Letters to the Editor

Praises Editorial
To the Editor of the Evening Public Ledger:
Sir—Your little editorial on St. Patrick's Day was so human and so humane and so Christian that it did not seem possible to me that it was printed in a Philadelphia paper.

Real Philadelphia Girls
To the Editor of the Evening Public Ledger:
Sir—Being a daily reader of the Evening Public Ledger I take great pleasure in reading the letters that are published daily in the People's Forum from different young ladies and men, and the more I read about the same subject, viz.: "I know a young man, but he doesn't care for me because I am a small-timer," and another, "I know a young lady, but she is a big-timer and I don't care for her type."

True Women
To the Editor of the Evening Public Ledger:
Sir—I would like to know if there is a girl who is a small-timer and big-timer, or when is a girl a big-timer? I have never heard the expression until I came to Philadelphia.

Questions Answered
Rural Free Delivery
To the Editor of the Evening Public Ledger:
Sir—Who first introduced the rural free delivery into our country?

Blind Beggar Was Sister
To the Editor of the Evening Public Ledger:
Sir—Here is an answer to the problem submitted by W. Keller as follows: A blind beggar had a brother.

Relief in Ireland
To the Editor of the Evening Public Ledger:
Sir—The conditions which have led to a campaign for funds for the relief of the Irish people have been so shocking as any the American people have known upon to occur since 1914.

Wants Public Expression
To the Editor of the Evening Public Ledger:
Sir—I am intending to write a special feature article which is to deal with the hat in the presence of a woman and the like.

In Praise of Ex-President Wilson
To the Editor of the Evening Public Ledger:
Sir—Only a few weeks ago a gentle breeze from Ohio rode a thousand cheering citizens from his temporary headquarters at the Willard Hotel, in Washington, out to Pennsylvania avenue to White House.
