HISTRALIAN GOLF CHAMPION HERE: IS

H. Kirkwood, Holding Two crowns, Sent by Countrymen After Three National Titles

ENTERED IN BRITISH. FRENCH AND U. S. OPEN

By SANDY MeNIBLICK

re the custom to place leaving his country in search would have been so banked floral tribute that he wouldn't e been non-lever has a golfer left home to battle a championship with more well nan of Australian golf. champion of Australia and New Kirkwood is in Philadelphia today on way to compete in three national they cheered. By way of preliminary the championship of the April 12 he sails for Scotland on Beitain, and then enter the lists fter that he comes back to America. s likely to be seen at Pine Valley ame week in Philadelphia open and Australia. of the lesser tournaments.

e championships of the na-filled his pockets with gold on him god-speed, firm in the be-might expect him to admit that confidence was not mis-He has burned up his home configration, and no one en near him there. confidence of youth. Yester-his twenty-fourth birthday, Kirkwood himself echoes none ssertions of his compatriots. He the essence of modesty.

They told me I would win, and sent smiled the champion from Intoday. "Naturally, I land today

The main thing I expect to Australian golfers. They are will finish among the first Andrews, and thinking he'll They are sure he'll win and American titles. rkwood is a landsome, strongly-player, who has no "best shot" use they say each of his shots strong as the other, Few will out-him. naster at the second shot and They further best in a pinch, that he mocked the gallery gogglecourse

Hoppe Racks Cue After Unfinished Run of 500

Detroit, March 23 .- Willie Hoppe, champion backline billiardist, made an unfinished run of 500 points in an exhibition match with Charles Peterson, of St. Houis, here yesterday afternoop. He passed the 300 mark with sails set. When he reached the 500 mark, he declared it an afternoon's work and laid his one on the table. As a matter of fact he could have marked the position of the balls and continued the run in the evening. He decided against that, however, declaring that he was tired playing and there was no use of continuing This is the highest run ever made in young Kirkwood did not get his chance at the championship of his native land till last year, when he just moved them down with a total of 200 and later this city at 18,2 balkline.

The pros of Australia are rated. Kirkwood breezes by with plus 8. He so outclasses his fields that now they have sent him these thousands of miles, paid all his expenses, thinking, believing, yes, knowing he'll one day be the champion of the world.

In three successive rounds he had countrymen as has Australian golf.

of Australia and New think this year he had 68-68 for 36 holes.

Red Shannon will continue and Mack believes that the changes will add the necessary make the Athletics a winner. Back home there they think The first round he had under 70 was LOCAL CHESS EXPERTS

"Even 4's all the time, now. Joe." "All right." he grinned, and called his shots his next round. He had twelve fours and six threes. Beat that! At San Francisco the first day off ship he had a 75 and the next a Aquitania. He will compete at St. 72. He improves, you see, as he gets All this data was given by his mana-

For Kirkwood has a managermanager exactly, but a golfer, J. Victor East, who is chief advisor and so forth this young golfing prodigy of

"I don't expect to do much at Pine-urst." said Kirkwood. "I understand hurst. been seen outside his own country the golf there is different from the ordinary. It's just a trial. But I am used to the championships of the native land his prockets with gold. it'll be my first really great test, and that may bother me. Kirkwood will return to Australia.

ut expects to take a pro berth in America next year.

Besides his scoring. Kirkwood has amused himself by developing a va-riety of trick shots. He has a display which takes an bour and a half. He has driven hundreds of balls off his watch more than 225 yards. drives off his partner's toe the same and from under his foot.

He's ambidextrous, plays just well from the left side as the rig fact, left-handed he will take right-handed club, playing it down, and drive 'em a mile, they say. He tees three balls one on top of the other and drives any one of them as fa as you want. He can hit a full mashie so straight up in the air that he catche it without moving. He does stymie jumps that make 'em all whistle. And the Australians claim; he Dr. Fowler Addresses Members of Adelphi Angling Club

TALKS ABOUT FISH

In an address before the Adelphi ery occasion, that he's a Angling Club last night, Dr. Henry W. was not a one-sided contest. Time a cool, even temperament. Fowler, curator of fish and reptiles at and again, especially in the last round. is a combination hard to the Academy of Natural Sciences, gave the battlers stood toe to toe and ex-some interesting information concern-changed punches. Welling's eye was

d the gallery goggle-over a championship He remarked that the sturgeon, noted record for a fast being exterminated. like to hear The reach and fall fish are distinctive Pennsylvania specimens, Dr. Fowler von, a 72-holer, by said. They are dark and light in comwashy margin of 20 up plexion, depending on the locality in another mark you can which they are found. The creek chub silver fin and ref fish also are plentifu

