

OUT IN A ROLLING CHAIR. Mrs. Victor C. Mather on the Boardwalk during the afternoon, when the sun was much enjoyed.

THREE PHILADELPHIANS. Miss Lucie G. Shreve, Miss Mary Ward and Miss Dorothy Kirky (left to right) on their way to the Inlet. They are living in Atlantic City for the present.

ALL IN WHITE. This young woman attracted much attention on the Boardwalk in her spring attire.

OUT FOR A STROLL. Miss Blanche West (left) and Mrs. M. A. Elkins were busy chatting when photographed.

FAMILY REUNION. Miss Virginia Anderton, of Phila. Chas. E. Anderton, Jr., N. Y., and Mrs. Chas. E. Anderton, Sr., Milwaukee. They were having a good time.

AMONG THE THOUSANDS WHO ENJOYED THE BEAUTIFUL PALM SUNDAY WEATHER, AT ATLANTIC CITY

NOT A MOVING PICTURE OPERATOR. She is Miss Dorothy Fields, daughter of Lew Fields, as she departs for Europe.

JOHNNY GRAY WINS ONCE MORE. The fleet-footed athlete who represented the Enterprise Club, followed by officials in an automobile during the C. Y. M. A. U. meet. The other runner is being helped by friends as he finished.

LEAVING THE CATHEDRAL. Anna Doyle, Elizabeth Loser and Mary O'Neil (left to right) going through Logan Square, carrying their palm, yesterday morning.

POSED WITH HER PALM. Agnes C. Loud was met in Rittenhouse Square as she was on her way from church.

SHE'S A COUSIN OF GENERAL PERSHING. Miss Marcella Pershing, who is appearing in motion pictures.

ASSISTANT SECRETARY OF LABOR. Edward J. Henning, of San Diego, California, has just been appointed.

DREXEL-BIDDLE BIBLE CLASS ACTS AS LIM'RICK JURY. The class, which is known as No. 5, meets at the Presbyterian Church of the Evangel, Eighteenth and Tasker streets. They gave a dinner last week and the whole crowd voted on the lim'rick, the prize for which is awarded today. The photograph shows a section of the crowd.

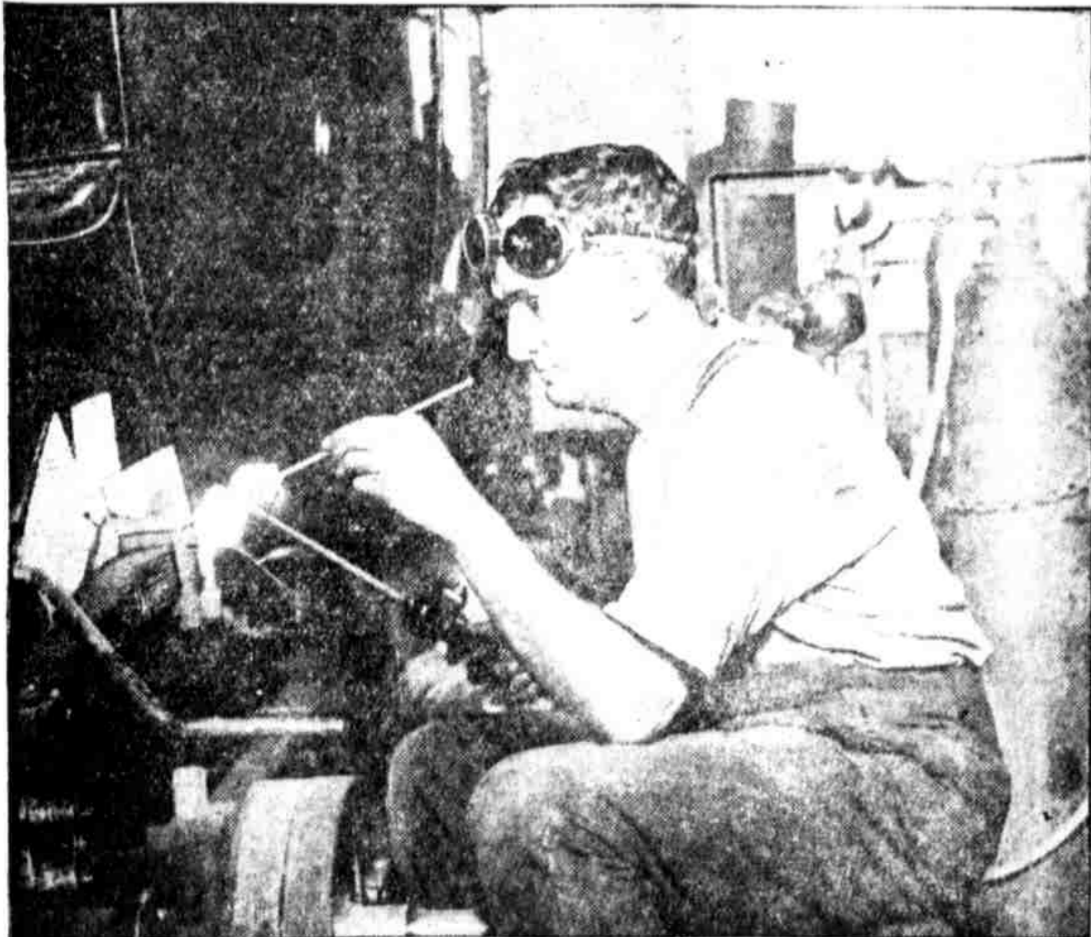

MISS CORA ELSIE KINZIE talks on teaching the deaf to "hear" by lip reading in an Editorial Page interview.

HOHLFELD TEAM WON. There was plenty of action in the soccer contest between the Hohlfeld eleven and the men representing N. Snellenburg & Co., at Broad street and Allegheny avenue.

OUR CITY'S WORKERS AND WHAT THEY DO

E. J. BERRY, 4501 Chestnut street, braiding an automobile spring at the service station of the Detroit Electric Car Co., 2029 Market street.

BEWARE, CAPTAIN McNICHOL! The girls of Penn are playing a fast game. Two captains, Miss Rumpff (left) and Miss Champion, at the Kingseasing recreation center.

SEMAPHORE SENTINELS

RESERVE PATROLMAN FREDERICK L. BOYNTON for a year has been stationed at the Parkway and Filbert street.

THE BEAUTY CORNER

MISS GERTRUDE FELDMAN, 2129 North Camac street, Philadelphia.

GATHERING METHODIST MAIL

GODFREY KRAUS collecting at the Wharton Memorial M. E. Church, where the Methodist Episcopal conference is being held.