

LENINE CAUSE DEI DISORDINI IN ITALIA

L'Azione dei Comunisti fu Ordinata da Mosca per Tentare la Rivoluzione

Published and Distributed Under Authority of the act of October 6, 1917, on file at the Postoffice at Philadelphia, Pa. G. M. MILLERSON, Postmaster General.

Roma, 11 marzo.—Le autorità hanno definitivamente stabilito che l'origine dei recenti disordini comunisti in Italia fu Mosca. In base ai documenti sequestrati dalla polizia risulta che i disordini in parola furono ordinati da Lenin.

Si dice che il governo di Mosca manteneva un vero stabilimento per fabbricare documenti contraffatti e contraffatti provvisori di quanto era necessario per l'esecuzione di questi fatti ad altri importanti scopi. Ogni settimana arrivavano corrieri da Mosca per intrattenere la propaganda bolscevica attraverso la Germania, l'Italia, la Svizzera e la Francia. I quadri ricevevano ed eludevano la sorveglianza della polizia alle frontiere di varie nazioni.

Roma, 10 marzo.—Dispetti giunti a Londra segnalano che i giornali inglesi pubblicano che il risultato della conferenza col "terzo" ministro italiano, Signor premiato degli Alti, per la questione della tassa da imporsi alla Germania sulle esportazioni, rappresenterebbe un successo del "terzo" ministro italiano per gli Affari Esteri. Il conte Sforza fino all'ultimo si sarebbe opposto all'applicazione delle sanzioni contro la Germania, ma che poi avrebbe finito per aderirvi.
