Brimful of Fine Spring Merchandise at Low Prices

Pleated Plaid Skirts at $8.75 Will Go Flying

We never seem to be able to get enough of these pretty skirts. They're of serge and velour in the best-liked plaids of the Spring—tan-and-brown, navy-and-tan or blue-and-gray. Iox-pleated, all of them.

A knife-pleated skirt of serge shows a bold black and white block plaid.

White Baronet Skirts, $8.75

Probably the last we can get to sell at this price. They are gathered and have three big pearl buttons trimming the belt and pockets.

(Market)

Beautiful Spring Wraps of the Newest Materials

Fabrics seem finer of texture and softer of color than ever before and the wraps themselves are even more graceful of line, Florizel, Andria, marvella, Caledonia and Bolivia are the pretty names of some of the new materials.

Colorings run to the softer grays and tans—mouffon, ostrich, dove and caramel. The new blue brighter than navy, is called Sorento.

All of these handsome wraps have linings worthy of their beauty.

$69 to $97.50.

(Market)

New Stamped Pieces to Be Embroidered

All sorts of interesting affairs in the Art Needlework Section. Displays of everywhere of especially good-looking pieces stamped for embroidery, and with the embroidered garments displayed nearby to show just how they will look when completed. There are a number of decided differences in designs and styles, and women handy with their needles will be interested.

Scarfs with lace edge and imitation lace medallions with figures are stamped with a wealth of gay French flowers, 36, 45 and 50 inches long at $1.65, $1.75 and $1.85.

Scarfs to be finished with fancy black and tan braid are stamped for bright-colored embroidery at 60c.

Roupeurs for 2 to 4 year children are completely made and stamped for embroidery on pockets, belt, collar and sleeves, $1.25 to $2.

Dresses for children of 2 to 8 years are of white pique or lawn, and some are made to have velvet sashes, $1 to $1.65.

Fudge aprons stamped for cross stitching and French knit embroidery are $1 to $1.65.

Nightgowns stamped for dainty embroidery and with eyelets for a sash are completely made at $1 to $2.

Combing jackets of creamy cotton crash are 85c and $1.

Bungalow dresses for women are completely made and stamped with unusual designs, $2.

Cotton huck towels, stamped for embroidery and colored hemstitching, are 25c to $1.25.

Luncheon sets of 12 pieces are of white linen or galathea stamped for embroidery at $1 to $2.

6 Models at $25
9 Models at $27.50
7 Models at $32.50

—and many distinctive new suits at prices ranging upward to $62.50.

Navy blue suits of serges and tricelines are delightfully youthful of cut. The jackets ripple over the hips and are often elaborately braided or embroidered or beaded. Also plenty of the smart box coats.

Particularly good for heavy figures are the suits of navy or black serge with hairline stripes of white. They are cut on tailored lines and bound with braid.

New Jersey Sports Suits, $15, $16.50 to $25

(Market)

Women's Pumps $2.50

Black dull leather pumps with welted soles and curved heels.

The savings mean dollars for other things that are needed. When one buys shoes for a whole family in this sale of dependable shoes in Wanamaker's Down Stairs Store it is almost as good as putting money in the bank.

Women's High Shoes—$3.50

High-cut lace shoes of gray, black or brown kid-skin with welted soles and curved heels.

Women's Walking Shoes—$4.90

Girls, too, like these shoes of brown leather because they have sturdy welted soles and low heels.

(Central)

Boys' Shoes—$3.90

Sizes 1 to 5½—heavy tan leather uppers and soles that will stand the hard wear that boys give them.

Men's Brogue Oxfords—$5.90

Heavy tan leather Oxfords with full wing tips, many perforations, welted soles and broad, low heels.

Almost all sizes and excellent choosing.

Delightful New Dresses With the Freshness of Springtime Full Upon Them

Hundreds of Fashionable Dresses Moderately Priced at $8.25 to $39

Rustling taffetas are made in the prettiest ways we've seen in years—full bouffant skirts, close-fitting bodices, much eyelet embroidery and pretty little collars and cuffs, usually in ecru tint.

Milky-white crystal beads by the hundred are used to embroider other taffetas with full overskirts.

Crepe de chine in silver gray, navy blue or black is trimmed with elaborate embroidery, sometimes in big scroll patterns worked out in French knots of wool.

Serges, tricelines and Poirat twills are used in a great many smart Spring dresses that are often beaded, embroidered or brightened with sashes of tricolette.

All of These Dresses Are Low in Price—Some Quite Special

There are dresses for every Springtime occasion, from the simple tailored frock of wool for morning shopping or business to fluffy, frilly party frocks for "after six."

All sizes in Spring frocks from 16 to 52.

Wonderful Variety of New Frocks at $25

Taffeta Crepe Satin Canton Crepe Crepe de Chine Tricotine Serge

Delightful afternoon dresses are of crepe satin with overdrapery of silk lace in navy, brown and black. The sashes are faced with contrasting Georgette crepe.

Crepe de chine dresses are very elaborately embroidered and a lovely gray Canton crepe dress is embroidered in silver.

Plenty of eyelet embroidered taffetas.

