

SPEEDING UP ON FRANKLIN FIELD. Start of the sixty-yard dash, one of the events of the weekly track meet in which Penn students are taking part. Ledger Photo Service.

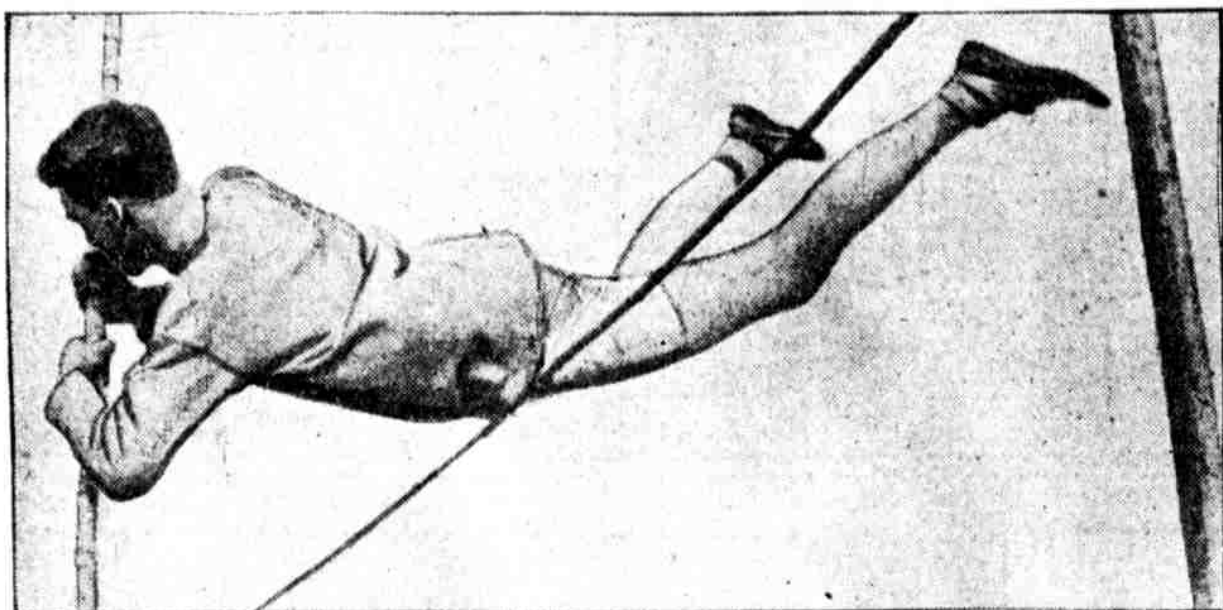

JUST AFTER BEING SENTENCED. Frank J. James and Raymond W. Schuck entering a patrol wagon, on their way to death house of the New Jersey state prison in Trenton. Ledger Photo Service.

STROLLING ON THE BEACH. Mr. and Mrs. Philemon Dickinson, of Philadelphia, snapped as they chatted on the sands at Palm Beach. Underwood & Underwood.

LIKES HIS JOB. Two lambs, just a few days old, make their home in League Island Park, with a score of other lambs and sheep. Samuel S. Trihib, superintendent of the park, spends much time in keeping them in good trim. Ledger Photo Service.

JACKSON, OF PENN., UP IN THE AIR. He is just about to let go of the vaulting pole as he crosses the bar in the events at Franklin Field. Ledger Photo Service.

REVIVAL OF "ERMINIE," the comic opera which delighted theatergoers in 1886, will be staged at the Forrest next week. To the right in the picture are shown Jennie Weatherby and Francis Wilson, who appeared in the original cast. Madge Lessing, on the left, who was seen in the revival of seventeen years ago, still retains her charm at fifty-two. White Studio, New York.

IN FRENCH PLAY. Students of Swarthmore College have been busy for weeks rehearsing for the drama. Miss Lorna Christie and John Hilgert are members of the cast. Ledger Photo Service.

HADDON HEIGHTS GRAMMAR SCHOOL NO. 2 TEACHERS JUDGE JACK'S JINGLE. From left to right, Erma P. M. Guyer, Magnolia, N. J.; Martha L. Walklett, Philadelphia; Hannah P. Smulling, Haddon Heights, N. J.; J. L. Winkworth (principal), Haddon Heights; Helen E. Maxwell, Magnolia, N. J. and Edith Eyre, Barrington, N. J.

JURY FROM J. S. IVINS' SON'S BAKERY, 627 NORTH BROAD STREET, made the award in the limerick contest announced today on page 2. In the picture, from left to right, are (seated, front row) Miss Jennie Curms, Miss Myrtle Thomas, Miss Helen Blomberg, Miss Anna Hickey and Miss Anna Gibbons; (standing, back row) Joseph Fuhs, James A. Monat, William Rogers, George Martin, John M. Goldrick and Robert Minister.

