

AN AERIAL LINER AT ITS DOCK. The giant British dirigible R 33, sister ship to the wrecked transatlantic R-34, moored to a new masthead at Pulham, England. The mooring was built in an effort to avoid repetition of the accident that befell the R-34.

BELGIAN GETS SETBACK. Edouard Horemans (left) lost the fourth block of his 4800-point billiard match to Jake Schaefer last night in New York. It was Horemans' first defeat in this country.

A DANCING TRIO. Margaret Walker, Frances Dorkin and Mary Doherty, members of the fancy dancing group at the Sherwood Recreation Center, West Philadelphia.

STANDING ON ONE LEG. A New York police department horse is being trained in Central Park by one of the experts of the mounted squad. The rider is hanging on.

EDWARD T. CLARK. He has been associated as private secretary to Vice President-elect Coolidge.

SHOE REPAIRING. Daniel Kominsky (left) and Charles Bain are learning how to do the work of a cobbler at the Lee Special School, Howard street below Girard avenue.

CLARENCE KALMOIS is putting the finishing touches to a smoker's cabinet at the Lee Special School.

AMONG THOSE PRESENT. Miss Elizabeth Brockie, of Philadelphia, and Mr. John M. Rutherford, of New York, at the costume ball given in Palm Beach by Mr. Addison Mizner, of New York.

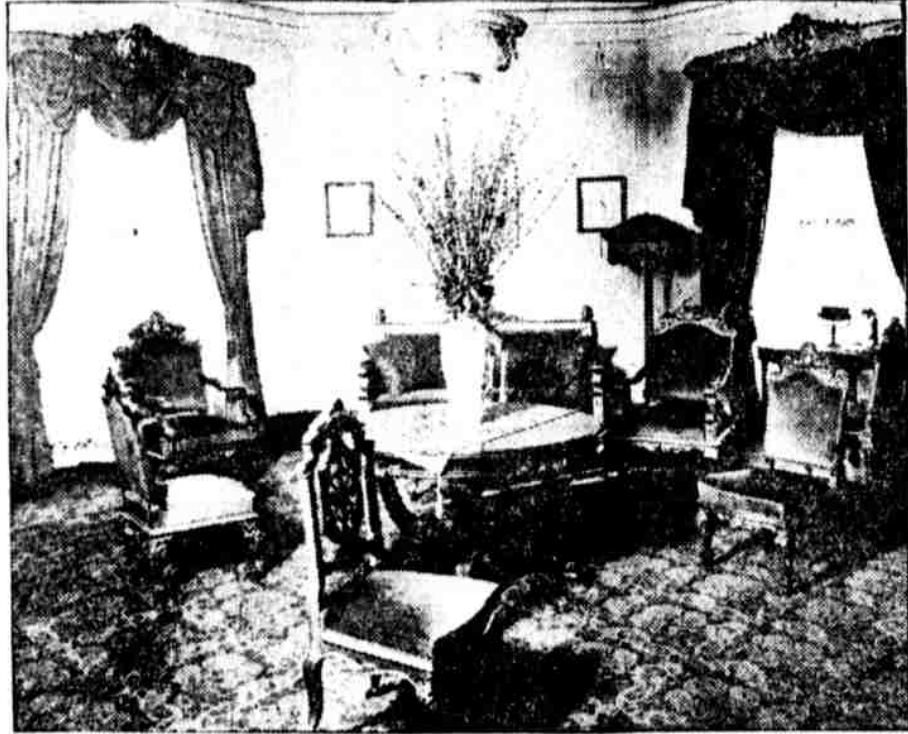

A PHILADELPHIAN. Miss Rebecca Thomson, as she appeared during the costume ball given at the Everglades Club in Palm Beach.

BORED TO DEATH. This French bull pup is showing his contempt for the people who dressed him up with a new collar and a new coat at a London dog show.

JENKINTOWN HIGH SCHOOL TEACHERS' JURY JUDGES JACK S. JUNGLE. From left to right (seated): M. M. Hoge, Jenkintown; A. Myrtle Benson, Jenkintown; James M. Grass, Telford, Pa.; (standing): F. M. Comfort, Philadelphia; Kathleen Komala, Jenkintown; Clarence E. Gawe, Langhorne, Pa.; Agnes Giossello, Hatboro, Pa.

PART OF PRESIDENTIAL SUITE. The sitting room, one of the seven rooms in the Willard Hotel, Washington, that President-elect Harding, Mrs. Harding and members of their family will occupy for the day and night preceding March 4.

DR. J. BLAIR SPENCER, who discusses methods of keeping physically fit in an interview on the Editorial Page.

JURY SELECTS LIMPIN' LIM'RICK WINNER. These employees of the W. H. Hoedt Co., commercial illustrators and photographers, at 310 Chestnut street, made the award announced today on page 2. In the picture from left to right (seated, front): Miss Frances Gittelman and Miss Bertie Housenick; (standing): W. Conger, K. E. Neumann, R. J. Lamy, C. F. Miller, Miss Dorothy Ayres, Jacob A. Munch, Louis Hirschman, David Shlenker, L. Brangan and C. J. Axford.

OUR CITY'S WORKERS AND WHAT THEY DO

RAYMOND GRUBB, 1125 North Chester street, operating a machine which breaks up bits of excelsior at the Lehigh Star Bobbing Co., 912 Race street.

SIXTEEN-YEAR-OLD ORATOR. Elizabeth Hann, daughter of the Rev. Edwin Forrest Hann, of Camden, who is making rapid strides as a public speaker.

SEMAPHORE SENTINELS

ONLY A YEAR ON THE POLICE FORCE. Reserve Patrolman Michael Jordan, of 130 Green street, is now stationed at what the police call "The Dizzy Corner," Broad Street Station, Filbert street and the Parkway.

A SNAPPY PLAYER. Redger Lindsay, forward on the star basketball team of the Friends' Central, was caught during a little outdoor practice.

THE BEAUTY CORNER

MISS AMY MARTIN, 1008 Oregon avenue, Philadelphia.