Getting Near the Last Week of the Great Furniture Sale With Everything Going Well

We Men Housekeepers Are Naturally Proud

of ourselves, but our imperfections are soon discovered after we have had the run of a few days directing servants, the marketing and taking the chances of guests dropping in, without notice, for dinner.

The forgetfulness of small things, such as the sugar box's being empty and the gas broiler broken, which we failed to have mended as the cook was promised, and some of the castors unfilled for want of supplies, quite bothered us over the Sunday, when there was no chance to remedy our needs.

What a flutter we were in when a woman relative came in to find us out in our predicament and promptly compelled our resignation on the spot. What would become of the puffed-up, spoiled, vain and unappreciating men and boys if there were not some good woman to put out her hand to us?

Most men and storekeepers, too, think too much of themselves.

With Spring in the Air Women Ask for Jersey Coats

They are just about the most useful sort of coat for the uncertain weather of early Spring, for they can be worn every day, right straight along.

Quite a number of good-looking styles are here now—two full-length models, one with a shoulder yoke and box pleats, the other with inverted pleats and round collar. They are $25 and $37.50 respectively.

There are also the shorter sports styles, a very smart tuxedo coat with contrasting colored facing at $25. And a finger-length one, especially nice for plaid skirts, at $25.

Pretty, New Ready-to-Wear Hats Moderately Priced

Just the hats to wear now—hats for general use, hats for between seasons—and all in new Spring styles.

All the gay pretty colors of the season are among the number—jade green, henna, rust brown, Java brown, apple green, gray, blue and red.

Small hats chiefly, but hats of medium size, too—little turbans, close-fitting hats, short-brim sailors, mushroom shapes, roll-brim sailors, hats that turn off the face, and ever so many more.

Simply trimmed with fancy braids, with embroidery, with fluttering streams and soft folds of crepe Georgette. $3.50 to $6.50.

Brand New! Long Chamois Lisle Gloves in the Fashionable Gray

have just been taken from their boxes. They are in a lovely, soft "ostrich gray," one of the very popular and much-asked-for colors of the Spring.

Twelve-button length gloves, $1.75 a pair. Sixteen-button length gloves, $2 a pair.

All of fine quality chamois lisle, well made, excellent for service, washable, and finished with silk embroidery on the backs.

French Hand-Embroidered Edgings and Insertions

The most beautiful things of the kind that we have had since pre-war days. The embroidery is done on batiste and organdie, and is very close and rich. The insertions, intended to be used on fine lingerie gowns, are marked at $4.25 to $7.50 a yard; and the edgings for gowns and collars are $3 to $18 a yard. In the latter, the needlework is combined with real Venise, real Irish and sheer thread-run laces and all with enchanting effect.

Letitia Corsets

A slip-on model of soft pink tricot which has no bones, except in the front and back. It has elastic inserts below the waistline and is laced in the back. Price, $9.50.

A pink striped broche corset has its skirt cut short in front and long in the back, and has broad elastic gussets on the hips, thus making a comfortable riding corset. $9.

A topless model with two elastic waist bands is of soft pink tricot. It is moderately boned and intended for average figures. $11.50.

Warm Days Will Bring Out the Children's Spring Coats

Plenty of new coats here in the Children's Store! Styles are simpler, more tailored, many are made with rayon sleeves, some have full, flare backs, some are belted, some have wide collars, and all are coats that will look well on small folk.

Blue serge, tan and other colored polo cloths, a new horizon blue wool coating, checked velours and other materials make them. All the materials are all-wool, and all the coats are lined.

Prices start at $9.75 for a blue serge and go to $18. 2 to 6 year sizes.

Little white corduroy coats in new styles are $5.50 to $10.50 and in 1 to 3 year sizes.

White corduroy hats to go with them are $2.

Cotton Remnants Averaging a Third Less

A particularly good assortment of lengths for children's dresses in all kinds of desirable materials, such as gingham, madras, percale, voile and so on. Also some for women's waists and a few for dresses.

They are just in time for Spring dressmaking and there are excellent savings.

Women's Frocks of Taffeta and Canton Crepe

Prices $60 to $85

Women who like a somewhat quaint and demure frock which is at the same time very practical are invited to see certain full-skirted taffetas just received. They are navy, black and brown in color with white cross-bars; they have elbow sleeves, long white collars on their cross-over fronts and rows of self-folds for trimming.

Other new frocks are of Canton crepe; some having the new circular tunics, some the insertions of V-shaped tucked pieces in bodice and skirt, some the slightly flaring tunics ornamented all over with eyelet work and chain stitch. Still another style has a bloused bodice very delicately beaded, a low waist and a finely pleated skirt.

Colors of these dresses include sand, putty, beige, navy and black, and prices are $60 to $85.

