MILLS TO REPRESENT CITY

By a Staff Correspondent Harrisburg, March 22. - Representative Sowers, of Dave Lane's Twentieth is not a main part of their business, ward in Philadelphia, brought up his underworld bills for air and will give them a public hearing today.

The bills provide that prisoners arrested without warrant and on view serving in the district in which the ar-rests are made, and also penalize po-licemen if they fail to take prisoners to the nearest station house.

Mayor Moore and city administra tion leaders hold that the bills are des ignated to see that prisoners arrested in raids are baled before so-called friendly magistrates, whereas the Phila delphia police have been sending such prisoners to the City Hall.

It is generally believed the bills are dead, as the leaders of the job combine who have had their ear to the ground. have repudiated them.

Mr. Sowers blandly insisted today. however, that all opposition had 'van-ished,' and that as a 'courtesy to the Mayor,' he had decided to have a hearing before rushing them to final pass
