MANAGER WILLIAM MYERS, of the Philadelphia Eastern League basketball team, who has developed the fastest young team in the Eastern League, has registered with President Scheffer, a newcomer and amateur, but from all accounts the Phils have secured

The latest addition is a center from Baltimore in the person of Joseph Me-Carthy, of Baltimore, age twenty-one years, six feet four inches high and the leading scorer on the St. Andrew's A.
A. Maryland state champions. In his school disk he played with Johns Hopkins College and has been the star of St. Andrew's for several seasons.

Myers expects McCarthy to report for tonight's game at Musical Fund Hall with Germantown, but he may be to report as his team already had a championship contest scheduled. He will be used in the game next Friday at Trenton against the Potters.
