EVENING PUBLIC LEDGER-PHILADELPHIA, THURSDAY, MARCH 17, 1921

had been pawned by "Roy Payne," who wore an overcoat with a fur col-lar and had a cap pulled down. The clerk could not identify Treadway as the man, but said he was about the same Suggests Joint Engineers to Prop sulted in the defendant and "Boots" Mulgrew gave in detail a vivid de-scription of the defendant and "Boots" Rogers. He said that upon their ar-rival in Wheeling they first looked at the red Pathfinder car which was in a garage nearby. Upon their return to the police station the detective receives a telephone message that a couple an-swering the description of Treadway and the girl were stopping at a room-ing house on Main street. Describes Arrest Mulgrew gave in detail a vivid de-scription of the available for the states Supreme Court, in the source and Chief Justice White, of the inter states Supreme Court, in the dispute with Costa Rice is contained in the note dispatched by the State De-partment March 15 and made public to-day. Appointment of a joint commis-to define the line of the White award is recommended, and Panama requested is reinquish its jurisdiction over the territory on the Costa Rice side" of its line of the Loubet award to the Gov-ernment of Costa Rice "in an orderly manner."

TO ACCEPT WHITE AWARD

Suggests Joint Engineers to Prop erly Define Boundary manner." The State Department, the note adds

HEARING 'DRAGS' FOR HIM

Ross Rogers, husband of "Boots." the girl who is to be the state's star witness in the trial of Peter D. Treadwithess in the trial of Feter D. Tread-way, finds the hours of the trial mov-ing with terrible slowness. "It seems an eternity." he said to-day as he waited at the district attor-ney's office before going in to see his wife. "They say the trial is moving fast, but it seems an age to me since the basing out." Peirce went in first. I followed him. Treadway came babing out.

it began. "I can't wait for Sue's case to be heard. That's the thing I'm interested in. I only hope they will try her case next. I don't know how I will man-we got in the apartment Peirce pulled if Moss' trial is held ahead of an empty bottle from his pocket and then went to the closet and got another Bogers was unwilling to say much bottle containing whisky. out his wife's case. "There were three empty glasses on about his wife's case. "There were three empty glasses on "Counsel has told me not to talk." the table. Evidently there had been another party in the apartments, Peirce ter follow advice. I don't want to discuss the future for Sue and me. I'll wait until her trial is over before say-ing anything about that."

The husband has been given an op-portunity to see and talk with his wife, all but a triffe from the glass and I in just the victim of circumstances. "If they let her go I'll never ship, again. I'll settle down ashore and try to make Sue happy. But if they send her to prison, I'll go to sea once more until she is free. I cou'dn't bear to be around and know that she was in mine. But I don't beliave they are prison. But I don't believe they are going to punish her for what was not her fault."

"Boots" Feared Treadway, She Says

the people in the house know we are going out so late. Hurry up, hurry up, he said. HUSBAND EXPECTS BOODTS' 'ACQUITTAL
 Is Anxious for Girl in Peirce Murder Case to Have Her Trial Next Solate. Hurry up, hurry up, hurry up, 'I put on my hat and coat and we went out again. Treadway said he'd go downstairs and wait for me. When I then noticed the steps I met Treadway. I then noticed a big red car. Peirce was in it, and appeared to be intoxicated. He was leaning over the wheel. And then I noticed he was trying to drink out of a bottle. I walked toward the car and Treadway opened the door for me and Treadway opened the door for me and Treadway replied, 'I's this the girl?' Treadway replied, 'Yes, this is my wite.'

Entered Peirce's Room

"It was fully five minutes before

"BOOTS" ROGERS

<sup>d</sup>
<sup>d</sup>
Then he walked out of the courtroom, leaving the flow; and be did. I asked from the same girl fainted as she was a fittle late. The second row. There were found the girl, "Boots" Roops the courtroom, made her the best of all eyes this morning as here the deniged deress and henna straw. Totan were readily recognized.
Court was just about to open, as ta the minutes after 10 o'clock. Judge defined the same of the court to recover various of when the same girl fainted as she was a tittle late. The juror of the deniged the same of the doord warious pawnshops in the same girl fainted as she was defined the same of the doord warious effects when the same girl fainted as she was a to minutes after 10 o'clock. Judge defined the vertice and locked them up to be the same of the same of the doord the ward was and the same of the doord the ward was a same of the doord the same of the doord th eight.

height. Detective "Jimmy" Mulgrew, whose work, with that of Harry Heanley, re-sulted in the arrest of Treadway and the girl in Wheeling on November 24,

"Accompanied by Detectives Heanley and West of the Wheeling department, I went to the Main street address and

