears with his head in bandages, while Mrs. Knipe was photographed in her automobile, following the hearing.

JUST A JOSE. But Irvin Cobb, the writer, is no mean shot when a duck, a rabbit or a fox shows up. He is one of a party of baseball players and writers at Dover Hall Club in Georgia.

"BABE" RUTH AT THE PUMP. The baseball celebrity is controlling the water supply at a hunting camp in Georgia for a time. He is down there on a hunting expedition.

GETTING A FLORIDA TAN. Miss Peggy Thayer, of this city, snapped on the sands at Palm Beach.

"JUST BEE" was the name of a comedy given by the young people of the St. George's Episcopal Church, Sixty-first street and Cedar avenue. Mrs. Mae Kent, Joseph D. Dillon and Miss Jane Lloyd (left to right) were members of the cast.

JULES KERLE, a dye expert, discusses the American dye industry in an interview on the Editorial Page.

WON TWO PRIZES. Fairfax Frosty did very well at the specialty dog show held at the Waldorf-Astoria in New York. Mrs. Joseph M. O'Shea is the proud owner.

GETS AWARD FOR SUFFRAGE PICKET DUTY. Miss Pauline Floyd (right) chosen as the most beautiful of White House pickets by the National Woman's Party. Mrs. Lawrence Lewis, of Philadelphia, presented a pin.

PASSING OF THE HOG ISLAND KEY. Matthew C. Brush, head of the local shipyard, handed over the four-foot key to Frederick Morris, a representative of the United States shipping board. It marked the closing of the largest shipyard in the world.

AT THE ACTORS' FUND BENEFIT. Mrs. Clayton Strawbridge, representing Antwerp, in "Ports of the World."

WOUNDED WAR VETERANS JUDGE LIMPIN LIMRICKS. These former service men, all of whom were wounded in action during the world war, made the award in the limerick contest that is announced on Page 2 today. They are members of the basketball team from the Philadelphia Power Plant Engineering School, at 3256 Germantown avenue. In the picture from left to right are (seated) Edward Linsky, John A. Jasper, Morton R. Jacobs, Norwood Boles, Maylor C. Williams, captain, and Joseph I. O'Neill, manager; (standing) Thomas L. O'Neill, William B. Willis, James Davidson, Walter B. Greenwood, coach, and Stephen M. Ryan.

OUR CITY'S WORKERS AND WHAT THEY DO

S. H. DICKSON, 6106 Spruce street, preparing tires for vulcanizing at the Leader Vulcanizing and Tire Co., 1327 Race street.

IN SWITZERLAND. One of the British skiing party off on an expedition across the snows near Murren.

SEMAPHORE SENTINELS

THIS IS RESERVE PATROLMAN THOMAS C. TAYLOR, stationed at Ninth and Market streets for the past three years. He has been in the police department seven years. Taylor lives at 3419 North Water street, is thirty-eight years old and married. Fishing is his hobby.

THE BEAUTY CORNER

MISS ELEANOR A. MATTES, 1819 South Second street Philadelphia.