The Hungry Visitor

CHAPTER II GREAT HORNED OWL wanted his Coaxing Voices

"Hoo! Hoo! Give me food and plenty of it, 100 !" he hooted at Peggy. Billy was at the other end of the telephone wire, but he could hear Great forned Owl's hungry hoots. So could the sparrow who was perched on the wire, and the frog who was sitting in the bog beside the telephone pole. "Twit! Twit! Drive him away or he might want to eat me !" chattered the sparrow on the wire, Kerchug! Kerchug! Yes, drive him away, for I'm sure he wants to gobble me" creaked the frog in the box. Ha! Ha! Ha! You can't drive him away, for he is a stubborn owi and will not go " laughed Billy. "But do you know what to do with folks you can't

No. Peggy didn't know, nor did the sparrow, nor the frog, so Billy told them. When you can't drive folks, try conaing them," he said. "I'm sure if you talked to him sweetly, Sparrow, he would go your way."

I don't want him to go my way chirped the sparrow quickly. "If he came my way he would eat me." And if he heard your charming voice.

Mr. Frog, he would go your way," con-

Ker-chug! Ker-chug! I don't want him to come my way, because he would cobble me

Peggy didn't know whether Billy really wanted the sparrow and the frog to call Great Horned Owl their way, or whether he was just teasing Billy quickly explained his plan-Mr. Sparrow can hide," said Billy. Then he can cry out so Great Horned Owl can hear him. Great Horned Owi will think to himself that a nice fat sparrow is waiting to be eaten for supper, and he will go after Mr. Sparrow. But Mr. Sparrow will keep so still he can't be found, and another sparrow, farther down the line will call out and Great Horned Owl will go after him. And then there will be a third sparrow, and a fourth, and lots of others. They will lead Great Horned Owl to the marshes, and there Mr. Frog will take up the job of coaxing Great Horned Owl can hear him. Great Horned Owl row, called Billy over the wire.

Sparrow, who was perched on the wire not far from Peggy's home, began to little song.

In the shape of accounts files, files, files, cided on a pian which she has followed ever since.
From the newspapers, from the records a flux shape of accounts files, files, files, cided on a pian which she has followed ever since.

ling a little song.

'I'm a sparrow, fat and sweet,

Just a darling you'd like to eat."

Great Horned Owl heard the spar-

Great Horned Owi heard the sparrow's chirping. He quit his hooting and pricked up his ears.

Hiss: Hiss: he whispered to himself. I hear my supper calling me, and as silently as a shadow Great Horned Owl slipped off his perch in the time and darted toward the place where he had heard the sparrow's voice. He didn't find the sparrow, for the sparrow was already safely hidden far under the caves. But another sparrow down the line had taken up the song.

I'm a sparrow, fat and sweet lust a darling you'd like to eat." Great Horned Owl went after that second sparrow was gone and a third sparrow was singing the song farther down the line. So Great Horned Owl was coaxed along, thinking he was going to pounce on a fat supper right shead of him, only to find that the supper wasn't there.

And when he came to the marshes he heard a frog singing:

"I'm a floggy, sleek and slender. Great Horned Owl thought to himself that a frog would be just as good as a sparrow for supper, so he sped to where he heard a frog sould be just as good as a sparrow for supper, so he sped to where he heard the croaking voice. When he he heard the croaking voice. When he heard the croaking voice. When he he had the croaking voice. When he heard the croaking voice where he had dares and addresses of many rewcomers to the city, writing and from many other sources. Mrs. Cook obtained the names and addresses of many newcomers to the city, writing and from many other sources. Mrs. Cook obtained the names and addresses of many newcomers to the city, writing and from many other sources. Mrs. Cook obtained the names and addresses of many newcomers to the city, writing and from many other sources. Args. Cook obtained the names and addresses of many newcomers to the city, writing and from heard the croaking voice. When he there he found only a ripple in a ol, but another frog voice ahead was pool, but another frog voice shead was singing the same song:

'I'm a froggy, sleek and siender, Gobbie ine, you'll find me tender.''