CHANGES MADE IN LINE-UP OF THE A'S

Brazill to Play First, Witt in Left and Shannon at Short

TACKLE ATLANTA TODAY

Lake Charles, La., March 23.-Connie Mack will try a new combination this afternoon when the first team of the Athletics meets the Atlanta team, of the Southern Association. Frank Brazill's terrific batting has him a place on the first team, and he will be seen guarding the initial sack against Atlanta. In place of Tilly Walker, Lawton Witt will be in left. Walker is not in the best of shape and has been batting away below his standard. Usually a hard hitter, Tilly has batted ,200 this

Red Shannon will continue at short. and Mack believes that these three changes will add the necessary punch to

WIN TELEGRAPH MATCH

Philadelphia A. T. and T. Team Defeats Boston, 4 Games to 1

A chess match between two teams representing the American Telephone Palmer, Young Tobins and Benny Bass, and Telegraph in Boston and Philadelphia resulted in a victory for the Philadelph and Telegraph in Boston and Philadelphia resulted in a victory for the Philadelphia team by the score of 4 to 1. The games were played last night in the offices of the company in the respective cities. The moves were made known by telegraph. The match was referred by S. S. Williamson, of the Franklin Philadelphia captured the first four atches. The fifth was won by M. alvoni, of the Boston team. He dematches. feated J. D. Begley. Results of the games follow:

BOARD 1-RUY LOPEZ McIntyre, Philadelphia, 1; C. Joe eston, 0. BOARD 2-FOUR KNIGHTS DEFENSE BOARD 3-QUEEN'S PAWN

F. C. Koelle, Philadelphia, 1; P. Keene BOARD 4-SCOTCH DEFENSE

BOARD 5-RUY LOPEZ alvoni, Boston, 1: J. D. Begley, Phila-

FOX WINS IN GREAT

Lightweights Stage Sensational Scrap at Auditorium Club

One of the most sensational scraps of the season resulted in the return match between Al Fox, 134 pounds, and Philadelphia Joe Welling, 135, at the Auditorium A. A., last night, with the former a winner. Fox led in seven of the eight rounds. Welling being able to win honors only in the fifth frame. Despite Fox's margin of victory it the first round.

Joey Murphy, made a brilliant come-Reilly and the former was the winner.

Joey Kelly put up a swell scrap, boxing a draw with Benny Bass, Young Buck Fleming rallied sufficiently in the latter part of the match with Charley Daggert to earn an even break. Young George Griffin stopped Al Clark in the fourth.

KENSINGTON RING FANS NEW PLAYERS ARE JOHNNY ROYCE IDOL OF NEEDED BY PHILS

Youthful 110-Pounder, After Success as Amateur, Now Shows Well in Professional Glove Competition

By LOUIS II. JAFFE TENSINGTON, in that northeastern

A district of Philadelphia, where boxing is considered the king of indoor sports, they have a ring idol in the youthful person of Johnny Royce, clever, a fairly hard hitter and 110 pounds. He has developed steadily since entering the pro ranks. This blond-haired lad, still in his teens, has had a few more than half a score of battles—thirteen to be exact—since deciding to fight for lucre, instead of medals. Last week Royce placed himself under the management of San Levis been to the management of San Levis been to the management. of Sam Lewis, known throughout the fistic world, and the latter has started a campaign to show the little Kensingtonian in every center where the glove game is legalized.

Former Amateur

Starting as an amateur mittman. Royce made good from the outset. His first opponent was Jack Perry and Johnny won in four rounds, after the judges disagreed at the finish of three. This was at the Gayety Theatre, where give Royce also won from Young Joe Tuber and Young Johnny Nelson. He lost to such Royce also competed in the Shanahan three opponents in one night. Eddie awarded a diamond ring following the latter victory. Royce's last bout in an amateur tourney was a defeat suf fered at the socks of Young Patsy Wal In reality Royce's first professional bout was of the amateur variety, because he refused to accept money, being given a bathrobe after six rounds against Matty Dechter. It was Rovce's idea-that in the event of not making good that night at the Cambria he would esume in the role of an amateur. Pro Opponents

Since making boxing his profession has made good against Steve Jr., Jimmy Tendler, Al Shaw, Matty Dechter, Sammy Gold, Joe Bel-mont, twice; Frankie Murray, Bobby Allen, Midget Clavin and Little Bear. Lewis now is putting Royce through a special course and Sam is taking per charge of Jonathan's training The kid Kensingtonian will get started away from home at Rochester, N. Y., next Monday night, then Lewis will map out a schedule which he believes will keep Royce busy throughout the summer months, so that when the regu-lar 1921-22 season opens the little fel-BOUT FROM WELLING low will be in line for top-notch compe

Scraps About Scrappers

Al Gordon, a local 115-pounder, is to meet Freddy Kline in one of the bouts at the Tuxedo Club March 30. Gordon is being handled by Hay McCarney, who also man-uges Harry Jeffe, a ninety-four-pounder. The latter is to meet Mickey Morris in Wilming ton somorrow night.