"WHY NOT?" LADY STREET CLEANERS. This quintet of "white wings" will appear in the show that commences on Monday night, at the Little Theatre, in aid of the University Settlement. They are Miss Helen Sewell, Miss Margaret Curtis, Miss Deborah Seal, Miss Jeanne De Rousse and Miss Carol Smith. Ledger Photo Service.

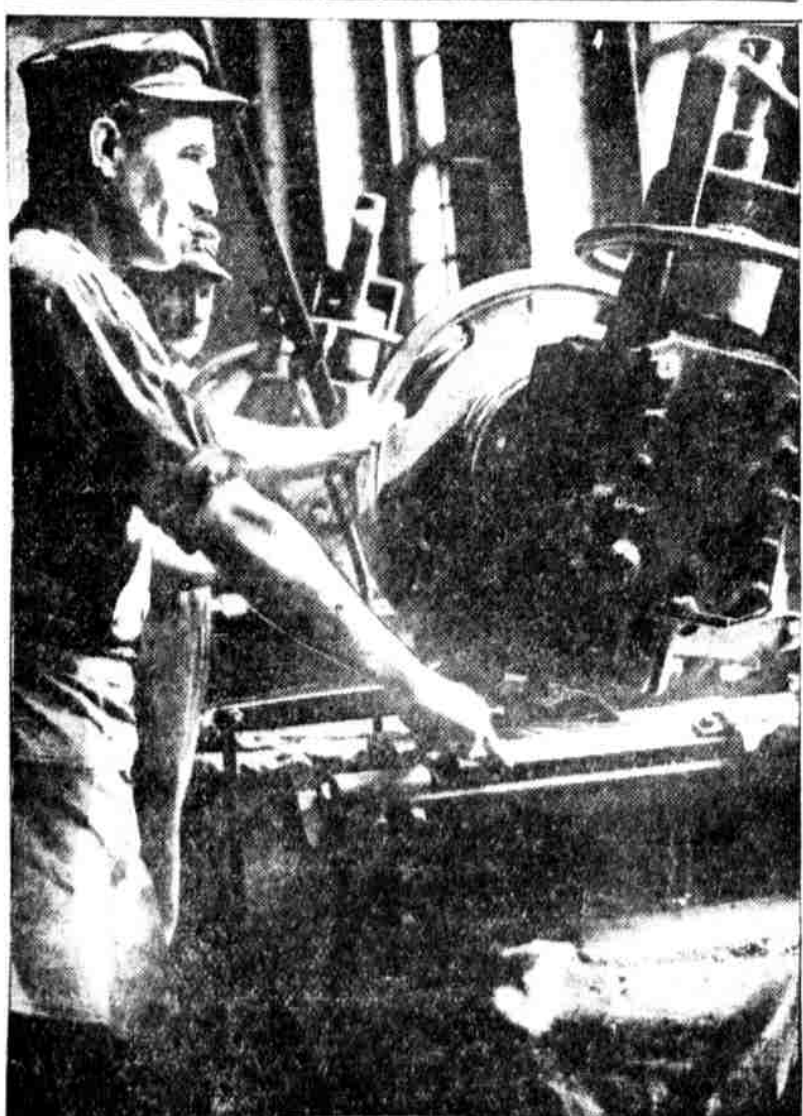

MISS MARGARET A. DUNLOP, superintendent of nurses of the Pennsylvania Hospital, discusses the demand for nurses in an Editorial Page interview.

WINTER SCENE AT LEAGUE ISLAND PARK. The pavilion, built along the lake, is intended for band concerts. Ledger Photo Service.

OUR CITY'S WORKERS AND WHAT THEY DO

WILLIAM BOWERS, 856 East Willard street, operating a machine that cuts from fifty to sixty dozen files a day at McCaffrey File Co., Fifth street below Berks. Ledger Photo Service.

INTERCITY SQUASH GAMES TODAY. Stanley W. Pearson, of Germantown Cricket Club, who will lead the Philadelphia team. Ledger Photo Service.

CONSTANCE CARPENTER will appear in "Cinderella," to be given tonight at the Metropolitan Opera House.

SEMAPHORE SENTINELS

RESERVE PATROLMAN JOSEPH A. DEVINE, who has been stationed at Seventh and Market streets for nearly seven years. He lives at 6032 Locust street. Devine is thirty-seven years old, married and has three children. He joined the police force nine years ago. Ledger Photo Service.

DRIVES HER OWN AUTO-MOBILE. Mrs. William H. King, wife of the senator from Utah. National Photo.

THE BEAUTY CORNER

MISS GOLDIE ROSENWEIR 618 South Nineteenth street Philadelphia.