The bushand has been given an orp-pretry when here first and here treated as a little lit. Then they purch all but a trifle from the giass and 1 think little bit. Then they purch all but a trifle from the giass and 1 here in the sheriff sroom, and they may be assessed in the bashroom and I refueed. After pretry well to me, but is as sevent of a function of the bashroom treat reging to let me see her again today. The was asked if the had that that. Later being here. Tread-the sheriff sroom, and they are source of the bashroom treat and work that well to the bashroom treat way and said. Toom the key are staring here. Tread-the lawyers, and I don't want to well the bashroom treat the source the bashroom the there for a more staring here. Tread-the had there is no see staring here. Tread-the had there is no see staring here. Tread-stand here a nu see staring here. Tread-stand here a nu see staring here. Tread-stand here any more. When I'm with here we tak about there things. I vant to the room I had beed to the give to the source of the mean vanted. He took standing by the morris chair. As Peires are fore that is no true. The read way sast and is worried, but it is here way to try be way the built is here way to try be way as a as anguing the correst the source of the source the bashroom. The way source the the source the bashroom the correst the source the source the bashroom the source the bashroom the source the source the bashroom the source the bashroom. The way source that source the source there the source the source the source the source there the the table and poured out two drinks and offered Treadway another one and Treadway refused it. Peirce said, 'I'll take one myseif.' and he poured out an-other one and took a drink. "Elliott had a blackjack in one hand and a gun in the other. Peirce said. "Berohy the two women arose hastily and the nit Peirce over the head with a blacklack Leave the corner."

and a gun in the other. Peirce said, 'What does this mean?' Elliott said. Peirce self got dressed and went along." Spelser Wins Point mate issue.

roles was clear and rather high-pitched.
me I think he believed I was going to low resear. He said to me, 'Come on, let's room while a doctor and nurse is a bearing from November 25 to December 6. When counsel tried to bring thout a hearing from November 25 to December 6. When counsel tried to bring thout a hearing from November 25 to December 6. When counsel tried to bring thout a hearing from November 25 to December 6. When counsel tried to bring thou a hearing from November 25 to December 6. When counsel tried to bring thou a hearing from November 25 to December 6. When counsel tried to bring thou a hearing from November 25 to December 6. When counsel tried to bring thou a hearing from November 25 to December 6. When counsel tried to bring the was hearing from November 25 to December 6. When counsel tried to bring the was hearing from November 25 to December 6. When counsel tried to bring the was hearing from November 25 to December 6. When counsel tried to bring the was hearing from November 25 to December 6. When counsel tried to bring the was hearing from November 25 to December 6. When counsel tried to bring the data happened the day, had the prove of the first had appened to had hearen the day, had the prove of the first had begun. In the clerk's room Mrs. Brophy was a string at the defendant objected and was sustained because of the fact that the defendant objected and was sustained because of the fact that the defendant objected and was sustained because of the fact that the defendant objected and that the defendant was not present. '' was him any apartment about that the defendant objected and the side was a granter in the Hamon state as legitly defendent objected and was sustained because of the fact that the day, had the defendant objected and was sustained because of the fact that the defendant objected and was sustained because of the fact that the defendant objected and was sustained because of the fact that the defendant objected to take her upotains the day, had the defendant

THINK GEMS RECOVERED Mrs. F. L. Dixon, Who Lost Them

Called to New York Mrs. Francis L. Dixon, of 4640 Walnut street, whose jewels, valued at $5000, were lest or stolen from her in New York Tuesday, believes they have been recovered, as she was notified to-Washington, March 17.-(By A, P.) -Urgent request that Panama comply "without delay" with arbitral boundary awards made by President Loubet of France and Chief Justice White, of the day by her attorney to come to New York at once. The telegram sammoning her did not state the jewels had been recovered, but it is believed Mrs. Dixon is needed to identify them. Mrs. Dixon offered $500 roward for the recovery of the gems. She had been visiting her cousin, Mrs. Alexander Bilnn, at 1323 East Fifteenth street, Brooklyn, and was on her way to the

It would be difficult to imagine anything more assuring than a car that runs for months and months without as much as a single adjustment-yet Cadillac owners will tell you that, in their case, this is not the exception, but the unvarying rule.

NEEL-CADILLAC COMPANY 142 North Broad Street

"Boots" Tells of Flight "Alarmed, I walked across the room.