A Dainty Wrist Watch Many Women Admire

Quite small in size and mounted on a black ribbon bracelet, the case is of green gold, covered with platinum. To give a more brilliant effect the platinum is richly engraved.

To insure its good time-keeping qualities, this watch has the reliable Elgin movement, 15 jewels. In two shapes, octagon at $160 and cushion shape at $175. Both have silver dials and all platinum snaps.

A Smart New Overblouse in Ratine

This distinctive sports overblouse, with half-length elbow sleeves, hangs perfectly free about the waist, there being no belt.

They come in zinc, porcelain, rattan, white and nut.

In fashion, these overblouses somewhat resemble the Paris artist's working blouse, but are shorter, and are variously decorated with wool embroidery. $8.50, $9.75 and $10.75.

A Little Clearaway of Women's Fine Sweaters

There are about 300 of these sweaters, nearly every one is imported and every one has just been marked at a new and very much smaller price. Quite a number are half and some are even less than half.

150 woolen sweaters at $17.50. All imported, some are coat styles in brushed wool, others are made of Angora wool.

150 silk sweaters from $25 to $50. Mostly all imported and both pure silk and fiber silk among them. There are tuxedo styles, brushed silk slip-ons and some very unusual beautiful models.

A 1921 Version of Young Women's Polo Coats—$45

There is no question whatever that the polo coat is one of the most popular wraps for sports and general wear, and here is a new one, lately arrived and in a good Spring style.

It is of soft, all-wool cloth in a pretty tan shade and the new dust color, and it is lined throughout with a harmonizing silk. The sleeves are raglan style, the coat is cut generously full and belted and there are deep pockets at the sides.

It is comfortable, smart and no end useful for day-time wear. $45—and 14 to 20 year sizes.

QUAINT ENGLISH PRINTS FOR SUMMER FROCKS

It has been some time since we had an importation of these delightfully old-fashioned printed cottons and in the meanwhile many women have been inquiring about them.

They are most timely for the revival of 1830 fashions, and the colors are as pretty as can be—bright blue, red, green, tan, purple and rose colored grounds with tiny figures. 31 inches wide and 95c a yard.

Especially the furniture. The Sale that brings the goods that people want is always easy to recognize, but never more so than when it gets along toward the end.

For this is the time when the greatness of a great sale and the weakness of a weak sale become unmistakable.

The one great furniture sale that everybody recognizes never fails for want of merchandise.

To meet the exceptionally heavy demands which the last six or eight days of the sale usually bring us we have a large and excellent collection of furniture, but we believe we are going to need it all; for it is always the case that as the sale gets nearer to the end the desire to take advantage of it seems to become peculiarly "catching."

This should be especially pronounced in the Sale now going on, the first sale that ever brought you the privilege of choosing from our entire stock of furniture at a deduction of 33 1-3 per cent. and in some cases of 50 per cent.

Men's Shirts—$1.85 Lowest Price for Such Quality Since Before the War

One of our good manufacturers had a quantity of short ends of splendid, heavy woven madras which were of small use to him in a regular way.

He agreed to make these goods up into soft-cuff, plain negligé shirts at a ridiculously low price if we would take the entire lot off his hands.

When we figured that we could sell these shirts at $1.85, we took him up in a jiffy—told him we could sell all he could make of this fine material at that price. It has been years since we have had such good shirts for so little.

Wait till you see them! Made of firm, heavy woven madras in a great variety of beautiful stripes and some checks. All made over Wanamaker's roomy specifications, too. About 2000—and that won't be enough.

The New London Tweed Hat for Men Is Different

Margate, as it is called, is totally different from any other tweed hat ever shown in this city, because it is not stitched round and round, as all the others are.

It will hold its shape better than they, also, and already it has made a pronounced hit.

Of fine tweeds in seven different heather mixtures.

Price, $8.

New Chinese Rugs Come to Refresh the Remarkable Sale

We have been fortunate in securing a new group of Chinese carpet-size rugs to sell at prices almost as low as those now marked on all the other rugs in our stock. This is quite remarkable, considering that all the Oriental rugs in our regular stocks are on sale at one-third less than they were marked a few weeks ago.

The new arrivals are very interesting pieces, some of them strikingly odd. An extraordinary-looking piece has for a center a Chinese noble mounted on a grotesque-looking dog, the field all around being of blue and covered with a series of figures in the form of Greek keys in golden brown.

These are the sizes and prices of some of the new Chinese pieces:

11-10 x 9 ft.	$219	9-2 x 12-2 ft.	$389
9 x 12 ft.	$257	12 x 9-4 ft.	$397
9x12 ft.	$387	10 x 12 ft.	$435
11-8 x 8-11 ft.	$394	12-2 x 9-5 ft.	$415
		10 x 13 ft.	$475

Please note that all the other Oriental rugs in our stock are at a saving of one-third.
