AT CUPID'S CALL

IV-Mary's Awakening!

"I'VE promised to marry Dick Ca-voice was cooing and sweet. "I'm an utter fool over business! And quite naturally you wouldn't wish to tell me office secrets! I apologize! But I'm so crazily fond of Dick Calardin that ment she stared Incredulously a t the fair - baired speaker.

Then common sense came quickly to her rescue. Eve was referring to some other man! The fiance that she spoke of -why, it couldn't possibly be Dick Dick, for the last five hours, had been making de-Mberate love to her, another woman! The young man couldn't possibly be Eve's light, affected tones broke in on defeated Mary's meditations.

"How on earth did you come to meet

"Meet-whom?" stammered Mary. coming back to earth.

"Why, the man that I'm engaged to.

Dick Calardin!" remarked Eve petusaid engagement hadn't definitely taken felt dry and stiff as she made answer:

"Your guardian, Mr. Carrington Bellairs, sent me down on a business matter with his client."

Mary assumed a small, distant air that might have made any girl less bold mind.

Eve made a face, half mockery, half disgust. Really this upstart little section of mystery! She must be put in her proper place—and soon. She had been disting, too, with the highly eligible large structure of the forceful, energetic man," she said, in the highly eligible large attraction to the forceful and the second of t dirting, too, with the highly eligible Dick Calardin! Why, hadn't Eve but recently seen her gazing into the young man's eyes and holding hands with him everything concerned with him must necessarily interest me!" Mary was quite naturally intuitive

She guessed that Eve was not sincere. She guessed—and rightly, too—that this pretty ward of Carrington Bellairs was an extremely sophisticated and designing young woman, shallow and self-brother. absorbed. That money and social posi-tion were her gods. And that to gain her own particular ends she was capable of much.

The news of Eve's engagement to young Calardin had been a blow. But Mary wasn't of the stuff that's easily crushed. In her spirit was a glorious resiliency that wouldn't be broken or She didn't speak now, but her pretty softly-shining eyes met Eve's with outward calmness

Eve realized that she'd been premajantly. "The man who was seeing you place. It would eventuate, of course, off just now—the rough diamond from time—she told herself. No man, much less the simple type of Dick The heart of Mary sank. Her lips Calardin, could resist Eve long.

Mary-unless cautioned-might ruin everything by blurting out Eve's words to either Carrington Bellairs or Dick Eve leaned forward, curiosity printed on every line of her pretty, shallow the fire then," thought Eve, biting her little face.

"What sort of business, might I lips with irritation.
Mary noticed her action and wondered exactly what was passing in Eve's

"Miss Drew!" Again did Eve touch Mary's knee. "I'm really frightfully worried. It's all because I'm crazy than Eve feel awkward.
"I can't possibly discuss business matters outside the office. If you want information the proper person to ask over Dick. And our engagement must be keen to be kee your guardian, Mr. Carrington Bel- | be kept a secret in the meantime. My guardian, Carrington Bellairs, would her clear, attractive tones. "I'm sure he'll make a definite path through life -prove himself capable of a great arcer. What stupid 'entanglement' carcer.

man's eyes and holding hands with min a protracted, sentimental parting:

And now this humble Mary Drew when setually trying to snub her?

With a pretty, impulsive gesture—one of Eve's principal assets in the great game of camoultage—she leann of the made and the light from her ringed in a way that wasn't plens fig. Her "utct." perf features saddally seemed to grow as old as Egypt.

Two Minutes of Optimism

By Herman J. Stich

Let's Get Together

With a way the wave eachoolboys we read the poem of the six wise, blind men of the tiack, snid: "This elephant is very like a spear." The shired, tasking the sadde and said: "The elephant is very like a spear." The shired, tasking the said: "The second, feeling of the task, snid: "This wonder of an elephant is very like a spear." The shired, tasking the said: "The selephant is very like a spear." The shired, snid: "The selephant is very like a spear." The shired, snid; "The selephant is very like a spear." The shired, snid; "The selephant is very like a spear." The shired, snid; "The selephant is very like a spear." The shired, snid; "The selephant is very like a spear." The shired, snid; "The selephant is very like a spear." The shired as that the knew all about elephants, and nobody could tell him anything about them.

