tor to Japan without mention of reservation. If President Wilson made oral reservations regarding Yap at previous deliberations of the council, it is declared that Japan was not represented and has no official cognizance of this. Japan will take the stand that the mandate never went out of the hands of the same status as Germany prior to the war. During the war Japan diverted the Yap end of the cable from Slatington to the Loo-Choo-Liu-Kiu Islands between Japan and Formosa, for administrative purposes. Therefore, cable communication from America to Slatington by way of Guam and Yap does not exist.
