By the Associated Press Toklo, March 22. -- Growing apprehension among the Japanese because of unfavorable criticism of Japan abroad is believed to have been the reason for the founding of the new international peace association here yesterday by 300 prominent Japanese, who included the foreign minister, Viscount Uchida, and Viscount Takaaki Kato, leader of the Kensei-Kai, or Opposition party.

The principal object of the society was described by its spokesmen as being udice against Japan in foreign lands, and in Japan against other nationals. The imperative necessity of promoting a happier relationship between Japan and the United States, and between Japan and China, was especially pointed out, and to achieve these ends the association will send representatives. the association will send representatives Viscount Kato and Takeshi Inukai,
