

PURCHASED BY MRS. HARDING. One of the gowns designed for the inauguration wardrobe by a New York firm. The tea gown is of mauve chiffon, with gold lace and green tassels in front. The train is also of mauve chiffon.

ENJOYED THE BEAUTIFUL SUNDAY. William Wright, of Folcroft, was snapped as he rode his horse over the bridge path near the Green street entrance of Fairmount Park.

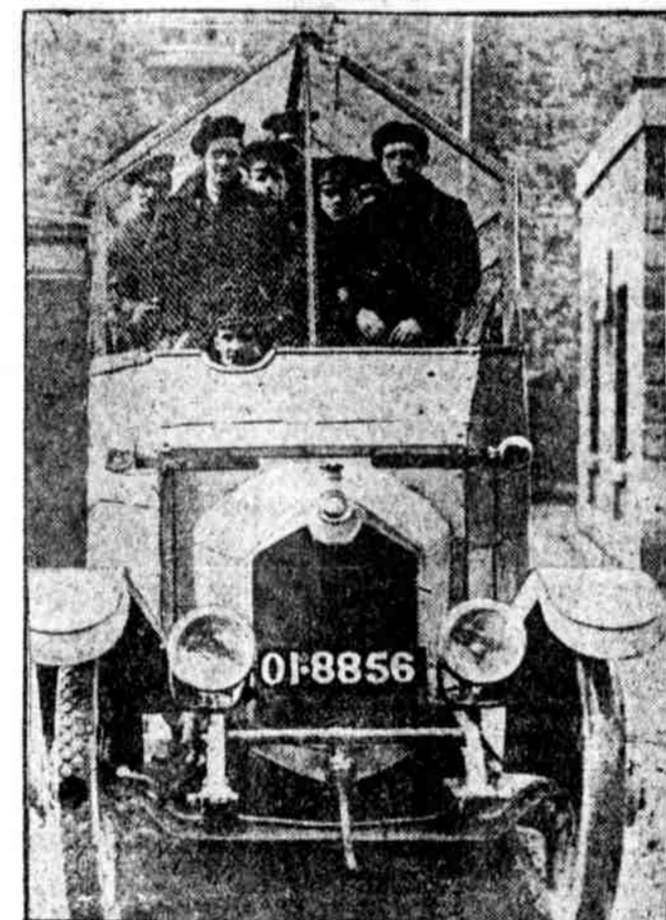

KIDNAPPED WOMAN REGAINS HEALTH. Mrs. O. S. Witherell, of Los Angeles, after being held five days in a hut for ransom by self-confessed kidnapers. Her husband, a broker, is with her.

PENN BARGE MEN ON RIVER. The springlike Sunday found many oarsmen from boathouse row on the Schuylkill. Roy Chalfont, Carl Close, Frans and Eric Federsmidt (left to right). All but Chalfont represented the club at the Olympics.

DISMANTLING BOMB. Patrolmen Jacob Addia and Dominic Comdeo, of the Second and Christian streets station, make the bomb found at 830 South Second street on Saturday worthless.

BOMB-PROOF AUTOMOBILES. These are being used by the British soldiers in Ireland to protect against attack from ambush. They are known in Dublin as "hen coops."

WINIFRED WILEY, as Hansel, in the first act of "Hansel and Gretel," to be given by the Philadelphia Music Club tomorrow afternoon at the Bellevue-Stratford.

LIEUTENANT COMMANDER RALPH W. DEMPWOLF, of the United States Coast Guards, talks on the merchant marine in an Editorial Page interview.

BICYCLE POLO GAME. The Quaker City team and the Olympics played yesterday morning on the vacant lot at Broad street and Allegheny avenue.

HELPING CHINA'S FAMINE VICTIMS. Miss Myok Zoe Dong and Miss Fung Kei Lin, both Bryn Mawr students, help in gathering of funds for that cause.

"FI FI OF THE TOYSHOP." This play will be given tomorrow evening by the workers of the Chester Y. W. C. A., under the direction of Miss Mabel E. Bush. The "china dolls" are Clarissa Wand, Edith Harvey, Dorothy Williamson, Katherine Harvey, Lena Barton, and Florence Derbyshire at the left. Miss Harriet Wilkins, as Fi Fi, and Ben Rice, as Man-in-the-Moon.

AT THE LAKE SARANAC ICE CARNIVAL. Dorothy de Varney (left) and Elinor Andrews, two of the prettiest "ice experts" who took part in the great snow and ice carnival.

A CHINESE ACTOR. He still appears in the quaint costume used in China in the sixteenth century.

OUR CITY'S WORKERS AND WHAT THEY DO

BERTHA WOLF, 2319 Green street; Margaret Milner, 2634 North Hancock street, and Grace Hallowell, 2618 East Indiana avenue, making novelties at the Ketterlinus Lithographic Manufacturing Co., Fourth and Arch streets.

PHILADELPHIA GIRLS. Miss Margaret E. Glover, Mt. Airy, and Miss Eleanor B. Magee, Germantown, on the skating team of Mount Holyoke College. They were snapped on the lake at South Hadley, Mass.

SEMAPHORE SENTINELS

FOUR YEARS AT EIGHTH AND MARKET STREETS. This is Reserve Patrolman William A. Jackson, 8716 De Lancey street, who has been in the police department for nine years, most of his time being spent on the north side of city hall.

THE BEAUTY CORNER

DID MUCH TO DEFEAT YALE AT ICE HOCKEY. G. Owens, who played defense for the Harvard team on Saturday night.

MISS MADELINE COONEY 45 North Fifty-second Street Philadelphia