

SNAPPY VOLKNS in the middle, Alvin, left, and Julian, right, make the ball go in the goal. The team of thousands, here seen in the half past, has won nine. The players are members of Clarkshank.

A NIFTY HALF-DOZEN. Six of the leading athletes of the Castle School, of Tuxedo, N. Y., pose just as they finished basketball practice.

HER SON'S BODY IS HOME. Mrs. Rains, of the Bronx, New York, standing beside the casket of her son, Corporal Rains, who lost his life in France while a member of Company D, 106th Infantry. The picture was taken at a pier in Hoboken.

TWO BUSY METHODISTS. The Rev. R. E. Johnson, the raiding parson, and Dr. Charles M. Boswell, the conference song leader, have a happy time at the Wharton Memorial Church, Fifty-fourth and Catharine streets.

Ledger Photo Service.

THE ZEBU FAMILY. One of the interesting groups found at the Philadelphia Zoo. The baby comes eight months old.

WILLIAM C. TOLMAN, who discusses in an editorial page interview the building of a city directory.

MOVING CHICKEN HOUSE STATUES. One of the eight statues which have decorated the roof and facade of the Protestant Episcopal Building at Twelfth and Walnut streets. They will be distributed to parishes in the diocese.

STILLMAN AND HIS SON. James A. Stillman, the New York banker, and his son James. The banker's divorce suit against his wife is attracting much attention.

MISS ANNE STILLMAN, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James A. Stillman, declares she will stick to her mother, no matter what the courts decide.

International.

THE ALL-AMERICAN GIRL. The girls in the band, shown here, are the All-American girls. From left to right, and across the front, are: Sophie, second row; J. H. Smith, third row; W. W. Smith, fourth row; W. S. Smith, fifth row.

SOUL FIESTA YESTERDAY. Clara Smith Hamon, who found her family by a fire in Ardmore, Oklahoma, in charge of buying furniture. Duke L. Hamon, Elsie's brother, is a furniture salesman.

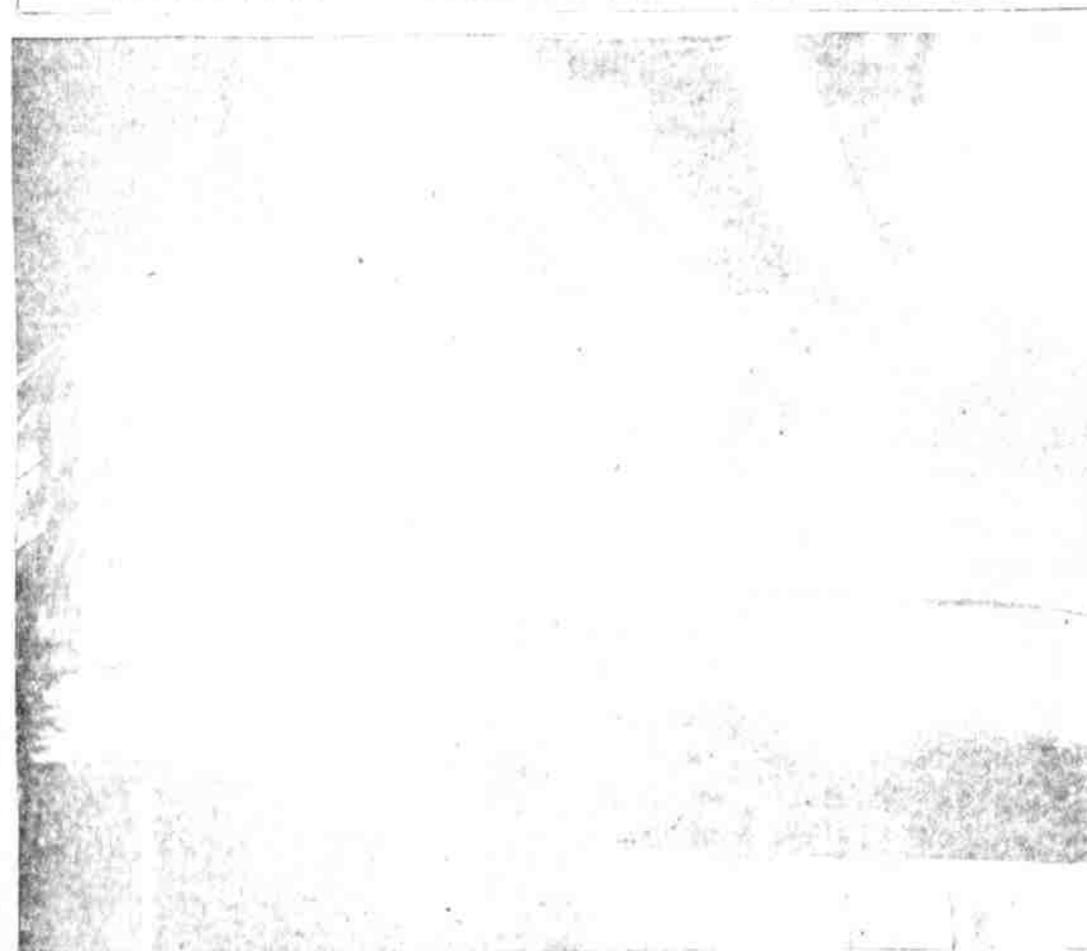

SCANDAL OF HIGHLAND PARK. The musical play was given for the benefit of the Highland Park fire company by a score of the younger folk of that section. Margaret Farnsworth represented China, while Geraldine Eirick appeared as America.

RUDOLPH W. HAWKS, coxswain of the junior eight of the Malta Boat Club.

Long-Island Photo Service.

WHAT THEY ARE AND WHAT THEY DO

OSCAR MARSHALL and his band, shown here, are the new members of the band of the Philadelphia Police Department.

PROMISING ATHLETE. George H. Lee, on picture, is the Show Me State Promising Athlete. He will represent the state in the high jump competition.

RESERVE PATROLMAN JOSEPH E. DENNING of Broad and Chestnut streets. He is 37 years old and has two children. Denning has won many prizes for running at police carnivals.

HOW I CURVE IT. Chief Bender is still a slinger in getting the Penn baseball team in condition.

MISS MILDRED TRUPIN 1347 Bainbridge street, Philadelphia.

SEMAPHORE SENTINELS

SEMAPHORE SENTINELS are the two men in uniform, shown here, who stand on the roof of the State Normal School, Philadelphia. They will represent the school in the high jump competition.

SEMAPHORE SENTINELS are the two men in uniform, shown here, who stand on the roof of the State Normal School, Philadelphia. They will represent the school in the high jump competition.

SEMAPHORE SENTINELS are the two men in uniform, shown here, who stand on the roof of the State Normal School, Philadelphia. They will represent the school in the high jump competition.