Monday Will End the February Furniture Sale

It Is Not Wise to Hoard Money
but it is wise to lay it up "for a rainy day" without becoming miserly.

Have you ever read George Eliot's lovely story of Silas Marner, the linen weaver, who buried his earnings under the loose bricks of his hearth stone, and the wonderful miracle that was wrought out thereby in his pitiful, overwhelming sorrow, when all his savings vanished overnight?

To squander money unthinkingly because one has so much that it "makes no difference," as they say, or knowing many things, they do not know enough to take care of what they have, is deplorable.

To do our best should be our daily study.

[Signed]

John Wanamaker

February 26, 1921.

"Mrs. Harding Blue"

The new Spring silks are showing this blue in the exact shade in crepes, meteor, brocade and silk voile. They are shown in one of the Market Street windows and are sold in the Silk Store.

(First Floor, Chestnut)

Young Women's Frocks of Spring Silks—$32.50 and $45

So pretty are the new Spring frocks it is small wonder they walk out as fast as they come in! Here are some new ones—just out of their tissue wrappings.

At $32.50

are frocks of crisp and shining taffetas in black, blue or brown, and frocks of the new mignonette tricolette—a fine, close weave that is very attractive. The dresses are planned on youthful lines, the taffetas have many tiny cordings on the sleeves and long tunics and tie in back with wide sash bows. The mignonette dresses are long, straight waisted style, with short sleeves and square necks.

At $45

are most pleasing new taffeta frocks in dark blue, brown or black, in quite new models, and new Canton crepes in a pretty eyelet style with satin sashes of contrasting color. They have round necks and short sleeves.

All in 14 to 20 year sizes.

(Second Floor, Chestnut)

Little Animal Scarfs of Fashionable Furs

With the coming of another season a woman nowadays simply chooses the furs that are best for that season—in the Spring, and to accompany her new Spring suit, she likes the little brown animal scarfs, for instance.

Here are some good kinds that are interestingly priced, as well as most desirable from a fashion standpoint—

Hudson Bay sable scarfs are $50 to $100 for single skins.

Russian sables are $166.50 to $425.50.
Stone marten scarfs are $37.50 to $55 for single skins and $80 to $90 for two-skin scarfs.
Fisher scarfs are $96.50 to $113.25.
Kolinsky scarfs are $16.50 to $26.50.
Mink scarfs are $30 to $56.50.

(Second Floor, Chestnut)

The Lovely New Paris Handkerchiefs for Easter

Prettier and gayer than ever!

Quite new initial handkerchiefs for women are those in solid colors—rose pinks, blues, violets and tans, with tiny white hems and white embroidery—$6 for a box of six.

Women's tape-border handkerchiefs, in a new style with new hand-done letter—$1.25 apiece.
And any number of pretty dotted, bordered, striped or figured handkerchiefs, in new designs and charming colors, are kinds women will like for Spring and Summer—75c to $1.50 each.

Among the French novelties for men are the pretty colored border handkerchiefs—with fine lines of color—at $2.50 each, and the white dress handkerchiefs with inch hems and white borders above, at $3 each.

New and pretty handkerchiefs for the children, too—printed and embroidered kinds, quaint and different, 35c to $1.25 apiece.

And there are little Easter novelty boxes to put them in, at 10c to 75c.

(Main Floor, Central)

New Sports Coats Women Will Wear This Spring

It is interesting to note that one can have a good-looking polo cloth sports coat in tan for as little as $32.50. And another, somewhat similar, at $37.50.

A longer style, partly camel's-hair, and in a very pretty brown shade, is $72.50. Or an all-camel's-hair in a number of the new Spring colors, a very handsome coat indeed, is $135.

These are the newest styles in Spring sports coats and many women are already coming in for them.

(First Floor, Central)

Bisque and Gray Blouses Are Decidedly the Favorites

They are the two colors that the majority of women are asking for in Spring waists, and it is because of this you will find such numbers of styles in both bisque and gray.

To suit the different tastes, there are tailored as well as afternoon blouses, the latter being trimmed with fine laces, braiding, embroidery, or beaded. In materials there are Georgette crepe, crepe meteor and crepe de chine, with prices going from $8.75 for a crepe de chine up to $20 for a crepe meteor.

(Third Floor, Central)

MONDAY will bring to an end the Wanamaker February Furniture Sale of 1921, the most extraordinary sale up to the present time.

By its very nature it is an unprecedented sale, being the first sale in which our whole stock of furniture has ever been offered at deductions of 33 1-3 per cent, in some cases 50 per cent.

This offer, the greatest ever known in the furniture business of America, was made of our own volition, without pressure of any kind, but in the spirit of price-lowering by which the Store has all along been actuated.

Any other store might have done the same thing, but no other store took the initiative, although there has been no hesitancy in following a lead.

(Fifth and Sixth Floors)

Diamond Bar Pins

Mounted in Platinum

There is no question at all but what the diamond bar pin is the most fashionable form of jewelry at the present time and modern styles in dress are such that it can be worn with practically every costume. The fine openwork platinum mountings add a wonderful degree of brilliancy, and according to what one wishes to pay, there may be one, three or five diamonds. Bar pins with but one diamond start as low as $180 and go up to $350 for those with five good-sized stones.

(Jewelry Store, Chestnut and Thirteenth)

Women's New Fitted Dressing Cases

Fine glazed auto leather and dull black long-grain leather make these cases, which are all fitted with white celluloid toilet articles.

Linings are moire silk in rose, navy blue and gray.

Sizes of these cases are 18 to 22 inches, and prices are $37.50 to $55, which is much less than similar goods have been for some time.

(Main Floor, Chestnut)

New Skirting Plaids for $2 and $3 a Yard

They are every bit all-wool, and one of the nicest things about them is that they are very fine and light in weight in order to pleat well.

The color combinations, too, are beautiful, the softest blue and -brown, tan-and-brown and other fashionable plaids. Many light and dark shades. The $2 ones are 40 inches wide and the $3 ones are 48 inches wide.

(First Floor, Chestnut)

Nightgowns Pink and White

Pink batiste nightgowns with kimono sleeves and colored embroidery, $1.

Sacque nightgowns, also of pink batiste, and set-in sleeves, have lace trimmings, $2.25.

White nainsook with square necks, lace and embroidery, $1.50.

Finer square-necked white nightgowns, kimono sleeved, and having lace and ribbon trimmings, $1.65.

(Third Floor, Central)

Paris Is Still Wearing Dotted Veilings

And a new importation has just arrived from the city where these pretty veilings are made, Lyons, France.

(Main Floor, Central)

Hand Embroidery and Real Lace on Many New Collars

The shapes, too, are exactly the ones most desired for Spring frocks. They are the new narrow round collars and others in Tuxedo style. Although American made, they are quite dainty and pretty enough to have come from Paris.

Round net collars, hand embroidered, trimmed with Valenciennes lace, and some with real filet, $1.50 to $8. Sets, $2.50 to $6.50.

Exquisite organdie collars in Tuxedo shape, hand embroidered and trimmed with Valenciennes and real filet or Irish lace, $1.50 to $6.50.

All marked at one price—$13.50 a pair, and remarkably good for the money.

(Sixth Floor, Central)

Girls' White Middies $1.75, $2 and $2.50

Most of the middies are all white—of sturdy white cottons and trimmed with white braid, but a few at $2.50 are trimmed with blue collars and white braid.

They are well-made middies; they are useful in no end of ways and they are in 6 to 18 year sizes.
