

REVIVALS OPENED BY PRESBYTERIANS

Speakers Call for Mobilization of Religious Forces to Cure Sick World

RALLY CHURCHMEN FIRST

Mobilization of latent religious forces to meet present serious conditions, the aftermath of the war, was emphasized as a goal of the first of the series of a great revival in recently Presbyterian churches held in Germantown, Chestnut Hill, Fairmount, Manayunk and Town...

The campaign will be conducted in a series of meetings, the first of which will be held on Saturday night, March 13, at the First Presbyterian church in Germantown...

Leaders in Campaign The Rev. D. Francis Shank, D.D., of the Methodist Church, is chairman of the campaign...

Other churches participating in the campaign include the First Presbyterian, the First Methodist, the First Baptist, and the First Episcopal churches in Germantown...

FIRST PERFORMANCE OF "ANDRE CHENIER"

Metropolitan Premiere Takes Place Here Instead of New York—Gigli Scores Success

The first performance of Giuseppe Verdi's opera, "Andre Chenier," ever given by the Metropolitan Opera Company took place at the Academy of Music last evening...

The opera is built around the tenor part, that voice having far the greatest number of the arias, as well as the most beautiful and elaborate of them...

Second in importance was the part of Madeleine, admirably sung by Miss Bonelli. Her voice seemed a trifle weak in the opening scenes, but it rapidly gained in brilliancy and expressiveness...

"Andre Chenier" has an unusual number of important secondary parts, the Metropolitan Opera Co., with its brilliant personnel, is probably better equipped than any other opera company in the world to give an adequate performance of such a work...

academically. But much of the music is very beautiful and effective, notably Gerard's monologue in the Tribunal Chamber, Chenier's soliloquy in the first act and the duets with Madeleine in the second and last acts...

The opera was exceptionally interesting and enjoyable, being led by someone whose genius was evidently made of sterner stuff than the average...

The opening performance in New York, where it is said to have a position as fixed and inimitable as that of the orchestra itself...

Class for Parents on Child Training The Pennsylvania School for Social Service has organized a class for parents on the scientific basis and technique of child training...

Crane's Pineapple Ice Cream

Another Special Flavor in

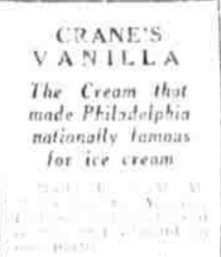

CRANE'S PHILADELPHIA ICE CREAM

The Quality-Standard for a Quarter Century

HAWAIIAN PINEAPPLES are the best in the world. Richest in flavor, as befits that land of tropical splendors. Rich, flavor-soothing slices of Hawaiian pineapples, prepared "the Crane Way," yield up their last drop of delightful flavor to enrich Crane's Pineapple Ice Cream.

This Crane special is so carefully prepared, by experts of many years' training, that it is inevitable that the result is the best Pineapple Ice Cream you have ever eaten.

Pineapple Ice Cream has an appeal for everyone. When made from the choicest of Hawaiian fruit, with a flavor which cannot be duplicated anywhere outside those Pacific Isles, the ice cream reaches the height of perfection.

Only One Quality—the Best

The popularity of Pineapple Ice Cream in Philadelphia is established by Crane's Pineapple Ice Cream.