'I'll show you what it means.' Peirce then offered Elliott a glass of whisky. Elliott hit Peirce on the arm with a blackjack, knocking the glass out of his sigh, she slumped to the floor. Mrs. Brophy threw her arms about voice was clear and rather high-pitched. No witness who had preceded her talked so distinctly. After she had given her name, her attorney jumped to his feet. "Your honor," he said, "as counsel for this girl. I have told her to tell all she knows about this case, regardless of consequences."
I started for the door, Moss came to me. I think he believed I was going to so distinctly. After she had given her name, her "Your honor," he said, "as counsel for this girl. I have told her to tell all she knows about this case, regardless of consequences."
I started for the door, Moss came to me. I think he believed I was going to scream. He said to me, 'Come on, let's get out of here.' We left, leaving Elliott. Treadway and Peirce in the room, while I went with Moss to a coversation she had with Moss.
Counsel for the defended with Moss.
Mr. Stedare term.

Mrs. Brophy tried to support the girl out of the courtroom. Doctor Is Called The young woman's steps dragged and her knees shook. Suddenly, with a sigh she slummed to the floor.

Clara Hamon sat unmoved under the arraignment of Prosecutor Brown, but Mrs. Jake L. Hamon, the widow, sobbed throughout most of his address to the jury. Brown reviewed the asso-ciation of years between Hamon and the defendant and pictured her as a woman who had crept into the Hamon home and sold herself body and soul.

Prosecutor Assalls Clara

dwelling on the contracts presented at the trial by which the defendant was to be employed by Hamon at $35 a week, and should any child be born of their union it should receive $35 a week and a share in the Hamon estate as legiti-

"Tell what happened the night of Saturday. November 21." "On Saturday night about 10:30 o'clock Treadway nud I came out of the Stanley Theatre. Treadway left me at the theatre and went into a pool-room og Filbert street to see Elliott. From there Treadway and I got news-papers on the corner of Fifteenth and Market streets and went from Fif-teenth and Market streets where we got teenth and Market streets where we got fuil and crackers and a can of some fruit and crackers and a can of honey. From Fifteenth and Chestnut some fruit and crackers and a can of honey. From Fifteenth and Chestnut streets we walked to Fifteenth and Walnut streets and then walked was trying to steal a tire off the back.' straight to 2040 Walnut street, our Treadway thanked him an handed him hand

Treadway Pail Policeman

"As soon as Treadway and I went into the apartment we removed our wraps. We sat down and began to look at the Sunday paper and eating and Spruce streets, where we left El-look at the Sunday paper and eating and Spruce streets, where we left El-the fruit, when Elliott came in with Moss. Moss was intoxicated. He said to Treadway he had been unable to find the number of the apartment as he had forgotten where we lived. He lived. Treadway got out of the car had met Elliott near the poolroom and Elliott had said he would bring him to said to me. You stay in this car.' I did so although I wanted to yet out did so, although I wanted to get out and run away; but I didn't because I

Elliott had said he would bring him to shu to me. The wanted to get out hid so, although I wanted to get out and rün away; but I didn't because I and rün away; but I didn't because I and rün away; but I didn't because I was afraid Treadway was watching me. "They were gone but a short time things on. It's Saturday night and it you don't hurry the cafe will be closed." "They were gone but a short time to go don't drink. Moss said, 'Hurry up and get your things on. It's Saturday night and it you don't hurry the cafe will be closed." "They were going with us 'I said. 'No. I don't want to go. I don't drink. There's no use of me watching you there fellows drink. Besides it's too jate for me to go out." "Treadway Insisted "Treadway said. You must go_ We

"Treadway said. You must go We far as Sixtieth or Sixty-third, where won't go without you." Then Elliont we stopped at a garage and Treadway

Treadway said. For miles go, we wanted to readway is a structure of the section of the properties of the section of t

So we walked to Twenty-first and Mar-ket streets, and as son as we reached the corner and started to walk down Market street we ran into an intoxi-cated fellow in the middle of the block and the fellow seemed to pick on Moss. "There we secured rooms. As soon "There we secured rooms. As soon ket streets, and as son as we reached the corner and started to walk down man's house. He was unable to ac-cated fellow in the middle of the block as Moss was intoxicated. "Moss talked to him and Ellott, "Moss talked to him and Ellott," "Moss talked to him and talked to him and him him him him him hi

"Moss talked to him and Eliott, Treadway and I walked on. Then El-hott went back after Moss. We got as far as Twentith and Market and as we it was."

her husband. "No, I was never married to him." she declared. She was asked how she came to be known my 'lis name. "I don't know," she answered weakly. don't know," she answered "My name is Ruth West. That is my

Says Duffy Has Grudge

She was asked if she had seen Duffy the courtroom, and if that was the cause of her faint. "Where did he go?" she asked quickly. She was told he had left the court-

"I didn't know he was going to be there. I was afraid he might come. He has a grudge against me, and if he can 'do mo dirt' he will." "Do you want to go back to the courtroom?" she was asked. "Yes, I want it in the worst way. But the doctor says I must not go. He says I am not able. I want to go back. I am going to stick to Treadway." girl's eyes filled with tears again. "I've stuck by Treadway a long time," she murmured. Then her eyes flashed as she nadded: "And I'll stick by him to noon declared she was the wife of

Meanwhile the case was progressing showly in the courtroom. While the girl who says she is Trendway's wife was protesting her undying allegiance to him the girl with whom he had been living at the time of the Peirce mur-der. "Boats" Rogers had scored a point which will be useful to her when her own case comes up for trial. the end. Meanwhile the case was progressing Trendway. grove and lived with a man named Shaw, to whom she later was married.

