

PLACING NEW PROPELLER. The steamship Baylula, at Pier 38, South Wharves, was towed in from sea with a broken propeller. Drydocks are few, so the repair work goes on, as the stern of the ship is lifted out of the water by heavy loading of the front part.

NEW BABOON AT ZOO. It has been placed in the care of James McCrosson, whose duty it will be to tame the dog-faced animal. McCrosson knows how it's done.

TIOGA KENNEL CLUB HOLDS SHOW. The "open all-breed" event was held at the Continental Hotel. At the left is Florence Jones, of Frankford, with "Robbie," a Belgian police dog, "Colonel Roosevelt," was exhibited by R. C. Conway, of Ambler.

LONG-DISTANCE SNOWSHOE RACE. Girls at Wellesley College did very excellent work in their annual winter sports carnival. Lots of snow adds much to the program.

A SATURDAY DRUG RAID. United States Commissioner Long is making a close examination of the loot taken by the federal authorities. His secretary is listing the drugs and equipment.

DENTAL STUDENTS BUSY. They didn't take time to go to the gymnasium at Penn to get their basketball clothes. John J. Gasiaska (left) and Edward Bower are jumping center.

ON THE BOARDS AT FRANKLIN FIELD. Albert Wernick, a former Penn wrestler, is throwing Leon H. Wolf, a U. of P. wrestler, over his head as he teaches a few of the newest holds.

A BRITISH SPILL. J. Kelly, riding "Uncle James," at Hurst Park, England, was sent to the turf and was on his back when the photographer got his picture. The other driver narrowly averted colliding with "Uncle James."

BROTHER OF CARUSO. Giovanni Caruso, who arrived in New York from Naples to visit his sick brother, Enrico, may be taken to Italy to recuperate.

NOT A STRANGER TO YOU. Hugh Jennings, former manager of Detroit. He is now helping to whip the New York Giants into shape at San Antonio.

THE SECRETARY OF COMMERCE, Herbert C. Hoover, photographed for the first time at his desk. He insisted on simple ceremonies surrounding his induction into office.

JAI-ALAI CHAMPION. Emilio Equiluz, the Cuban, who collects $303 a day playing the Cuban game. The game is similar to handball. Equiluz is wearing his glove bat.

OVERSEAS VETERANS who acted as tellers in selection of Imerick winner. They are, left to right, (sitting) Myron McHenry, Harry Nation, Harry H. Richter, R. L. McDevitt, E. J. Oshtry, John J. Dinnien; (standing) Michael E. Large, Thomas J. Foley, Wm. F. Connolly, Raymond T. Slattery, Edward Schimpf, George J. Rightly.

OUR CITY'S WORKERS AND WHAT THEY DO

PACKING CAKES. The women workers are taking the large trays from the moving belts and packing the cakes into tins at the bakery of J. S. Ivins' Sons, 627 North Broad street.

POLO GIRLS. Miss Elizabeth Jeanes (left) and Miss Helen Sewell, members of the polo chorus that was included in "Why Not," given at the Little Theatre last week.

SEMAPHORE SENTINELS

A PATROLMAN FOURTEEN YEARS. Reserve Patrolman Harry G. Gaunt is now stationed at Broad and South streets, where he has been assigned for four years. He lives at 3031 North Bailey street.

THE BEAUTY CORNER

CORRECT POSITION for face and arms, Miss Grace Conkle and Philip Warrington, posed by a representative of the Philadelphia Dancing Masters' Association.

MISS BEATRICE BOWDEN 2322 South Woodstock Street Philadelphia