Just One More Week to Get the Fine New Easter Clothing

That Great Democrat, Champ Clark, Who So Well Stood For

the honest, old-fashioned Americanism, is said to have spoken these last words: "The question is on the adoption of the conference report."

True to the responsibility to which he had been called, he endeavored to fulfill to the last the obligation resting upon his heart.

Happy is that man who chooses his life work carefully and stands by it faithfully to the end. There are many men living who tower far above their parties, professions and business.

[Signed] John Wanamaker

March 19, 1921.

Prayer Books and Hymnals for Easter Gifts

MORE of those much-liked crepe de chine nightgowns for women are here—all pink, of course. At $5 there is a style with built-up shoulders mostly of lace; at $6.85 there are three styles with much lace and shirring, and at $8.75 is a square-necked style with really elaborate lace decoration. They are all in the Little Nightgown Shop.

(Third Floor, Central)

SMART, NEW, SHORT FRENCH KID GLOVES

If her frock or her new suit has long sleeves, then she will like short French gloves like these to wear with them.

In black, white, tan or mode are short gloves, pique sewn and $3 a pair.

And a little more elaborate are the gloves in black, white, brown, beaver or mode with contrasting welts and embroidery to harmonize, at $3.50 a pair.

(Main Floor, Central)

Other novelty chains in much the same style, with fine fringes of silver which dangle, pendant-like, also make pretty bracelets and are $3.50 and $4.50.

(Jewelry Store, Chestnut)

LOVELY FRENCH FLOWERS FOR DRESS TRIMMINGS

Prices start at 65c for the flowers by the yard, and go to $35 a yard.

Separate flowers—and these are perfectly beautiful—begin at $2 and go to $5 each.

New Crepe de Chine Blouses Are Most Charming

Just within the past month the fashion for them has become very pronounced and some of the newest and prettiest of the Easter blouses are made up in this material.

They are all made to be worn over the skirt and, of course, the sleeves are short. One lovely new model has self-colored embroidery, done in heavy thread. It has a square collarless neck and is $9.85.

Another, a copy of a French blouse, has almost the entire front tucked. The collar is Peter Pan shape. This is $13.85.

And there are any number of equally pretty models in crepe de chine, in white, bisque, gray and some other colors between $9.85 and $20.

Women's Beautiful Cloth Frocks for the Street

The fine things which fashionable women are buying to wear without coats as soon as it is warm enough. They are usually of the chemise type, often very simply and severely made, often very rich and delightful.

The materials are Poiret twill, gabardine and tricotine, and the colors are navy, black, gray, castor and beaver; in every case the color and quality are of the finest.

The tailored dresses

(First Floor, Central)

are usually braid bound and button trimmed; the more elaborate styles have beads, silk embroidery, eyelet work—this sometimes permits the contrasting color of a slip to show through—soft sashes, hundreds of tiny buttons set on in a design, vertical bands of embroidery in contrasting colors, foulard trimmings—all sorts of charming features.

All these are novelty costumes and their prices are $65 to $225.

The Tuxedo Front Appears on Many New Wraps

Sports coats had it first, but it was so pretty and so much in accord with the new long straight lines that now the finest Spring coats have adopted it.

There are some beautiful black satin coats with the Tuxedo front at $57.50. And there are a number of other materials that show it, including silk-and-wool duvetyne and tricotine.

(First Floor, Central)

The loveliest Spring wrap of all with this style front is a fine wool tricotine in navy blue with the long facing of gray caracul. This is $265.

Those Famous Satin Skirts at $10

The fifth shipment of these baronet satin skirts—and mighty welcome it is. The skirts are all of the one good quality, and all made on one model—a good straight one, with slashed vertical pockets, gathered waists and tailored belts. The colors are white, pink, navy, violet and gray.

Tweeds Are Very Fashionable for the Sports Suit

And some of the new mixed tweed suitings are especially good for this purpose, and for the hats to go with such suits.

They are all-wool, heavy enough to tailor well and the colors verge on tan, greenish and brown effects, mostly with flecks of color. Some have an over-plaid. The width is 54 inches and the price $2.25 a yard.

(First Floor, Chestnut)

A LITTLE showing of many delightful accessories in

Ostrich Leather

Two years ago we introduced the first lot of wallets and pocketbooks of ostrich leather. It was a new thing then and nobody knew how it would wear. But time has shown that ostrich leather is not only durable, but becomes softer and mellower with use.

It is very beautiful and unusual. The color is a rich brown with a stippling of darker shade where the quills were. In texture it is soft and pliable.

In one of the cases in the Leather Goods Store is an interesting collection of articles made of this fine leather.

There are

- Handbags
- Purses
- Jewel cases
- Portfolios
- Fitted overnight cases
- Wallets
- Cigar cases
- Cigarette cases
- Card cases
- Military brush cases

Some of the pieces are mounted in 14 kt. gold and the overnight cases are fitted with tortoise shell finish celluloid, which makes an extremely effective combination.

Prices range from $4 for a purse, in styles for men or women, to $55 for a woman's fitted overnight case.

A Grand Piano! —everybody's wish

Musically and artistically, the grand piano is the best of pianofortes. Its horizontal strings produce a better tone. The rounded lines of the low case are more pleasing, more in keeping with the fineness of music, than the high straight form of the upright.

The collection of grand pianos in the Wanamaker Piano Salons—

- CHICKERING
- KNABE
- SCHOMACKER
- EMERSON
- LINDEMAN
- BRAMBACH

is not approached by any other house in America. The last named is the smallest of all grand pianos—4 ft. 8 in. long, taking up in the corner of the living room no more space than an upright.

Paper pattern of this small grand will be sent you on request, so that you may lay it on the floor and decide upon the most convenient location for the grand.

Upright Pianos Accepted in Part Payment

We will take your upright piano, at fair current valuation, in part payment for a new grand piano.

Special Disposal

We have forty used pianos, player-pianos and grand pianos which we will dispose of at greatly lowered prices, ranging from $125 upward.

All these instruments have been put in first class condition at the Schomacker factory, and despite their lowered prices they may be bought on convenient terms.
