

THE CAPITOL. Dozens of high-powered search lights, together with other illumination, were played on the Capitol last night. Republican clubs found the well-lighted section of the city a good place to show off their parade clothes.

MRS. CHARLES EVANS HUGHES. Today marks her entry into the social life of cabinet circles.

IN WASHINGTON. Before they departed from the Baltimore and Ohio Station yesterday afternoon, the Blakely D. McCaughn Marching Club, of West Philadelphia, paraded through Market and Chestnut streets.

MRS. ALBERT B. FALL. She is the wife of the new secretary of the interior. They live in New Mexico.

THE INAUGURAL DESK. It was used by Warren G. Harding in Washington this afternoon, when he took his oath of office and delivered his inaugural address.

MRS. HARDING'S INAUGURAL DAY COAT. An exclusive photograph of a coat of broadtail with a chinchilla collar. It is lined with platinum gray.

ANOTHER NEW CABINET HOSTESS. She is Miss Will H. Hays, wife of the new postmaster general.

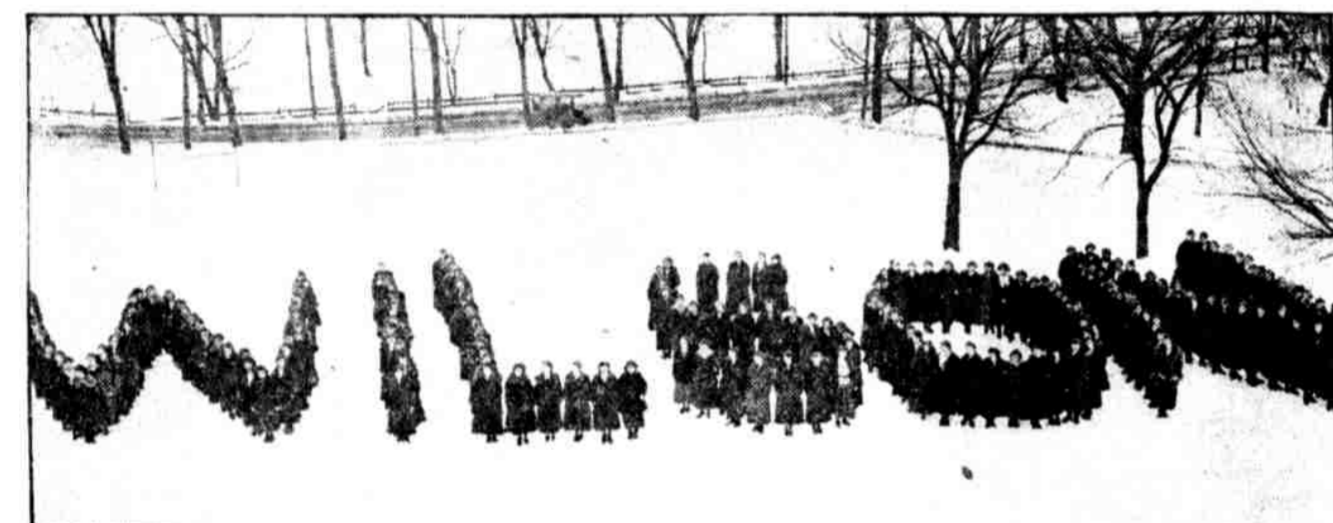

UNDER A JAPANESE BONNET. Mrs. Claude Graham White, the former Ethel Levey, at Palm Beach.

STREET CAR STALLED. These bricks were found on the track at B street and Allegheny avenue. The empty wagon was found two squares away. The driver was dead.

HARDINGS ENTERTAINED. An elaborate dinner was given in their honor last night at the New Willard Hotel, in Washington, by Mr. and Mrs. Carmi A. Thompson, of Cleveland, O. All of the forty-seven guests were Ohioans, except Mr. and Mrs. Will H. Hays, who are residents of Indiana.

JUST WILSON. This photograph has nothing to do whatever with the closing day of President Wilson's administration. The girls at Wilson College tried spelling on the snow-covered campus.

LIVELY SOCCER. A team from the steamship Galtymore, of Glasgow, matched with a picked team at B and Ontario streets. The sailors were defeated.

WILLIAM M. LLOYD LUMBER COMPANY EMPLOYEES JUDGE LIMERICK. Those in picture (seated), from left to right: Mary R. Hennessy, Martha L. Poulton, Katherine V. Jones, Elizabeth Boggs, Kathryn T. Maloney; (standing), L. A. McDermott, W. C. Stewart, William T. Hamilton, Raymond Reilly, Alfred Robinson, E. M. Pfisterer.

OUR CITY'S WORKERS AND WHAT THEY DO

MIXING PAINT. At the mixing tank in the paint factory of J. Edward Croll, 2326 Germantown avenue.

SEMAPHORE SENTINELS

LEADER OF HAHNE-MANN BASKETBALL TEAM. Captain J. M. Toomey, whose team caused a five-team tie in the City College League at the Central Y. M. C. A.

AT FIFTEENTH AND ARCH STREETS.

Reserve Patrolman Charles Orme, who has been a member of the police department since 1908. He lives at 822 West Indiana avenue.

THE BEAUTY CORNER

PLAYED SOCCER IN GLASGOW. Joseph Lindsay, 71 years old, a Kensington citizen, who turns up at most soccer games played near his home.

MISS MADELINE FAIN, 4733 Umbria street, Manayunk.