'reat Horned Owl went after the second frog only to find another ripple, while a third frog coaxed him from the destance. And so he went on, on across the marshes, until he came to Birdland. And all the time he was becoming more and more hungry and all the time he was growing more and more cross because he couldn't catch up with the supler he thought was just ahead of him. And when he came to Birdland—but what happened there will have to be told temorrow.

What do you think did happen? See if you can make up the story tomorrow's chapter before you read here.

THERE is a tiny shop I know of that has an unusual collection of pearls. Always one can find nice pearls there. And every once in a while this shop has a little special. Just now there is a string that will delight you. It is just neck length, and the pearls are graduated. And, oh, what luster. They They have a soft glow and a beautiful color dinner-oh, there are ever so m the tray is really ornamental. Particularly those nice mahogany serving trays. Well, I know where you can get of mahogany serving tray that is. I hould say, offhand, about fifteen inches long. You can see from that that it is a good size. The bottom is of managany also, with a decorative figure in gold. And this tray is reduced to $1.25. Unquestionably now is your time to buy one. Incidentally, wouldn't one make a nice gift for the girl who has a hope clest?

In a way car tickets are a conveni-But there is one disadvantage them. They have a habit of getabout them. They have a hand or but ting lost. Well, not exactly lost, but mislaid, rather. Well, there is a little comes which is ting lost. Well, not exactly lost, but but particularly nice. It is metal, holds twelve tickets, and tiere is the nice part about it. You slide your ticket out of it, and you can get only one out of the same time excited and relief sympathy. There was something in the girl's bearing, he couldn't fell what, that at the same time excited and relief sympathy. There was a delice You will especially like that part

By Writing Posteards

Five years ago, when Mrs. A. B. Cook opened her little establishment which she called the Froils Shop, in the heart of Seattle's retail district, she made up her mind to try a unique experiment in Amouncing her business and the values which she was able to offer, for she had beaten path in order to attract shoplers from the street to the fourth floor of the building, where her shop was located. She concluded that it would he more profitable to attempt to build the house. Anybody that he work around

THE MODIFIED BASOUE WITH NOVEL SLEEVES

THE DAILY NOVELETTE When Greek Met Greek

By CHRISTINE HAYES

"I always knew," wrote Emily, "it would be fun to refuse proposals, and

"H'm!" commented Aunt Sarah,
"Sounds quite wholesome."
Aunt Dorrie said nothing, but later to Emily she wrote: "The game of hearts is a dangerous game, dear, and one can't go on winning always. Besides, are you quite sure you're playing fair? In that game more than in any other it goes hard, sooner or later, with cheaters. Be careful, Emmy!"

sooner or later, with cheaters. Be careful, Emmy!"
Emily, reading, laughed outright.
Dear, square old Aunt Dorrie making out the rules for the game of hearts:
She, Emily, was much better qualified for the role of Hoyle than Aunt Dorrie.

Not long out of school, Emily was having her first taste of social gayety in the world of grown-ups. Youth, health wealth and beauty are good cards, and she played them like a veteran. But always, with a laugh, she scattered her winnings to the four winds. There Had been Wallie Johns. Allan Still, Jimmy Dorr, Frank Cramer, Grover Vance and so on through a long list.

"Don't you worry. Auntie dear! It did not hurt them one single bit.
They're all as vain as can be, and they just need to be taken down a little," she wrote.

"Bless your heart, child, it's you I am worrying about. Of course it won't hurt them. It's the effect on you. Youth is never really insincere or cynical. It just pretends to be. But if it pretends too long, the insincerity and cynicism become facts, and what unlovely qualities they are. Besides, you aren't-playing fair and the little gods of compensation will get you if you don't watch out."

"But I can't help it if they will be so silly," walled Emily, in violet ink on lavender paper.

"Oh, can't you." Aunt Dorrie's brief

"Oh, can't you." Aunt Dorrle's brief reply was of a deceptive mildness. "Well, when you get burned, child, don't say nobody told you fire was bot." Emily did not waste much time in pondering this advice. "What a little preacher Aunt Dorrle is!" she scoffed, smiling, and went to put on her prettiest gown, the better to flatter Jack into the belief that she cared for him.

