

JUST BEFORE BREAKFAST. Easy to take a "level ride" in your apartment on this stationary cycle. Miss Helen Lee Worthington, a New Yorker, finds that five miles each morning helps a lot.

SOLD OVER $3,000,000 OF LIBERTY BONDS. For that feat Miss Pauline Henkel, 15 years old, of New York, received an honorary commission as colonel in the U. S. Army. Commander F. W. Galbraith, of the American Legion, is making the presentation.

JUST BEFORE THE FIRST CABINET MEETING. The gentleman wearing a "topper" is Secretary of the Navy Denby. Secretary of War Weeks is at the right.

RESULT OF CAMDEN RUNAWAY. The horse, drawing a small wagon, was frightened by an automobile and collided with the street sweeper at Broadway and Van Hook street. The police had to saw the spokes out of the street cleaning vehicle to release the horse.

HIGH JUMPING. W. A. McLean, one of the athletes who are making a good showing on Franklin Field.

POUND AND QUARTER DOG. "Snooper," a black and tan dog, couldn't weigh much less. Mrs. Sidney A. Williams brought the dog with her from Paris dressed in this tailored cape.

WIVES OF GEORGE ROY SALISBURY. He admitted in court yesterday that he married Rita Zimmerman (left) in this city last June and Helen Hoffman in New York in February, 1920.

NOT A FREE-FOR-ALL. Several hundred rookies being taught the correct way to throw a crook by the New York police department instructors on City Hall plaza as Mayor Hylan and thousands look on.

WILL BE BUSY TODAY. Sam Dallas will have charge of the high school varsity track meet on Wanamaker's roof this afternoon.

DANIEL WHITNEY, coal operator, talks on Philadelphia's shipping advantages in an Editorial Page interview.

WELLESLEY SEMICENTENNIAL ENDOWMENT FUND COMMITTEE. They chose today's winner. Left to right: Mrs. Joseph H. Gaskill, Mrs. George B. Harvey, Miss Helen L. Shoemaker, Miss Dorothy Spellissy, Miss Rachel W. Pflaum, Mrs. W. W. Neill, Miss Grace Kimball, Mrs. J. S. Francis, Miss Margaret E. Jones.

TEACHERS AT LANSOWNE HIGH SCHOOL MAKE JACK'S JINGLE AWARD. From left to right (sitting), M. L. Stritzinger, Blanche Henderson, Marion Baker, I. F. Newmann, Esther Patterson; (standing, middle row), H. Emilie Grice, Edna Hall, E. S. Lyster, Mary A. Leal; (standing, back row), Walter L. Phillips (principal), V. B. Prendeville, R. F. Kraber, W. R. Farmer and E. H. B. Myers.

LEADER OF CANADIANS. Jack Asseltine, captain of the Winnipeg hockey team playing here this week.

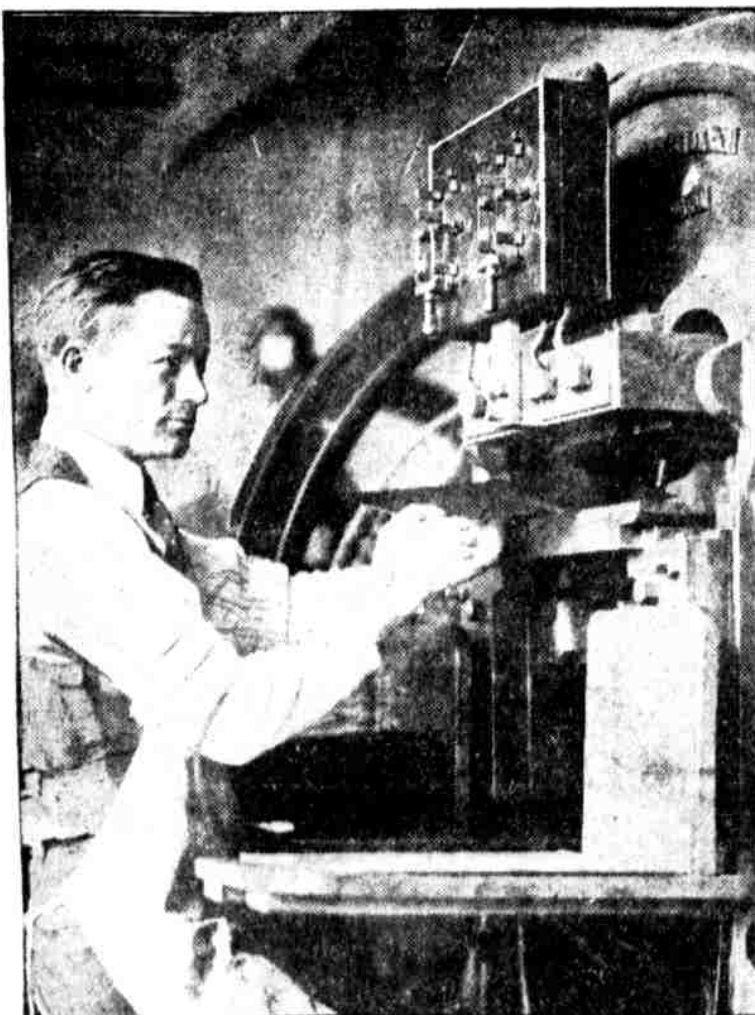

VISITING MRS. HARDING. Mrs. J. S. Wesner, of Chicago, is a cousin of President Harding's wife.

LOOKING FOR FOOD. This Chinese lad is one of the thousands helped by the China Famine Fund.

OUR CITY'S WORKERS AND WHAT THEY DO

JOSEPH SILVA operating an embossing and stamping machine in the publishing house of J. B. Lippincott Co., 237 South Sixth street.

STEPPING ALONG. Winston Churchill leaving Downing street, London, after attending a session of the allied conference.

BARON HAYASHI. He represented Japan at the allied conference held in London.

SEMAPHORE SENTINELS

BACK ON THE JOB. Paul Miller has just returned to duty as a reserve patrolman after being absent a year. He was photographed at Broad street and South Penn Square. Miller lives at 32 North Yewdall street. He's a singer.

"AMERICAN WOMEN ARE CHARMING." So said Prince Casimir Lubomirski, Polish minister to the United States, yesterday. Yes, he admits a fondness for dancing the American steps.

THE BEAUTY CORNER

MISS GERTRUDE CLARK 1725 Mount Vernon street Philadelphia