

NO WONDER SHE'S A GOOD PLAYER. Miss Peggy Thayer, who competes in most tennis events for women in this city, keeps on practicing while at Palm Beach.

WORK OF THE WEATHER BUREAU. George W. Minding measuring rainfall on the roof of the Federal Building, Ninth and Chestnut streets. It is by this method that the department keeps record of daily rainfall.

A "WHITE HOPE." This champion bulldog claims Indianapolis as his home, according to his collar inscription. He'd make a wonderful bandit chaser.

"THE SPIRIT OF LINCOLN," portrayed by Dennis Connell, of Washington. He was photographed with the four children on the steps of the Lincoln memorial in Washington.

EIGHT-YEAR-OLD WONDER. Susan Mitchell, of New York, has the mind of a child of fourteen and is passing examinations that trouble folks of sixteen and eighteen years.

E. J. HART, of Scranton, elected president of the Pennsylvania Legislative Correspondents' Association.

AT A NEW YORK DOG SHOW. Mrs. Alan T. Poline, at the Westminster Kennel Club show, with Bolshhevik, Dochere, Bolshhevik and Bolshhevik II.

AT THE SOUTH PHILADELPHIA HIGH SCHOOL. Joseph Carlsen, Nathan Burns and Henry Berwin, a busy trio in the woodwork shop. There are few busier spots in the Philadelphia schools.

BEING CONVEYED TO THE SHOW. Miss Jeanette Haas, of Philadelphia, with Cortez and Dina, as she approaches the Madison Square Garden, New York. The glass door gives the dogs a chance to see the sights.

LEARNING TO BE FIREMEN. These men are being taught how to do ladder work properly on the tower of the fire department's school, on Seventh street.

BICYCLE POLO. Members of the Quaker City team practicing at Broad street and Allegheny avenue. The new sport is attracting a lot of lads who are lucky enough to have a "bike."

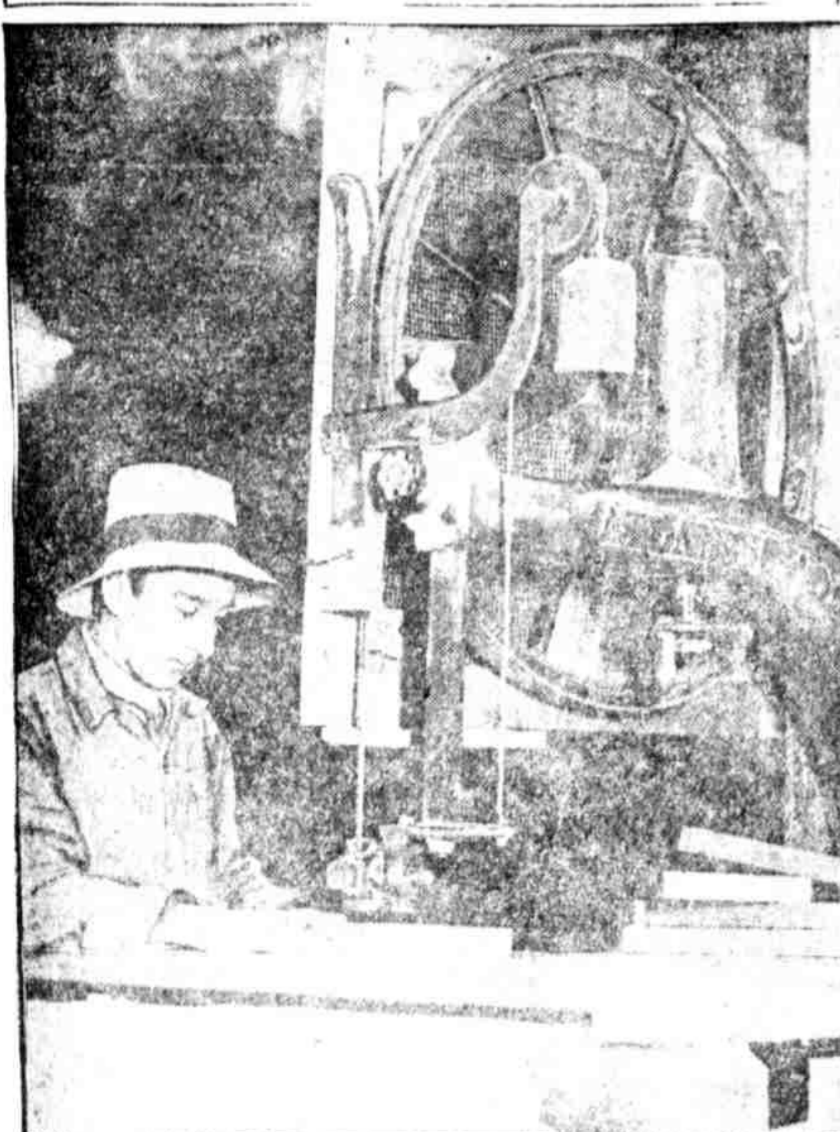

FAIR JURY FROM THE SUPPLEE-BIDDLE HARDWARE CO. JUDGES LIMPIN' LIMERICKS. Flowers in everything helped to select the winner of the $100 prize in the limrick contest announced on Page 2. The jury was composed of employees of the Supplee-Biddle Hardware Co., 513 Commerce street.

RALPH HENDEE (right) and Paul C. Hendee, sons of Charles E. Hendee, volunteered to submit to a time-fusion operation to help their father. The flip of a coin made Ralph the winner. They live at 1327 North Fifty-eighth street.

OUR CITY'S WORKERS AND WHAT THEY DO

NORRIS DELANEY. 1114 North... used for cutting out arm supports for chairs at the Keystone Furniture Co., 1917... machine cuts fifty an hour.

THE STRIP. Doctors advise it and... exercise. Miss Inba Strouels, of New York, is keeping fit.

SEMAPHORE SENTINELS

YOU KNOW HIM AS A BOXER. But we show him as Reserve Patrolman Al Kubiak, of Third and Market streets, where he has served one year of his five years as a patrolman. He is thirty-four years old, is married and lives at 1363 East Sedgeley avenue.

SAIL FISH. They were caught off Palm Beach, Florida, by William M. Francis, of Wilmington, Del., a member of the Anglers' Club of Ocean City, N. J.

THE BEAUTY CORNER

MISS BERNICE R. RHINE. 1328 Spring Garden street, Philadelphia.