Johnny O'Nell, Steve

Suits Selling

Swiftly

At $28.50

NATURALLY, there would be suit is new, freshly brought into stocks in the latest Easter patterns

They are light weights, all-wool, of course. More than that, they represent the highest possible values in new spring and summer clothing at the lowest possible price the men and young men will $28.50

William H. Wanamaker

1217-19 Chestnut Street

find in Philadelphia today.

All sizes.

for both men and young men.

a considerable demand! Each

JOHNNY ROYCE

Jack West, according to Eddle Rande, has five consecutive knockouts to his credit and he is open for 118-pound competition with any one. Rando also manages Willle Fasker, 112 pounds.

An Italian welterweight bout will be headliner at the National Saturday night Tommy Howell meeting Joe Jackson, The semi is Tommy Cleary vs. K. O. Al Wagner Prelims: Bricky Ryan vs. Steve Morris Tommy Devlin vs. Georgo Harley and Jimm Eagan vs. Buck Reilly. tional League. Loses Heart

J. McG., 1918 South Eighteenth street, 1 160-pounder, is looking for a manager.

Boots and Saddle

Horses favorably placed at Havana the game. But when the time comes today are: First race. Thornbloom. Seven Seas, Fleer; second, Terrible Susan, Mollnero, Eddie McBride: third, Cigale, Talent, Disturbance; sult of inuate inferiority he will lose heart to a certain extent. He may keep on fighting, but no matter bow hard fourth, Currency, Nope, Flying Frog; nith, Dixie Flyer, Sir William Johnhe tries, he cannot play as well against what he takes to be inevitable defeat as he could if the club were winning. son, Leinster; sixth, Fireworth, Clip.

was all to no purpose. Then, in spite of my best efforts to get going well. I der to hold the public confidence. That is own by the clashes arising where there no state commission, such as are wit-ssed in New York, where the lockey club surrounding itself with unpleasant sit-tions which shake public confidence in the could go on playing up to my best standards. It is simply a mental of gameness in a player that he doesn't do so well when he is on a long losing streak as he is when he is winning. The monotony of losing constantly and of being in a hopeless position in the league race breaks down the power of Votaries of steeplechasing in Philadelphia and Maryland will be glad to know that there is promising cross-country material in the stable of fifty thoroughbreds William Garth has brought up from Virginia to the Pimlice outree to race in the slike of Captain Ral Parr. Parr will not race siny flat horses the coming saason. Franc Tireur, Midas. Violet Tip, Ireland, Bullseye and Rayal Arch are prominent in the Garth band.

this senson as they did last if the club takes a slump right off the bat. In short, they must make a fair start to prevent a hopeless crash before mid-

Fortunately, the Phillies will start the season well equipped mentally. They have confidence in Manager Donovan and they are going in to give their test. This applies to each man on the TO BOLSTER CLUB Most of the pitchers have no hesitancy, in saying that they expect to have a good season. They are in very good shape already, and by the time the season opens all of them should be on eige and able to go any distance.

In spite of this spirit of confidence there is no getting away from the fact HAVE A STRONG LINE-UP that the club needs and must have something more than spirit to win. no stretch of the imagination can an one visualize the present squad playing anything but second division baseball. BREAKS SPIRIT OF STARS and low second division at that.

Necd New Players

Last-Place Team for Two Years

Cannot Go Along at

MONOTONY, NOT GAMENESS,

By SPICK HALL

"For a certain length of time," the

"I know that I have gone along for just as well as I ever did in my career.

but the time ultimately would come hazard that cannot be overcome.

the season when I would realize that i

Cy is correct. It is not a question the athlete to co-ordinate the mind and the body.

There is only one inference to be drawn from this. That is, the Philly players who have been with the club

table to give their best efforts as long weeks and weeks when

Not Gameness

ex-Notre Dame star said, "a man can suffer defeats, one after the other and still be in there playing just as hard and just as well as ever. He can keep one knockdown after another.

