MRS. WILSON'S DICTIONARY HAS FACTS ABOUT FOODS

Which Will Be New to the Average Person—Chow-Chow Once a Chinese Dish-Important Difference Between Chocolate and Cocoa

Chives or cives-A plant belonging to the onion family, growing in champs; minute species of onlon family used for garnishing salads, in souper, stews, gou-lashes, etc. Has a distinctive and deli-

Chowder—A seaconst stew made of occa beans—a drink is made by steepmen foods, onion, pork and hard water ing these nibs in water and then boilbiscuits, now popular in every zone. Ing it; it is served similar to coffee.

The New England communities are proud of their chowders and chowder the bean and used for cheap beverages. parties. The word chowder is an adaptation from chandlere—a large family or oil expressed from the cocon hears, stew pot or kettle, used by the seasured by the medical profession and in coast folk of France, who make a similar concoction under the name of bouille. Coconut—The fruit of the coconut manages, raisins, ginger, lemons, tun-garinds, garlie and other spices.

Cider—The expressed juice of appies, by pressing the ment of the coconut, neually bottled and sterilized to prevent. Copen, the dried ment of the coconut.

branches of the cinnamon tree. This this oil is used extensively in cosmet-bark is out and during the process of curing curls into quills. This fragrant substitutes, namely nut butters.

By MRS. M. A. WILSON

Convergite, 1321, by Mrs. M. A. Wilson,
All rights reserved.)

CHITTERLINGS—made from intestines. Famous dish of the pioneers of the early sixties.

Cloves—Spice from tropical countries used in cooking and medicine.

Cocos—This word is a corruption of a Spanish word—cacao—meaning the food of the gods. The cocoa bean or seeds are found in pods of varying size, from six to this team inches long and from six to thirteen inches long and from two to three and one-half inches in diameter. This tree has many curious characteristics—one is that the cocoa pods grow abundantly upon the older branches and trunk of the tree and usucate onion flavoring all its own.

Chop Suev—A thick stew made from chicken, pork and other mest with bamboo shoots, mushrooms, rice, etc. This dish is typical of the Chinese restaurants of the country.

Chow-chow—A condiment of mixed pickles, onion, candiflower, etc., in a mustard dressing. This originally signification is strup with spices containing ginger, orange, lemon, citron and other feuits.

Chowder—A seacoast stew made of Cocon nibs—The cracked shell of the cocoa heans—a drink is made by steep—basse.

Charles—An Indian and Oriental trivation; the fruit of the coconic pulm; this tree grows wild without cultivation; the fruit is well known and condiment, sweet spiced pickle. Many needs no explanation. The dried and old formulas for this delivacy call for shredded product is to be found in every mentation.

Cinnamon—The bark of the young 'sles, Ceylon and East Indian trade because it warms the human heart, which in drawing inspiration from, or extending appreciation and congratulations for a victory over poverty, ignorance, prejudic, and other handicaps, draws no color line—and, second, because in its larger and more general aspects, it gives a true posture of America, furnishes a refutation of the fallacious plaint that the day of opportunity in America is passed.

Your Soul's in Your Hand By IRVING R. BACON

Crosses, Crossours and Dots on Lair Late heart line to endicate the nature of the life has a trouble. CVIII

The defects of the life line investofore *Pokers of related to defects in second in the line tree! Crosses, cross-bars and dots are adventitious defects. The air ference may be illustrated by any parison with the heart, in which the organic and functional troubles are regarded in the same may us the troubles indicated by this, chance, shallow, etc., lines; where as a blow, a wound, etc., corresponds to

And in noth instances the results also correspond. For a noverful flow in the region of the heart causes the same kind of functional derangement as is caused by internal impairment of the mechanism itself; and so, likewise do a cross and a cross-bar indicate just as mischievous a result upon one's health from causes not related directly to health itseif, as if they came from causes shown the crosses, cross-bars, dots, etc., on the

(To be Continued)

The Question Corner Today's Inquiries

what inversel was any When the riggs of a title? Cower or leaf, held to trink a winter hat

Vesterday's Answers

the strands had been well sim-

 When the bligged of off a signe tin has broken off the mijorting of a worden knob in the top will and. White kitcher curtains can be prevented from soiling quickly across the bottom if an attractive dge of brewn is painted on them of bright blue, a little deeper than

Alice blue, A dark blue sornlice dress of orepe de chine has a collar, lapel and sash ends of deep crimson

IT'S ALMOST EASTERTIME

that's all."

