

THE A'S MIGHT BE ABLE TO STEP LIVELY IF THE TWO WALKERS CAN ONLY KEEP UP THEIR PACE WHEN THEY FIND OUT YOU'RE NOT A CARD SHARP GOING TO FLORIDA, STRANGERS TELL STRANGER TALES

By ROBERT W. MAXWELL Sports Editor Evening Public Ledger
Lost at Sea, Off the Florida Coast.
TAKING a sea voyage on the ferry which operates between New York and Jacksonville is a way of referring to Jacksonville—is like stepping into a strange land where the natives are willing to trust one except themselves and strangers.

Shooting the Ducks and Things
CHARLEY was punching the bag on the upper deck last night with several ozone-bitten friends.
"THIS sea trip is wonderful," he said, "but for real fun and enjoyment give me wild goose shooting. Never shot any? Well, you have missed something. We go every year to Chincoteague island, off the Virginia coast, and it's a great place. Many wild geese are there, but they are the smartest birds in the world. They know what is going on and it is quite difficult to get a shot."

Catch-as-Catch-Can Eating
IN THE dining room, where the catch-as-catch-can system is still being used with little success, a plainly dressed man and woman were having dinner. Ubiquitous waiters hovered about, and at the end of the plainly dressed man handed the diner a card which read: "How do they do it?"

League Leaders Take Tumble.
La Salle Players Miss Their Train
The league leaders seem to be a popular diversion among the school athletes. Every once in awhile the understudies in the High School League take a whack at the quietest near the top, and the same is true of the Catholic League.

Scrap About Scrappers
Johnny Krause will present a featherweight bout in his headliner at the Germantown Club tonight. Martin Judge will take the main event, which is a local gymnasium while Terry Hanlon vs. Bobby Robinson and K. O. Brennan vs. Harry Burks are other numbers.

Has Had Four K. O.'s Out of Five Bouts
By LOUIS H. JAFFE
EARL HARTMAN looks like a future future great. This former amateur boxer and member of Uncle Sam's fist team in the Olympic games at Antwerp last season, started a professional pug in his punching career about a month ago, and has been a winner ever since.

By GRANTLAND RICE
Yes, here she comes—the Grand Old Game.
The one Hip, Hip and all the rest: Where peaceful eyes will be aghast: As frenzy grips the bulging breast. Where hope eternal upward springs: Until about the teeth of May. Whereat the old-time avell rings And gives "next year" another play.