Not even the most optimistic Philly follower can figure how the club as it Gainesville, Fla., March 23. - No now stands could possibly beat out any ling new grounds at Fourth and Wingo-matter how game a baseball player may organization in the National League hocking streets, and it will be the fourth with the possible exception of Cincinbe, he cannot go on losing forever and nati and Boston, and it isn't an even at the same time give his best efforts bet they could do that, to the club. He may try with all the Therefore, the Phils' only hope power that's in him to play just as hard to be to get some new players on the as he does when the team is winning, pitching staff and on the infield before but it is a physical impossibility, be-caure it is a mental impossibility to mains as it is and starts to skid, it will retain the fighting spirit in the face of be a hopeless bunch and might as well toss up the sponge.

Meuset is a hard hitter and good all-

That is why attempts to bolster a losing club late in the season fail and round player, and it is quite possible why the Phillies should be strengthened that he will be able to fill the bill at much as possible right away without first sufficiently to warrant the asserwaiting to have them slide to the foot of the ladder and then try to curb the took his workeut at the initial corner, and it must be said that he handled For the last two seasons the Phils himself creditably. If he can improve. have finished in last two seasons the Phils have finished in last place. The players who are with the club today and were with them when they were left at the post in 1919 and 1920 cannot keep up a healthy stride unless they get a fairly good start. Cy Williams is one of the foriorn hope that Gene Paulette may

Cy Williams is one of the forlorn hope that Gene Paulette may men who fought for the club with all come back to the fold. Donovan doesn't his might the last two seasons, yet his know whether the report of Paulette's individual efforts counted in the long signing a Massillon contract is true or run for nothing because the club was not. However, if Judge Landis takes run for nothing because the club was not. by the seven others in the Na-up the Paulette case and clears him, he could come back and sign his Philly contract even though he had signed with Massillon.

Bicycle Polo Tonight

Public Reception for Spears Morgantown, W. Vu., March 23.-Clar www. Spears, cosen of the 1921 West Vir without exception, because there one who appears dissatisfied. Baseball Team Will Play This Season at Fourth and Wingohocking Streets

Contrary to reports, the North Phil-ies will be back in the baseball field this season. The same players who last year established a record of forty-eight rictories and fourteen defeats have been

The Phils have lost their field at Second and Bristol streets, but are buildpark they have constructed in seven The new grounds will two blocks away from the old location and more convenient to the cars.

There is a possibility that the new field will not be available until after the opening of the senson and the team is desirous of arranging dates in April and May away from home with the leading clubs. Last year the Phils humbled Stetson, Nativity, Bridesburg, Pencoyd, Lit Bros., New York Ship, Bronx Athletics, of New York, and Fultons, of Lancaster, The line-up will be: Dougherty and Holden: Dougherty and Holden: pitchers, Johnny Barker, Schmidt and Chapin: first baseman, Hallman; second base Fothergill: shortstop, Jackal: third base, Heintzman: with Eherts, Greene, Dash and Reifsnyder in the outfield. Perry K. Reifsnyder is manager and William A. Gleason, business manager. Games can be secured through the lat-ter, at 3960 North Fairhill street, or 'phone, Tioga 6106 and Tioga 5960.

50 OTHER SHAPES Alfred Dunhill's

COATES COLEMAN CO.

125 Commercial Trust Bldg. Train Floor Locust 2566

Guaranteed PERFECT or Money Back Box of 25-cal. COLT'S steel smokeless AUTOMATIC REVOLVER Regularly

$24.50 Buy at Either Store or Send Money Order

514 So. Broad St.

Don't Stand Outside, Mr. Man!

Here Are the Greatest Shoe Values in Town!

(Facts are stubborn things; but if we knew how, we'd make that statement STRONGER)

Window-looking's well enough in its way, but you can't weigh quality from the curbstone. These shoes were made for close inspection, and you know, all shoes won't stand that test. Not a loose-jointed method in any part of their construction, and only the very best skill and material could produce such footwear. The door swings easily -Come in and get acquainted with these shoes and this Royal Shop.

You don't deserve to be on speaking terms with your feet if you fail to grasp this opportunity. It's a certain, sure winner.

And here, too, are hundreds of styles of other shoes, every pair as spick-and-span as the morning sun. All of them the very acme of good quality and correctness; all the leathers, and the best, top-loftiest makes. No time for hemming and hawing-on Easter Sunday you'll want "to put your best foot forward." Do you object to saving 2 or 3 dollars on a pair of these shoes?

WE'RE OPEN DAY AND NIGHT

MONEY BACK IF NOT SATISFIED

 $\mathbf{Q.85}$