The morning after the little visit of the shared and spear to the said and snid; a little to the shired and snid; a little visit of the shired and snid; a little visit of the shired and snid; a little visit of the said and snid; a little visit of the shired and snid; a little visit of the said and snid; a little visit of the shired and snid; a little visit of the snide and snid; a little visit of the snide and snid; a li that he knew all about elephants, and nobody could tell him anything about

Now, each, of course, was partly in the right and all were in the wrong And the point of the poem is, that every one of us is influenced in our views and judgments and acts by observation, experience, environment and circumstances There was a time, and not so long ago, when some of our leading statesmen declared that the black race was ordained by God to be a race of serfs and slaves, and that it was sacrilegious to hold otherwise. It took a four years' bloody war to make them change their minds. Political parties, all of whom presumably desire the welfare of our country. are constantly bitterly antagonistic and revile and vituperate against the man or men who will not see or do things according to a particular light.

Religious denominations with common aims-charity, kindness, forgivenesshave ever been at swords' ends. Christians have even burned their fellowmen at the stake in the name of the God of Love they all worshiped and served.

Each of us happens upon a different part of the elephant and each promptly thinks he knows it all-and damns the fellow who dares to differ ! There was an old minister who was making his way along the road through a heavy mist when suddenly he saw something that looked like a monster. He whipped out a gun he happened to be carrying and was about to shoot, when coming nearer he saw it was a man. And when he came nearer still and they got close together, he saw it was his own brother!

The workingman and the man he works for, the Republican and the Demorat, the Gentile and the Jew, the Catholic and the Protestant, the Christian and the Mohammedan-all are separated by a dense fog of anger, hatred, greed, pride or prejudice-each holds he knows all about the elephant and each sees his fellowman as a monster whom he would destroy,

What we need is to come nearer to one another-to get close togetherthat we may understand.

Then we shall see one another not as monsters, but as brothers of one great family, all of whom want nothing more than to live their lives in peace, content-was a little girl, when the proper rabbits, all of pure chocolate. This gift for little people on Easter was nice. Siee Easter box can be bought for forty hard-boiled eggs, brightly dyed with gay cents. colors. But nowadays it seems that novelty candies are much more accept-

The Question Corner

Today's Inquiries When a small screen is needed, in what inexpensive way can this be made?

2. Instead of a leather belt, what encircles the waist of an attractive tan sweater?
3. Describe a new table lamp which at the same time carries out an old-fashioned idea and a modern 4. In what way can the growth of a geranium plant be improved, so that, in a short time, the leaves have a much fresher, greener appearance?

5. Should a longer sleeve be desired in a serge dress, in what pretty fashion can this be arfanged?

6. What makes a quaint bit of ornament for the fish-bowl?

Yesterday's Answers

1. The walls of a small hall will look larger if they are finished in long, narrow panels.

2. Rub vaseline over the metal parts of an umbrella to prevent them from rusting.

3. A dainty centerpiece for the Easter table is a glass bowl with a gilt flower holder filled with pink and white sweet peas and long ends of smilax, with four little yellow chickens nestling around it.

A new shade of the giass bowl type, for an electric light, is made with two surfaces, and space between into which to slip a cover cretonne.

of cretonne.
Coronada is a soft material like tweed, only softer and lighter.
To get the effect of a coque feather drooping off the edge of a hat without paying the price of it, use an end of fluffy, thick fug or marabou instead.

Adventures With a Purse tesist them? They come in a nice square lox, with green shredded paper for a comfortable nest, and there are papa and mamma rabbits and six little baby

Speaking of Easter reminds me of this minute—will be interested in this glove saile. One shop has just a table-ful of odds and ends of gloves in broken sizes. Among them are some white kid gloves, some of grey suede with black stitching, some black kids, some of washable kid and a few pairs of chamois gauntlets with inserts of leather. All have been repriced to ninety-five cents a pair.

Another shop has just a large card-board box filled with odds and ends of neckwear. I was particularly impressed with the long straight collars of white satin, well lined and perfectly tailored. These bore their original prices of $1.50 each and have now been repriced to fifty cents. If you need a nice white satin collar, here is certainly an opportunity to buy one.