Frames could rejort, the lights and both girls settled back in ats to walt for the number that ring Mildred on then Mildred came on the stagdiene and granes in the ability to avicople. And she had it too, only exemed to be slipping from her within dred had her power more considered in our before. Marriage had not stilled Millired. sang a charming French thing, ers light lyric seprane. Milited wing with all her contains there was that Frances caught Warn's abe wonderful's spered to Elste She w

Some women have no scruples whatever about "washing family linen in public. Every detail of domestic life is consided to any one who will listen; every fault of a relative with whom the nerated and families disorganized, for the woman so disloyal to her own is a to be trusted to confine herself to touch, and the listener who repeats t trath, and the listener who repeats t The englighment type of bore should be lenced, if peacible, with the intimation at her public confidences are neither treast up for wholesome. Those of us to have no taste for the rattling of living or dead, need not hesitate to

"At Cupid's Call"

Many I new overcame her distrust of the man she thought had deceived her by making love to her when he was already engaged to some one cise, and found that love was stronger than suspicion, fear or treachery. Her heart remained true to Dick Callardia after that, in spite of over attempt of her rital and Dick's enemies to commute and role them.

The First Installment of

May Christie's Thrilling New Story of the adventures of this charming young stenographer and her handsome lover from the backwoods will appear

On Monday Evening on the Woman's Page " Gering Public Tedger

Please Tell Me What to Do

By CYNTHIA

To "G. S." Cynthia does not bring about intro-ductions between writers to the column

To "Je Suis Perdu' Try writing a third letter if you can find no opportunity of meeting and ank if you may call. She can introduce you to her parents.

A Walk Better Than Dancing Dear Cynthis—I read your column every night and I have a good laugh at some little lovers and dancers.

Will you please let "Wondering" knew that I don't dance and do not like dancing? A good walk in the country alone is better than a dance any time.

LA MORT.

"Danny" Finds Real Love "Danny" Finds Real Love
Dear Cynthia—Here I am again, "Dan B." wants to know what became of me and how I made out. Well, "Dan B." and all those who are interested, listen I I once wanted to know what love is and how you know you are in love.
I was engaged to a young man en
New Year's eve and I didn't love him.
I hated him because he wasn't like the one I thought I did love. The one I thought I loved had big blue eyes and light hair, was a wonderful dresser and had lots of money. The one I am engaged to is fairlooking, a neat dresser and has enough to make me comfortable. I now realize what love is and that I now realize what love is and that there is a thing like love, but the girls of today don't know what love is and never will know.

When a fellow is handsome, a nifty dresser and has lots of money they love him and that is why we have divorce cases, Now I heard a saying once "that a jar of peaches can't always be full." That's the way with the fellows with money. Listen, "Worried," take a fool's advice and make up your mind that you love your friend and you shall be happy. I did and I am. DANNY.

How to Entertain Caller

How to Entertain Caller

Dear Cynthia—I have read your Please Tell Me What to Do" column and have now decided to ask you a question. I had a friend write me an apology for his absence at my party and he asked me in that letter if he might call. Now, mother is perfectly willing for him to come to the house, so will you please tell me what to arrange for our entertainment as this boy and myself do not dance or go to the movies?

A young man who asks if he may call on a girl does not expect to spend the evening dancing or going to movies. Do you mean to say that you cannot entertain a young man conversationally for

To the Editor of Woman's Page:
Dear Madam—I am a frequent reader of your helpful column. I am a girl of fifteen and have a fair complexion, but what spoils me is my eyes. They have a grayish color, but aren't large. What will make them look larger without using cosmetics? ing cosmetics?
DOUBTFUL BOBBIE.

The fact that your eyes are not large surely cannot "spoil" you. I am afraid I can't find a way for you to make them look larger, but truly the expression of the eyes has a great deal to do with their beauty. If people see in them a pleasant, interested regard, they will, more times than not, be warmed and chiesred by this and somehow find them-solves liking these small, twinkly eyes just as much as larger ones.

Cocoa Butter

To the Editor of Woman's Page:
Dear Madam—Could you give me come information about cocoa butter? from I make it or do you recommend any place to buy it? MRS, M. T.

It would really be as cheap to purchase coca butter as to make it your self, for you can get some at any drug store for a small sum. And when you add up the cost of the ingredients you would have to get to prepare it at home it would note than likely arount to t would more than likely amount to the same thing.

When Baby Is Christened

To the Editor of Woman's Page:
Dear Madam—Being a stranger in the country, I am taking the liberty of writing to you for your advice.
Will you please tell me how I should will you please tell me how I should trrange a christening party? I have lever attended one over here and am at loss as to what I should do.