At $8.25, $10 and $10.75

Most of these are of navy serge, trimmed with embroidery and sashes of Copenhagen or heama tricolette. The skirts of some are embroidered from sash to hem. Youthful Eton frocks, trimmed with braid, are among them.

t $18.75 and $20

$18.75 for navy blue Poirat twill dresses; bodice and the loose panels of the skirt are embroidered with brightly colored silk thread.

$20 for an interesting new taffeta dress in navy blue that is sketched. The full skirt shows rows of fagoting done in gray silk.

Scores of Beautiful Dresses at $32.50, $35, $37.50 and $39

Of beautiful taffetas, charmeuse, silk lace, Georgette crepe and Canton crepe in the most charming modes. Plenty of silver grays, navy blues, wood browns and the lighter beige shades.

(Market)

Canton Crepe Frocks $29

(Copied from an exclusive model)

A simple dress, its straight lines broken only by a soft, loose sash faced with contrasting color. The dress is sketched and can be had in gray trimmed with navy, navy with gray or in brown with tan.

Beaded Georgette Crepe Frocks, $16.50 to $32.50

Ever so many delightful dresses in navy blue and black over foundations of silk or satin. They're embroidered with black beads, blue beads, brightly colored beads or with crystals.

Good Old-Fashioned Undermuslins of the Durable Kind

Corest covers—50c, with V necks; 65c, with high necks; 85c, with low round necks. Made of sturdy white muslin.

Chemises, 85c—corded-band chemises that are cut full and long. The muslin will launder well and give long service.

(Central)

Pretty Quilts $7.50 and $10

$7.50—figured centers and plain pink, blue or rose borders and backs—all of silk-and-cotton mull with silk dots in it.

$10—the lovely flowered centers are of tub silk and the plain borders and backs are of silk dotted mull. The colors are buttercup, rose, orchid and blue.

The filling of each is of wool mixed with a little cotton.

(Central)

(Central)

New Spring Coats to Delight All Girls

$15 and $16.50 for good-looking eqats in tan or light blue are of polo cloth and heather tweeds. They are belted, have interesting pockets and are fully lined. Sizes 8 to 14 years.

School Frocks

The old Winter dresses begin to seem most uninteresting and new frocks for school wear are welcomed with open arms and a renewal of interest.

$2, $2.85, $3.75 to $8.50

These are the ginghams in cherry plaids, fresh stripes and some plain colors. Touches of hand embroidery, crisp organdie and pique adorn them. Bloomer and regulation models are among the many styles. Sizes 6 to 14 years.

Silk for Junior Girls

Rustling with Spring and pretty with ruffles or in long-line simplicity, dresses of taffeta and crepe de chine are in brown, navy and Copenhagen. $16.50, $18.75 to $37.50.

(Market)

Men's Odd Trousers

All-Wool Materials—Average Half Price $5 to $8.50

Two months ago the wholesale prices would have been more than these prices.

The trousers are carefully cut and tailored and are of all-wool chevots, cassimeres and worsteds.

Plenty of the pin-stripe worsteds and Oxford gray chevots that so many men have been wanting to match up with coats and vests.

Spring Dress Cottons at Their Prettiest—Delightfully Low Priced

Spring cottons are fascinating these days. They resolve themselves into the question of how many pretty frocks one can make at an expense that is almost nothing. Nearly every kind of material is one-quarter, one-third and one-half less than last season's rates, and somehow the materials seem even prettier than they were.

39-Inch Organdie, 35c Yard

Fairylike shades of orchid, pink, sky, bisque, maize, Copenhagen. Fairylike material, too, for ruffled, tucked and scalloped frocks for young girls, children and women. It takes from five to six yards for "grown-up" dresses.

31-Inch Scotch Gingham, 50c Yard

Pretty fine to be able to get this good imported gingham for so little. Lovely blue and pink plaids.

38-Inch Printed Voile 38c and 50c Yard

Dozens of designs and colors in these charming voiles, a few of them imported. Far better looking than those we had last season at anything near this price. Suitable for smocks, blouses and dresses.

32-Inch Suitings, 25c and 35c Yard

Useful ones for little boys' and girls' suits and rompers. Mostly stripes; a few solid colors included at 35c.

36-Inch White Checks, 20c

Often called pajama checks but suitable for rompers, creepers, aprons and curtains.

32-Inch Woven Madras, 35c

Men like these for shirts because the stripes are woven into the material and they are sure to wash well. The price is less than half of last year's rates.

Silk Stripe Crepe Shirtings, 55c

The silk is sparkling fiber and the background is soft crepe material. Men buy it in quantities to make their tennis, golf and other good-looking shirts. 52 inches wide.

31-Inch Underwear Crepe, 25c

Pink, blue and white crepe with a soft finish. The kind which wears beautifully and does not need ironing.

White Voile, 35c, 48c, 50c

38-inch at 35c; 44-inch at 48c; both American weaves. 38-inch English voile at 50c, with a soft mercerized finish which makes it very beautiful for dresses, blouses and for hem-stitched curtains.

Fancy Voile, 50c to 85c Yard

Made with squares, dots, plaids and other designs, all-white and 39 inches wide. Often used for curtains as well as garments.