That evening the fates provided fresh fodder for Emily's guns. A stranger arrived at the small southern resort up the job of coaxing Great Horned Owl far far away."

Peggy thought that a good pian, and a did the sparrow and the frog.

"Hoo! Hoo! I'm blue and hungry, too" hooted Great Horned Owl outside in the shape of accordion pinited ruf.

The same material tied with narrow ribbon arrow ribbon showing orange on one side and navy on the other. Similar ribbons are tied in bows at the waistline, and upon the wide skirt of 'orange georgette we see the corsage exerting its authority that night—a wise choice, for no one less were planning to leave the next day. She chose white for the dance that night—a wise choice, for no one less were planning to leave the next day. She chose white for the dance in the shape of accordion planted ruf. that night—a wise choice, for no one else wore it; and with Martin's white violets she stood out as lovely as a

Martin danced all the evening with her. His dark eyes glowed appreda-tion, and Emily's shallow, callous little heart was stirred to what depths it had. They slipped out into the court and sat by the fountain in the moonlight. She walted, still and confident, knowing that the moonlight enhanced her love-liness. Martin talked on tenderly, but always lightly. Emily found herself unable to speak, but apparently he did not notice. When she arose to go he not notice. When she arose to go he did not protest. For the first time fear tightened in the little trifler's throat. In the morning Martin came to the train to see her off, with flowers and "Perhaps" came a faint hope to Emily.

Through the hurt of it all she realized vaguely that he was saying something about the pleasure her society had given him—"delightful memories"—but with a finality that gave her no opportunity suggest continued acquaintance.

Board And again Bo-o-ard She thrust her hand out of the open ar window. Martin kissed it gracefully, giving Emily a long look and, what hurt most of all, in his eyes there lurked a hint of laughter! The train moved out.

Next Complete Novelette-"The Call of

TODAY'S MYSTERY STORY

A case of "In the Moonlight" Harvey Hunt and DeKyne had found the body only a foot away from the east wall of the viaduct, which ran in a straight line north and south, and that the walls of this viaduct were thirty feet high. It will also be remembered that the bright, full moon had barely reached its height at the time the two men crossed the vinduct and discovered the body lying

By CORINNE LOWE

ords showing real estate transac-tions involving homes, from the lists of new teachers announced by the school board at the beginning of each term and from many other sources, Mrs. Cook obtained the names and addresses below them. DeKyne could not understand how the Adventures With a Purse body could have been there for any length of time without some of the many people who crossed the vinduct seeing it. Harvey Hunt could. He could understand because he had > reached its greatest height. It would have been in the shadow they belong to much higher-priced pearls. And yes, if I remember correctly, the clasp is solid gold. This string is specially priced at $3.85—a bargain, if there ever was one!

have been in the snagow.

Aside from amusement at his friend's good for ner to die. Under her father's detective, the case turned out to have no interest for the criminologist. The murder had been the result of a drunken Still—I don't know—that's the funny part of it. They wouldn't get a doctor

Can you solve this mystery

The Melancholy House

Now. if you want a real mystery to solve. Mr. Hunt." said Sheriff Grantby, "you might take up the case of that girl over there."

Hunt, who was in Creeburg to give expert testimony in a murder trial, had been lunching with the sheriff. The two had just stepped out of the only hatel that the county sent boasted.

hotel that the county sent boasted. asked the criminologist, gazing with in and you can get only one out at a pelled sympathy. There was a dejective. You will especially like that part time. You will especially like that part of it because you know yourself how these tickets will stick together. At the same shop there are several other kinds and styles, a Prices begin at fifty cents.

For names of shops address Weman's Page Editor or phone Walnut or Main 3000.

Making More Money

The same shop there are several other kinds and styles, a Prices begin at fifty cents.

