Ne'er to be found again.

We were crowded in the cabin: Not a scul would dare to sleep; It was midnight on the waters.

And a storm was on the deep

So we shuddered there in slience.

As thus we sat in darkness,

As she took his icy hand: "Isn't God upon the ocean

To be shattered by the blast And to hear those rattling trumpets Thunder: "Cut away the mast!"

For the stoutest held his breath

While the hungry sea was roaring And the breakers talked with death.
