JUST GOSSIP ABOUT PEOPLE

Nancy Wynne Talks of the Meeting of the Supper Club at the Bellevue-Stratford—She Speaks of the Many Weddings Planned After Easter

THE Supper Club at the Bellevue-Stratford was great fun on Saturday night. It was held in the gardens and a great many were there. Betty Scott Clark had a party of friends, and the Heckscher Wetherills, who lately returned from Palm Beach, entertained. Edwina is looking very attractive. Hasn't she a lovely figure—so tall and graceful and always so beautifully gowned? The Walter Wheelers also entertained and so did the John G. Bell, Jrs.

EVERY ONE is interested in meeting Catherine Luxmoor, who has come over here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Luxmoor, of Weybridge, England. Mrs. Luxmoor was Miss Logan, a sister of Miss Maria Dickinson Logan, of Germantown. Catherine is sweet and attractive and will be much entertained while here. Mrs. George Dillwyn Parrish, that delightfully young old lady, gave a dinner, followed by a theatre party, for her, on Friday night. Two of the Catherine on Friday night. Two of the season's debutantes were invited to meet her, as well as a number of the younger men, the guests including Nancy Barclay, Mary Howland, Sydney Wright, Jr., Davis Page, Jr., and Hugh Parrish, who is Mrs. Parrish's grandson. You remember I told you of seeing Mrs. Parrish at the recent Anniversary ball at the Academy of Music and how, though past fourscore years and ten, she was among the youngest there. She is a charming and interesting person. It is an education to know her.

WEDDING plans for Easter week go on apace. Two Easter weddings in the Baird family within two weeks of each other will be some record. You know Margaretta Jeanes and Sydney Thayer, Jr., are to be married on Easter Monday, and on the Saturday after Easter week, April 9, Gainor Baird will be married to Joe Minott. Margaretta and Gainor are first cousins, Mr. Baird and Mrs. Jeanes being brother and sister. Margaretta is to be married at Calvary Presbyterian Church, on Locust street near Fifteenth, at noon March 28, and Gainor will be married at St. Martins-in-the-Fields, Chestnut Hill, at noon.

IT'S like the two Glendinning weddings last fall. Ellen Glendinning and Percy Frazer were married just a week after Percy Glendinning and Virginia Roberts, and Ellen and Percy Glendinning are first cousins.

Ellen and Percy Frazer, by the way, have the cutest little apartment in town here on Juniper street, but they are moving to Chestnut Hill to live, having taken a house out there. The Percy Glendinnings have an apartment at Seventeenth and Walnut streets that is most attractive.

Glendinning are first cousins.

SARAH FRANKLIN'S will be another Eastertide wedding. She is to be married to Dudley Riggs, Jr., of Baltimore, on April 12, at St. Mary's Church, Ardmore. Sarah is staying with Dudley's family in Baltimore for a few days, and on Saturday evening Billie Waxter, Jr., gave a dinner for her and Dudley at the Baltimore Country Club.

Another wedding scheduled for April 2 is of interest to Philadelphians, though it will not take place here. It is that of Page Anderson, of Savannah, Ga., and Harry Platt, of this city. You remember Page was up here in February when she was a bridesmaid for Cecily Barnes Geyelin.

MARION SAVAGE is to be married in Chestnut Hill on April 9, the same day that Gainor Baird will wed. Marion's fiance is Charles Lambert Heyniger, and he lives in Loring, N. Y. Pauline and Grace Savage are to be bridesmaids for their sister, and the marriage is to take place at 4 o'clock in Trinity Presbyterian Church.

JIMMY is very sweet and very good, but he's also very human. And while he has been taught he must obey, he usually finds a way round. The other day mother had several friends in for afternoon tea, and they had some delicious little cakes.

Jimmie and his brother were in the room and mother gave them each two cakes and told them to run off and play, and not to ask for more. Now, if you have been given two "perfectly delicious" cakes, and you know there are more where those came from, don't you, even though you are as much as thirty years old, don't you want some more? Well, Jimmie did, but he knew he mustn't ask for more nor would he be welcome back in the drawing room, so standing in the doorway he remarked insinuatingly during the first lull in the conversation, "Those cookies were very good."