"Boots" was not present to hear the testimony of Daniel R. Smith, the first lived at 2023 McKean street. Followwitness of the day. But a bit of his restimony seemed to bear out her story that she had been taken to Wheeling erine. Catherine is now three years old.

Walnut street." "What is your full name?" "I am Mrs. Marie Rogers." "Do you know Treadway?" "I do. I met Peter D. Treadway in the lat-'Te part of the month (November) we went to the Walnut street address and I lived there one week as Mrs. Fred "Teadway handed me a light-colored "Tell what happened the night of Saturday. November 21." "Tell what happened the night of oil at Sixty-third street." The cross-examination had begun when Detective Heanley remembered there was something he had wished to had been resting on the top of her hat, was dropped down over her face. It was only a slight protection to the stares of the many who were lined against the walls, standing on chairs, sitting on the laps of one another, jamming the room to an uncomfortable de gree.

The cross-examination, when it was resumed, was brief and brought out "Do Your Duty," Brown Asks Mr. Brown delved into biblical and nothing new. Detective William West, of Wheelnothing new. Detective William West, of Wheel-ing, was the next witness. "The only thing I heard Treadway say." he testified, "was that a man by the name of Smith was the one who hit Peirce with a gun given him by Treadway." Fred H. Frazier, chief of police of Wheeling, testified that Treadway had n': Terce with a gun gives nim by Treadway." Fred H. Frazier, chief of police of r Wheeling, testified that Treadway had refused to talk when first brought in. "When he was willing to talk the of-ficers notified me and I sent for Mul-grew and Heanley." "Look your oaths in the face, and do your duty as you swore you would when you came here," Brown told the when you came here," Brown told the jurors. "There is something higher than friendship, and this is duty." Brown asserted that Clara Smith has "alipped in Mrs. Jake Hamon's home like a snake." He pictured the wife of Hamon going to the apart-ments of her husband and Clara Ha-mon. "There she saw the finery of the other women, the like of which Mrs. Duffy Says Boy Married Mrs. Treadway and They Have Child mon. "There she saw the finery of the other woman, the like of which, as Hamon's wife, she never had known," he said. Mrs. Edward Duffy, 2040 McKean street, today corroborated the statement of her son, Edward Duffy, who ap-peared dramatically at the trial of In the course of his argument Brown Peter D. Treadway and claimed as his wife the woman who yesterday after-He asserted that Harry Thaw's acquittal was more responsible than any other one thing for immorality today. "Do you men want to add anothe to Evelyn Thaw's book?' chapter Brown asked.

It was when Brown had finished his scathing arraignment of Clara Hamon that the defense offered to submit Clara Hamon's fate to the jury without argument.

MANY BACHELOR POLICEMEN

Long Hours of Duty Against Happy Home Life, Official Declares

The fact that there are many bachelors on the police force of the city is attributed by Clinton Rogers Wood-ruff, president of the Civil Service Commission, to the long hours of serv-tes which these man accelerations of service which these men are called upon to Phila. Towel Supply Damaged in perform. This expression was made during a public meeting of the com-

Treadway and I walked on. Then El-hot went back after Moss. We got as far as Twentith and Market and as we were about to turn the corner we met perce. At the time I did not know who he was and I do not believe anybody else knew who he was. I walked away. I went back to the apartment and I went back to the apartment apartment apartment apartment apartment apartment apa he was and I do not believe anybody else knew who he was. I waked away, I went back to the apartment and started to read the Sunday papers. "In about fifteen minutes Treadway came in the room and said: 'Marie, put on your things, we're going out in the taxi, and I said to Treadway, 'What car have yeu got?' He said, 'Don't ask so many questions, but do as you're fold. Den't make any noise and let WRIGLEY'S has steadily kept to the pre-war price. And to the same high standard of quality.

No other goody lasts so long -costs so little or does so much for you.

Handy to carry - beneficial in effect — full of flavor a solace and comfort for young and old.

Sealed Tight-Kept Right

UNITED

ROFIT-SHAR

MOTHER BACKS HER SON

"Before she married my son thi

$50,000 LOSS IN FIRE

Callowhill Street Blaze