For names of shops address Weman's farm six miles out. Grouchy, disagree able, close mouthed pair, the man and woman are. They're living on her money. Her father was in the shipping business in New York, Left about three bundred thousand when he died. She

Yesterday's Mystery Solution had plenty of opportunities to leave, but she won't do it, though her life with that pair must be a living hell. For a while, about two years ago, everybody thought she was going to get married. Young Tom Bucholz, a fine young fellow, fell hard for her. She seemed to like him, too. Used to go out walking with him a lot. But Tom always had that worried look, like as if there was something about it all he couldn't understand. Tom wanted to marry her and take her away. Finally she threey and take her away. Finally she threw him down hard. There wasn't any quarrel led up to it, and she seemed to take it just as hard as he did. But she wouldn't have anything more to do with him. Tom never could offer any explanation. I guess it was her aunt and uncle did it. Mean as poison, they

> "Well." the criminologist commented "I can't say there was much class to her clothes, but they looked warm and serviceable enough, and she doesn't look as though they were starving her."

sand uses it is a serving tray. For lunch, for afternoon tea, for serving at dinner—oh, there are ever so many uses! And in addition when uses many Daniels out there, but the old man met us with a shotgun, and the girl herself sent out a note felling as please to go away, that she didn't want a doctor. There wasn't anything cise for us to do but go. Funny thing, Mr. II way girls will act sometimes. Funny thing, Mr. Hunt, the retend to understand this one.

Hunt mused a few moments over the sheriff's words. "I think I can solve your mystery," he said finally. "Does anybody ever come to see them at all?

"How about their mail? Do they 'Hardly any," said the sheriff "About once a month some package or other comes by parcel wost, and Sam Parker; the postmaster, says they don't get more than a couple of letters or so That pretty near settles it then, said the criminologist. "I'll tip off the authorities, and there'll probably be a postoffice inspector down here to open the next package that comes for them.

What did Harrey Hunt expect the ackage to contain? The anxier will appear tomorrow Contright, 1921 by Public Ledger C

I think the answer to the riddle will be found in it."

யமாMade-to-Measure Ladies' tailor-made SPORT SUITS

Blue Tricotine, $50 Or With Your $25 FRANK DI LUZIO

906 WALNUT

WANAMAKER'S

DOWN STAIRS STORE

WANAMAKER'S

Wanamaker's Down Stairs Store

New Goods Every Day

The secret of maintaining a standard store of dependable goods, selling at less than usual market prices, is in having quick "turn-over" of merchandise. Merchandise bears interest just as money does. If you borrow money today and pay it back tomorrow, the accommodation is inexpensive. If you buy goods today and sell them tomorrow, only a small profit is necessary to pay the carrying charge. Then you take your money and go back into the market and immediately buy again,

This is the whole plan of Wanamaker's Down Stairs Store. It is the vital thing about its success.

The always fresh goods sell very quickly-and then come new fresh goods for the next day.

Please consider this your personal invitation to see the new goods at the new low prices this very day.

1000 Umbrellas —Special

Can't have too many umbrellas around the house, that is one thing sure! You will need them the next two months and you can save money by buying now.

Children's Umbrellas at 85c

Black cotton umbrellas have handles especially for little girls or boys. Just the right sizes, too,

Men's and Women's Umbrellas, $1.35

Of good tape-edged American taffeta (cotton) over paragon frames. The handles are finished with silk loops or bakelite rings for women. The men's are in crook or

About Half Winter Price at $2.85

Fine umbrellas for men and women are of union taffeta (silk-and-cotton). The men's handles are crooked Bakelite rings or silk loops finish the women's

Women's Silk Umbrellas at $3.85

Navy, gray, green, purple and garnet. A few are in sun-and-rain size with pretty borders. The handles have bakelite rings, leather straps or silk loops, and some of the umbrellas are otherwise trimmed with bakelite. These are classed as "seconds," but the imperfections are slight.

Overnight Bags Special, $4.50

Good-looking bags of black grained enameled cloth. They are trimmed with nickel or gilt and the silk poplin linings are in tan, gray or lavender. Each bag is finished with buttons on the bottom, which means extra dura-

New Street Hats Blow in for March

March demands a degree of ailored appearance in Spring hats, for a lamb-like day often blows up into a roar that suggests the lion!

All the more opportunity for smart lines! Ribbon, glycer-ined ostrich and interesting pins are cleverly used and the hats show a high degree of genuine becomingness.