For names of shops address Woman's Fuge Editor or phone Walnut or Main 3000.

A Seed Catalogue

Have you received a new seed catu-logue? Get one—from a reliable firm— for it will help you in planting your garden and prevent you from overlooking something you may otherwise forget, say specialists of the United States De-partment of Agriculture.

Here are some attractive little Easter favors to use on Easter Day or at the party that you are planning to have next week. The gentleman carrying the umbrella and the place card, and the busy bunny with her bag of jelly beans, were cut out of decorated paper and pasted on stiff cardboard. The bunny in the high collar is fastened to a paper drinking cup filled with candy or nuts. The grown-ups might prefer the daffodil standing on a wired stem and concealing a tiny paper cup in its flower, or the pink and white striped hatbox which holds Easter eggs instead

"FIFTY-FIFTY"

By HAZEL DEYO BATCHELOR Copyright, 1931, by Public Ledger Co.

The marriage of Jerry Page and Frances Carter began on a lifty-lifty basis, for Frances was making good money and insisted upon paying half the bills. However, it didn't work out well at all for when the Harlowes moved into the same apartment house Clarissa was a typical clinging vine and played up to Jerry with a kind of kittenish softness that was very flattering to his masculinity. It was then that Frances discovered that she had been too much the pal and not enough the woman for Jerry and she set about rectifying her mistake. But although whe made herself extremely attractive to other men, above all to Jim Harlowe, she did not seem able to make any impression on Jerry at all.

CHAPTER XXXIV Character Contrasts

he was none the less cheerful. He even had the effrontery to come over, tip Ciarissa's head back and kiss her lightly before he left for the office.

Clarissa felt baffled; all her old-time methods had failed to work and now she was helpless. She did not know what to do to bring Jim to heel.

to each and every one of us. May I take the opportunity to ask you several questions which are so important to me

THE WOMAN'S EXCHANGE

Learning to Bake

Dear Madam—I am coming to you for advice again.

Can you tell me of any place not far from where I live where I could learn to make good cakes and pastry? It is my ambition to learn I am a fair is my ambition to learn I am a fair is my ambition to learn I am a fair is my ambition to learn so that so extra. I would like to learn, so that I can make a little money out of it.

The Germantown Branch of the Y.

W. C. A. at 5820 Germantown avenue, would be the nearest place to your would be the nearest place to your would be get a stop-off at St. Paul. Minn.? Would it be possible to get a stop-off at St. Paul.? To the Editor of the Woman's Page:

The Germantown Branch of the Y. W. C. A. at 5820 Germantown avenue, would be the nearest place to your home where you could learn what you They have a course in on Monday afternoons wish to show. They have cooking there on Monday afternoons and Monday evenings, which includes pastry and cake making.

To California Dear Madam - You are such a help

Things You'll Love to Make able. And no wonder. For instance, there is the rabbit family. Who could Easter season approaches every one dashes right out and buys a new pair of gloves to wear with a new Easter outfit. But, just the same, I know that some people do. And another thing, I believe that most any one way. I believe that most any one—even the color scheme of the room. Cut triangles woman who does not really need gloves this minute—will be interested in this corner. Dye these a much lighter shade, glove sale. One show has inches a sale.

WARSHAV

1307 Walnut St.

Please Tell Me What to Do

By CYNTHIA

Wants Game Suggestions Dear Cynthia-I am seventeen year of age, and while reading your column the other night I came across a letter about playing kissing games at parties. That is all bunk. You said you had sent a list of games to be played to the one who had written the letter. Would you please send such a list in the self-addressed envelope? You certainly have a wonderful column, and I am thanking you in advance. GOLDEN LOCKS.

Help Them if Possible Dear Cynthia—I am a young girl in my teens. I met a fellow who asked fre to make it right with a girl he loves. He had a quarrel with her and he wants me to speak to her about it. I like him myself. Would it be right to get into it?

If you can help the young man by a kind word or two to the girl about him do so, but do not get into discussion of it with him or with the girl, and do not

Thinks Ideas Are Narrow

Dear Cynthia—It was my misfortune not to see "Wondering's" letter, but I read "Smiles" and several other answers to it. Such narrowmindedness as shown by "Smiles" is a pity to behold. I am not a dance hound myself by any tention of doing anything of the kind. Clarissa purposely ate no breakfast. Jim ate with the disgustingly healthy appetite of the normal man, passing his cup a second hime for coffee and not noticing that Clarissa was not eating.

