

MRS. WILSON ASSISTS WITH FRATERNITY FOOD

Suggests Some Wholesome, Tasty Menus Sufficient for Twenty Men, Giving Materials Required for Preparation

By MRS. M. A. WILSON... My Dear Mrs. Wilson—Having heard of the valuable and very useful information which you give, I write to you for suggestions which I believe you are in a position to grant. I am a member of a fraternity composed of some twenty fellows, all of whom take lunch at our fraternity house. As it is left to me to arrange the menus, I write to you for information on this subject.

Please Tell Me What to Do

By CYNTHIA... A Lonesome Boy... Why can't you get along? Only married two months and quarreling and separated! Make up your mind that you must exercise self-control and go and see your wife and ask her to return to your family home and to try to get along with them.

GRAY AND OLD ROSE ON CAMEL'S HAIR

By CORINNE LOWE... Though the leopard may not be able to change his spots, the camel's hair is more versatile. It can change its dullness for spots. This famous sports material comes this year, in fact, in a number of stunning designs—to say nothing of the new and effective colorings to which the plain surface is treated.

Through a Woman's Eyes

By JEAN NEWTON... "Because I Am a Woman!"

They were talking about the difficulty of handling two things at a time—namely, a job and a husband. "How can a woman?" one of the girls was saying, "work intensively all day, come home tired out, and still be fresh and attractive and ready to soothe a tired businessman's husband?"

WHAT'S WHAT BY HELEN DEWEY

When entertaining callers, if new visitors happen in while conversation is in progress, it is to be regretted that the hostess should be obliged to retrace the outline of preceding talk, so that the newcomers may understand the subject under discussion.

"THE SIMPLE PERFORMANCE OF HOUSEHOLD DUTIES"

This Is the Way One Man Describes the Work a Woman Does in a House—He Thinks It Doesn't Take Much Strength

"MEN'S work like this," says the jury man who doesn't approve of jury duty for women, "takes more strength than a woman requires in the simple performance of her household duties." A great many women are not interested at all in jury duty; in fact, most of them would rather not be bothered with it—there are "simple household duties" awaiting them at home.

DREAMLAND ADVENTURES

"UP A TREE" BY DADDY

CHAPTER I The Bird's Hotel

THE birds were ready to go to bed. They had traveled far that day on their way from the South to their summer homes in the North, and so they were very tired.

"FIFTY-FIFTY"

By HAZEL DEYO BACHELOR Copyright, 1921, by Public Ledger Co.

The marriage of Jerry Page and Frances Carter was begun on a fifty-fifty basis. Frances even insisted on paying half for her engagement ring and Jerry became her maid.

The Addition of Annie

HOWEVER, in spite of the fact that the fifty-fifty arrangement there were a great many people who thought it a splendid idea. Outsiders are so often willing to praise any new undertaking that they would not dream of trying out themselves.

Upholds "Dopey"

Dear Cynthia—Allow me enough space in your column to state that I agree with you and think he is perfectly right when he says your column is nothing but a lot of foolishness.

The Question Corner

- 1. How are clever last-minute favors for a Washington's Birthday party made?
2. Describe an attractive giraffe for a young girl's dress.
3. What makes a charming sleeve for an afternoon dress of chiffon or crepe de chine?
4. How can a striking-looking bedspread of heavy linen be fastened?
5. When a paint brush is no longer needed for painting, to what other use can it be put?
6. What new wool fabric is being used in a great many of the spring costumes?

MRS. WILSON'S ANSWERS

- 1. If the material bought for curtaining the glass doors between living room and porch proves to be scant, it can be tacked like a plain panel directly on the door.
2. Aluminum paint used on the number of the house will make it show up clearly at night or on a dark day.
3. For more dressy wear the most popular sweater is the drop-stitch Tuxedo style.
4. The newest between-seasons hat from Paris is made in a mushroom shape, with a crown which is either a wide or a narrow brim.
5. The plain sides of a scant overskirt can be given the effect of ruffles by a series of short lengths of pleating fastened inside down over the hips.

Do You Wear Your Hat... Or Just Put It On? When the lines of a hat take shape, they go up and out in a very becoming fashion; and when they go down, they are just as becoming. Here's what the mode offers for that fluttering drooping effect that big hats do so well this spring. And there's the hat with the lines of a French dry-point and the downward movement of the spring mod.

When three is company. There's never any "third" when a nice warm teapot, a clean, shiny cup, and a package of Tetley's Orange Pekoe Tea get together! They're the welcome three you can find on a cold day. It's a funny thing, but a nice hot cup of cheering delicious tea gives you a new outlook on life. TETLEY'S TEA Makes Good Tea a Certainty. You understand that it's the blending that makes Tetley's such good tea, doesn't you? But it'd be a poor story if we couldn't blend it right—we've been doing it for over 100 years.