Plenty of blacks, dark blues and browns, but not all the hats are dark. Light gray i to be seen and the bright green of rye fields in April, as well other light Springlike

Interesting choosing around

Spring Blouses $1.50 to $4.50

So fresh and Springlike and scores of different styles! Figured voiles in semi-tailored models; crisp organdies in the colors of bright Spring flowers, tailored and finished with little pleated frills; soft voiles in pretty olors; dainty dimity blouses frilly white voiles trimmed with lace; some blouses with high necks and others with flat collars.

so they go! No wonder that blouses like these find delighted owners so

> Small Boys' Tan Shoes, $3.90

Blucher shoes with round toes are in sizes 10 to 1312 The soles are welted and the leather is durable. (Gallery, Market) hours, and soft silks for afternoon. So carefully are

Gray-So Fashionable

-can be had in dresses of several lovely materials. Canton crepe is the newest and there are pretty gowns of Georgette crepe and eyelet em-broidered taffeta. $25, $29, $32,50 to $45.

White Toilet Sets Special at $8.50

Lovely for Easter gifts! The large mirrors, the brushes and the combs are in unusually graceful shapes. The shade and graining make them look like real vory and they are edged with lines of pink, blue or black.

Although classed as "seconds." the imperfections are so slight that they are mostly imperceptible. If the sets were perfect they would be almost twice this graceful, natural one that is the Crepe Negligees mode this Spring. $2.25 and $3 (Central) Two pretty negligees are in blue, pink, rose and lavender, trimmed with bands of satin. Inexpensive

(Chestnut

Handkerchiefs All Pure Linen

Women's plain hemstitched handkerchiefs—15c. Women's embroidered stitched handkerchiefs—18c Handkerchiefs with delightful colored borders-25c and 35c. Men's plain linen handker-chiefs with hemstitched hems-

Corsets, $3.50

ures is of fine pink poplin with silk figures in it. The lines are long and yet the boning is not too heavy. The silhouette is the

A good model for medium fig-

Some of these handkerchiefs are usually almost twice these

The $2.25 negligee is of plaincolor crepe and the $3 one is in a

50-Inch Tapestry A Third Less A timely opportunity, for many people have their furniture re-upholstered in the Spring. The tapestry is finely woven and the verdure designs are colorful and artistic.

The prices are $2.75, $3.50, $3.75 and $4.50 a yard—all a third less than usual.

Box-Pleated Plaid Skirts Special at $7.50 Brown is used with three different shades of blue to form the plaids in these pretty new skirts. The pleats are stitched over the hips so that they will fit smoothly.

Center Aisle Opportunities Women's Full-Fashioned Silk Stockings

$1 Pair Black, white, cordovan, navy and gray in sizes 812 to 10. Good quality dipped silk (that wears unusually well) with mercerized cotton tops and soles. "Seconds," but imperfections are very slight.

Lovely Silk Petticoats, $3.50

Ready for Easter in all the popular plain and changeable hues. All-silk jersey, silk jersey with swishing taffets or messaline flounces, all-messaline and foulard in pretty effects. No end to the styles, all of which have been considerably higher in price

Tablecloths, $1.85—Half Price Half dozen attractive patterns in this heavy full-bleached cotton damask, very lustrous with the new permanent glossy finish that is not removed by laundering. 58x58 inches.

Middy Ties, Half Price, 38c 800 and more attractive triangular ties in black, red, navy, the lighter blues and all sorts of pretty combinations. Suitable for bathing ties and there are plenty of bright ones to choose from

New Georgette Blouses and Overblouses for Spring—$3.90 and $5.90 Spring shades and fashions in these good-looking blouses and overblouses. Most of the $5.90 kinds are the overblouses very dainty with laces; also fetching frilled blouses in the newest colorings. The $3.90 styles are remarkably pretty, usually trimmed with fine laces. Sale of Women's French Gloves at Half Price

2-clasp gloves of French lambskin, overseam sewn, at $1.35. 6-button length strapped gauntlet gloves of French lambskin

8-button length mosquetaire gloves of French kidskin, pique All of soft, flexible perfect skins in new Spring shades. Rompers for Little Folk of 2 to 6

$1.25 and $1.50 $1.50 kinds are pink, blue or green chambray in a cunning peg-top style bound with white at the neck, sleeves and trousers. $1.25 kinds are sturdy cadet blue cotton in middy style with braided collar and little red lacers.

