

MRS. WILSON SUGGESTS SOME "EXTRAS" FOR SUNDAY

Rice Cakes Make a Tasty Addition to the Dinner—Onions, Celery and Parsley Help the Cheese in Making Macaroni Appetizing

By MRS. M. A. WILSON
THE eternal question of what shall we select for our Sunday bill of fare brings to mind Eugene Field's lines...

SUGGESTED SUNDAY MENU

- Breakfast: Omelette, Toast, Coffee.
Dinner: Roast Chicken, Potatoes, Green Beans, Rice Cakes, Macaroni, Fruit.
Supper: Fruit, Coffee.

A NEW HIGH COLLAR FOR A SILK FROCK

By CORINNE LOWE

"FIFTY-FIFTY"

By HAZEL DEVO BACHELOR

The marriage of Frances Carter and Jerry Page began on a fifty-fifty basis...

CHAPTER VIII An Exciting Call

THE result of Carlissa's appeal to Jerry was a complete dulling of Frances' enthusiasm regarding her splendid fifty-fifty scheme...

WHAT'S WHAT

By HELEN DEWIE

By HELEN DEWIE

This is the time to send out invitations for the 17th of March festivities...

The Woman's Exchange

To Get Newspapers

Dear Madam—Is it possible for me to secure back copies of the EVENING PUBLIC LEDGER...

To Lewis R. Jaspau

Sorry to have incurred your displeasure, but something must have happened to your copy...

"T. B. P." Acknowledges Congratulations

Dear Cynthia—I am certainly proud that I should be mentioned in your column...

THE QUESTION CORNER

Today's Inquiries

- 1. Describe a new bracelet that is strikingly different.
2. What interesting sort of hand-woven trim is burnt-orange or orange dress?
3. How is an effective cover for the long, narrow table made?
4. In what way has the latest polishing mitten been improved?
5. How can a plain colour bag be given a touch of distinction?
6. What is a sensible and pretty kind of mat to place under hot dishes?

Yesterday's Answers

- 1. Mrs. Elizabeth Hill, of Bellefonte, Pa., has been appointed to the responsible position of crossing watchman...
2. Kiki is used to make a laundry bag that is strong and not easily torn...
3. If a black net evening dress has become worn, an attractive way of using the foundation of black satin is to combine it with black lace to make a negligee...
4. A quaint little marmalade jar, that would make a nice wedding present, consists of a plain table glass, with a colored china saucer and lid for the top...
5. The most sensible tub for the lady is one made of rubberized material...
6. A metal ladder, with hinged arms that can be adjusted to fit, fastens on the back of a door and holds the ironing board, so that it does not take up any room.

Would Break Engagement

Dear Cynthia—I have written to you several times before and found some advice very helpful...

Well, Did He Get Up With a Grouch?

Dear Cynthia—After reading the latest edition of "Society" I would like to recommend that gifted person to choose the art of orators as his career...

Well, Did He Get Up With a Grouch?

Dear Cynthia—After reading the latest edition of "Society" I would like to recommend that gifted person to choose the art of orators as his career...

HOW DOES MRS HARDING FEEL ON THIS GREATEST OF DAYS?

Some Envy Her. Some Feel Sorry for Her. Others Criticize, but We All Seem to Forget That She's Just a Woman. After All

"JUST think how Mrs. Harding must feel today." Almost every woman in the United States is saying it...

WON'T you want to be confident that the women of the country were for you, instead of against you?

The Woman's Exchange

To Get Newspapers

Dear Madam—Is it possible for me to secure back copies of the EVENING PUBLIC LEDGER...

To Lewis R. Jaspau

Sorry to have incurred your displeasure, but something must have happened to your copy...

"T. B. P." Acknowledges Congratulations

Dear Cynthia—I am certainly proud that I should be mentioned in your column...

THE QUESTION CORNER

Today's Inquiries

- 1. Describe a new bracelet that is strikingly different.
2. What interesting sort of hand-woven trim is burnt-orange or orange dress?
3. How is an effective cover for the long, narrow table made?
4. In what way has the latest polishing mitten been improved?
5. How can a plain colour bag be given a touch of distinction?
6. What is a sensible and pretty kind of mat to place under hot dishes?

Yesterday's Answers

- 1. Mrs. Elizabeth Hill, of Bellefonte, Pa., has been appointed to the responsible position of crossing watchman...
2. Kiki is used to make a laundry bag that is strong and not easily torn...
3. If a black net evening dress has become worn, an attractive way of using the foundation of black satin is to combine it with black lace to make a negligee...
4. A quaint little marmalade jar, that would make a nice wedding present, consists of a plain table glass, with a colored china saucer and lid for the top...
5. The most sensible tub for the lady is one made of rubberized material...
6. A metal ladder, with hinged arms that can be adjusted to fit, fastens on the back of a door and holds the ironing board, so that it does not take up any room.

Would Break Engagement

Dear Cynthia—I have written to you several times before and found some advice very helpful...

Well, Did He Get Up With a Grouch?

Dear Cynthia—After reading the latest edition of "Society" I would like to recommend that gifted person to choose the art of orators as his career...

Well, Did He Get Up With a Grouch?

Dear Cynthia—After reading the latest edition of "Society" I would like to recommend that gifted person to choose the art of orators as his career...

Vertical text on the left margin: THE EVENING PUBLIC LEDGER, PHILADELPHIA, PA., FRIDAY, MARCH 4, 1921.

McCurdy Bros. Are Offering Some Very Special Reductions in SUITS & DRESSES For Women and Misses for Spring Wear. Includes illustrations of dresses and prices.

"Honest-to-goodness Buckwheat" advertisement for Hecker's Cream Buckwheat Flour. Includes an illustration of a flour sack and a griddle.

AMERICAN STORES CO. advertisement for Gold Seal Eggs, Sliced Bacon, and Louella Butter. Includes illustrations of a chicken and a butter box.