The Whole Store Is Abloom With the Beautiful New Fashion Goods for Spring

A Poor Farmer's Son Was Born Today, on the 12th of February, 1809

in a log hut west of the Alleghenies in LaRue County, Kentucky.

His mother could read, but could not write and his father could do neither.

Almost all of the names of the men of Revolutionary times have passed out of the memories of Americans except those of George Washington, Benjamin Franklin, Thomas Jefferson and John Hancock; but there is not a language nor a people in any part of the world that is not familiar with the name of and generations to come will hold to his memory.

As General Pershing and our Ambassador to France and their associates memorialized the birthday of Lafayette with the now historic phrase,

"Lafayette, We Are Here,"

let us, as a nation, united with friendly nations, take a stand at the grave of Lincoln today and exclaim in the words of the old song, "We are coming, Father Abraham, one hundred thousand strong," only altering the words to read. "millions and millions strong," and say as Senator Douglas said, "Lincoln, honestest man ever," we love thy memory and stand together by thy grave today, unfalteringly to preserve the Union for which thy life was given, thou "kindly, earnest, brave, foreseeing man."

Real Novelties in Spring Handbags

No season ever brought forth more distinctive styles in handbags.
One of the most novel is the "ribbon handbag," a copy of a French idea. These bags are not actually made of ribbon but of fine blue and gray silk that is done into a series of circular ruffles, covering the entire bag. On one side of each bag is an odd scene worked out in gaily colored ribbons and with tiny bone

The frames of these handbags are of shell-finish celluloid in raised designs. One style is flat but jointed in the center so that it opens into a square. Another style is an oval gate top of fancy celluloid, with mirror inside.

Prices are $16.50 to $45. Some very smart new hand-bags are of Canton crepe, the material so much in vogue for wemen's Spring gowns.

There are drawstring pouch shapes in tomato, rust, tangerine and gray, with chain hanornamented with steel beads and tassels. These are $22.50.

And there are round, flat shapes, with elaborate fancy frames and gold embroidery, ut $35. (Main Floor, Chestnut)