Spring Frocks, Charming and New $13.50 $15 $18.75 $25

Of mignonette, serge, Georgette crepe, taffeta and then more taffeta-and Spring is in every line and There are trim little serge frocks for morning they cut that nine out of ten of the dresses will fit without any alteration. A navy blue serge frock is sketched. The bodice is braided and there is a tasseled tricolette sash in gay colorings. $13.50 The other frock in the sketch is of taffeta with Georgette sleeves. The overskirt and bodice are embroidered in bugle beads. In navy or black, sizes 36 to 46, at $18.75.

Special at $15

Taffeta dresses are embroidered in silk or trimmed with many ws of fagotting done in gray or ecru silk. Also a great variety of beaded Georgette dresses. Most of these are in navy blue.

Over 30 Styles at $25

and each one seems prettier than the last. Taffeta frocks with puffed skirt, accordion pleated underskirts, many ruffles or scaloped edges. Dresses of twill cord embroidered in wool. Lovely affairs of crepe de chine and Canton crepe-beautiful materials. Of course, the widest choice is in navy blue

New Mignonette Dresses $15, $16.50, $18 to $25 becoming than dresses of this material. There must be a dozen different styles in mignonette dresses in navy, black, brown and some of the lighter blues and tans. They are embroidered and braided and are long and straight of line.

Practical Jersey Suits $15 and $16.50

Nothing quite takes their place for knockabout wear. They will stand almost anything and are always so comfortable and smart. Excellent choosing in brown, blue or gray mixtures at these

Spring Suits at $25

Here are smart blue serges, trimmed with braid or em-broidery. Suits of wool poplin, tailored and trim. All of the Excellent at $32.50

is a suit of navy blue serge with a roll collar, bound with black silk braid. The cut-in pockets are braid-bound and finished with embroidered crows' feet.

Other charming new suits, some quite elaborately braided or beaded, are $42.50, $43.50 and $55.

Silks Gleam With Spring Tricolette at $1.50

Printed Foulard at $2 35 Inches Wide

Many of the pretty designs are in white, but a few are in attractive colors on brown, navy, Copenhagen or black grounds.

Black Silks at $1.50 Messaline and taffeta. 36 inches wide and excellent quality.

White Sports Satin at $2.50

38 Inches Wide 36 Inches Wide The highly lustrous fiber satin White grounds with various is in the desirable plain weave.

Girls' Gingham Frocks Sing a Song of Springtime

Cornt

Copenhagen

36 Inches Wide

This good-looking knitted fiber

Striped Silk Shirting

at $1.40

material is very fashionable.

Old Ran

school on the first mild days of Spring will not be such a task if there are pretty new frocks to wear and (vanity, vanity!) to show off

$1.50, $2, $2.50, $3 to $8.50

Special at $1.50-freeks of club checked gingham, in tan, green, red and blue, are finished with plaincolor collars edged with rickrack braid. Sizes 6 to 14 years. $2,50-the gingham dress, girls of 6 to 14 years, that is sketched has a plain green or blu-bodice and a plaid skirt.

For Juniors—$3

The other dress that is sketched comes in sizes 121g to 161g. checked gingham is in gold, green or blue and the ruffled upron from and wide sash are charming

Other gingham dresses, some with detachable bodices, some in regulation style and some with bloomers, begin at $1,50 and go gradually up to $8.50. Sizes range from 6 to 16 but not in all models.

Hundreds of New Top Coats

Great variety of styles! effects, dolmans, tailored coats, loose-back models, box-pleated sports

The materials are mostly polo cloth, velour, silvertone and serge, Prices begin at $7.50 for the smaller girls and at $10 for larger special that will benefit many homes!

Seamless Tapestry Rugs 9x12 Feet-$25

Sturdily woven of good worsted yarns. A Springtime