LENTEN SERVICES BEGIN IN CHURCHES

Religious Leaders Urge People to Renewed Faith as Penitential Season Opens

MEN EXHORTED TO DUTY

The only way to know God is to do His will, said Bishop Rhinelander to in the opening of a series of Lenten son addresses at the Garrick Theatre.

Today, Ash Wednesday and the beginning of the forty-day penitential ason, was marked by several noon meetings for business people, which will continue daily throughout Lent. There were services in St. John's

Catholic Church, Thirteenth street above Chestnut; in Old St. Joseph's. Third street and Willing's alley; in St. Stephen's Episcopal Church, Tenth street above Chestnut, and in Old Christ Church, Second street above Market. "Knowledge of God depends on moral rather than on intellectual qualities." said Bishop Rhinelander at the Garrick.
