SHIPYARD WAGES ARE CUT 10 PER CENT

40,000 Workers Notified of Reduction to Be Put in Force on March 1. Approximately 40,000 shipworkers in twelve yards along the Atlantic coast, of whom 28,000 are employed in yards along the Delaware river, will have their wages cut 10 per cent on March 1, according to a statement sent to the heads of the metal trades department of the American Federation of Labor by W. J. Smith, chairman of the Atlantic Coast Shipbuilders' Association.

REFERENDUM TO BE TAKEN

Of the 40,000 hour and pieceworkers who will be subject to the cut in Atlantic coast yards, it is estimated that about 28,000 are employed in yards in Harriman, Camden, Chester and Wilmington, N. C.; the Pensacola Shipbuilding Co., Pensacola, Fla.; the Alabama Drydock and Shipbuilding Co., of Mobile; the Mobile Shipbuilding Co., at Mobile; and Daulton and Williams Shipbuilding Co., of New Orleans.

Ships Diverted Here

Congratiation at Ellis Island has forced New York port officials to order the Scandinavian-American liner United States to this port. The ship is expected to arrive today. The vessel carries sixty-seven first class, 120 second-class and 444 steerage passengers. It will probably land them at Pier 19, North Wharves.