I have a friend who will act as godnother. I also have my mother. Will here two be enough to attend the hurch (Episcopal) for baby? Her father a in the pavy and is serving in foreign. in the navy and is serving in foreign aters at present. How should I invite e guests? MRS. E. D. M. guests? MRS. E. D. M.
he guests at a christening are tys invited by the mother of the in an informal manner. It is not sawry to ask them to your home the ceremony is over; but if you t do this I am sure they would be chied to come and have a cup of with your th you.
Luxually the custom for the little It is usually the custom for the little girl to lave two godimothers and a god-father. So your mother and your friend can each be a godinother, while perhaps you have some relative or an old friend who can act as godfather. The prayer book will make you familiar with the christening ceremony, so that you may know when to make the responses, and the rector of your church will be glad to advise you should you be uncertain about anything.

By CORINNE LOWE

For these charming dance freeks

Exchange

The Right Kind to Use

The Right Kind to Use

To the Editor of Woman's Page:

Dear Madam—A few nights ago you advised a correspondent to make a chin strap of rubber to correct a small double chin. Will you please tell me what kind of rubber you mean? Is it covered rubber or elastic or rubber to worsted. Applique the smaller circle any pretty dark color and the lanking of making one. C. P.

In making the chin strap I would advised a denissit, but is capable of being held quite firmly in place, and so it is fine for the purpose.

What Really Counts

To the Editor of Woman's Page:

One would hardly think it possible to make such is the landscape she stood at the window gazing at the white ribon for oad which wound down the other side of the hill, when suddenly inches in diameter. Dye the outer clircle eighteen inches and one eight mother to correct a small double chin. Will you please tell me what kind of rubber you mean? Is it covered rubber or elastic or rubber tissue, such as dentists use? My mother to use the rubber issue, such as dentists use? My mother to use the rubber tissue, which dentists employ. This is thinking of making one. C. P.

In making the chin strap I would advise your mother to use the rubber tissue which dentists employ. This is tight and elastic, but is capable of being held quite firmly in place, and so it is fine for the purpose.

What Really Counts

To the Editor of Woman's Page:

One would hardly think it possible to make such charming cushions from one in this way. It can be done in

ASCO

TODAY'S DRESS COPIES MOTHER CAN'T REMEMBER MAKE OF OLDEN DAYS THAT HER SON HAS GROWN U

And She Frequently Embarrasses, Him by Treating Him L. a Little Boy Before People Who Think He Is a Responsible Person

the car.

He recovered himself with a sickly He recovered himself with a sickly smile.

It's rather embarrassing to be talked to like a little boy when you're a grown man, easily forty, known to the other commuters as one of the Greenvale crowd on the 8:15 and generally considered a responsible person.

But mothers sometimes forget that their little boys are not little boys in the eyes of the world.

the eyes of the world.

And they remember that, no matter what those little boys become in the eyes of the world, they never grow up in this matter of remembering to retail out to you when you're going with a lot of fellows, and tell you to keep your scarf folded of the world. THE dignified vestryman of the A church came out of the parish house one Sunday to escort his mother through one Sunday to escort his mother through the improvements that were being built. He had been attending a meeting and his suggestions had been received with due respect and consideration.

But it was a damp, cold day, and he came out of the warm room without overcoat or hat.

"Mercy, child!" exclaimed the mother of the vestryman, as she looked him over. "Don't come out here like that, over. "Don't come out here like that, over. "That is probably the reason to mother never gets used to the fact."

taffeta, organdy and net are the favored materials. And again we have that delightful combination of the taffeta bodice with skirt of organdy or net.

Overcoat a "Mercy, child!" exclaimed the mother of the vestryman, as she looked him over. "Don't come out here like that, go get some rubbers on, and put something around your shoulders. It's dreadfully cold and damp, and you've the is no longer a little boy who have dreadfully cold and damp, and you've take care of himself.

SHE got up to leave the train and laid an affectionate hand on the arm of the man who was with her.

"Good-by, dear." she said. "I hope you have a good time. Remember me to Mrs. Jones."

He nodded in the absent way in which sons have nodded at such a message from the beginning of the world.

His mother recognized the look.

"Now, don't forget it!" she exclaimed sharply, as she hurried out of the car.

"HE DOESN'T mind it so much who HE DOESN'T mind it so much we he is a grown man, because sure to keep your scarf folded your chest, just as if you were a ki That is one time when mother re ought to realize that her little boy

ASCO ASCO

Why Mother Stopped

ASCO ASCO ASCO

Many mothers who had been doing their own baking for years stopped at once when the Victor Loaf was first introduced, because it proved to be the equal of the best homemade, and just as economical. Why spend long, arduous hours in baking when the Victor Loaf fills every requirement of good bread?

Mothers who are using it recognize in Victor Bread the homemade quality that they -wise, far-seeing guardians that they areknow is necessary for the proper development of growing children.

-children thrive on it

Buy Victor Bread Today for over Sunday. It stays fresh! "Asco" Stores all over Phila, and throughout Penna., New Jersey, Delaware and Maryland

ASCO ASCO ASCO ASCO