House Committee Opens Probe of Slacker's Escape With Prosecutor as Witness

BOASTS MADE IN GERMANY ARE BASIS FOR INQUIRY

By a Stoff Correspondent Washington, Feb. 10.—Intimations of bribery given by Grover Bergdoll in Germany form the mainspring of the House military affairs committee investigation begun here today.

This was announced by Congressman Iulius Kahn, chairman of the commitree, as that body assembled to probe Bergdoll's flight to the fatherland. United States District Attorney Me-Avoy, of Philadelphia, was the first

"Bergdoll's cable from Germany to he Philadelphia PUBLIC LEDGER is the basis for this investigation because of its implication of bribery." Mr. Kuhn said as he called the meeting to order. A military atmosphere was given the hearing room by the service flags of the walls and a case filled with insignia rom the Congressional medal of hone down to Victory buttons. A grim in chine gun was mounted on a cabinet. Eight of the nineteen members of t ing, including Representative Thomas S. Crago, Republican, of Wayne-burg Representative Arthur G.