After several cold moneyllable responses to his tentative efforts at conversation, he desisted altogether, but he was none the less cheerful. He even had the effrontery to come over, tip Clarissa's head back and kiss her lightly before he less for the said about to see "Wondering's" letter, but I read "Smiles" and prove of frequenting a shown by "Smiles" is a pity to behold. I am not a dance hound myself by any tention of doing anything of the kind. Clarissa purposely ate no breakfast. Jim ate with the disgustingly healthy appetite of the normal man, passing his cup a second hime for coffee and not noticing that Clarissa was not eating.

After several cold moneyllable responses to his tentative efforts at conversation, he desisted altogether, but he was none the less cheerful. He even had the effrontery to come over, tip Clarissa's head back and kiss her lightly before he less for the less that was not and narrowmindedness. Any evilminded of

At the age of fourteen I reluctantly

WHAT'S WHAT

Breakfast —

Grape:Nuts

out burdening the stomach.

The full nutriment of wheat and malted barley in this unique food provides unusual nourishment with-grains, self-developed in the making.

the menu includes

A Duty or a Pleasure?

There's real joy in the morning meal, and genuine preparation for the work hours that follow, when Ready to serve from the package with cream or good milk. Sweet with the natural sugar of the

If your breakfast isn't a pleasure, try Grape-Nuts

"There's a Reason"

Made by Postum Cereal Co., Inc., Battle Creek, Mich.

CLEVERLY COMBINED

BROWN EYES.

carry from one to the other what each says. Simply tell the girl that he's sorry and wants to make up and if she says she will tell him she is willing, and then let it go at that.

Don't talk to either about the cause of the trouble, let them talk that out

By CORINNE LOWE sometimes have a clear vision what the poet meant when he spoke of the glory that was Greece. For Greece, as far as our classical reading has taken us, was without taffeta costumes. Really, you know, it is appalling to be a fashion writer and to be confronted with at least a thousand new models of taffeta or part taffeta. Your taffeta adjectives just give out. Consequently, we absolutely refuse to say anything ansolutely refuse to say anything about the above costume beyond the necessary diagram of its parts. The corsage is made of vermilion taffeta, and narrowmindedness. Any evilminded person can take an evil meaning from many things in this world that are perfectly proper and correct.

Cynthia's advice to "Smiles" is good, and I hope that "Smiles" will soon get some sense or she will be in danger of losing some of her many friends because of her failing for reaching an unwarranted conclusion before employing proper amount.

cynthia's advice to "Emiles" is good, and I hope that "Smiles" will soon get some sense or she will be in danger of losing some of her many friends because of her failing for reaching an unwarded conclusion before employing a proper amount of gray matter and broadmindedness.

A Clear-Headed Letter

Dear Cynthia—I have patiently watched the answers to the assertion of the young lady who claims to prefer the society of young men who either can not or will not dance.

Once before, Cynthia, I wrote to this column and frankly stated my opinion of those fellows who apparently crave nothing better than the distinction of being good dancers. There are many of them and this letter will not be inconsistent with my initial one.

The profession of this young lady was prompted without serious consideration as to the scope of her remarks. Personally, I am inclined to doubt her broadmindedness, and I think most of the fairminded readers will agree with me in this respect.

There is no possibility of my identity being disclosed, so I shall tell a few things about myself, simply to prove that one can dance and have still a desire, or rather a determination, to succeed.

At the age of fourteen I reluctantly that it was a succeed.

At the age of fourteen I reluctantly that is and in the province of the second of the series of the second of the series of the second of the series of that's what we will have to call her because, now that the necessity for making money by doing home work of her own has passed, she doesn't care to have people know that there was a time when the dinners would have been slim and the house unheated had it not been for the experiness of her ingers. all, it's the success of the idea that counts—and "Mrs. Jones" is perfectly willing to admit that the sledding might have been pretty rough if she hadn't taken up the idea of the "personality care."

Could you please tell me the fare and Pullman rates from Philadelphia to Los Angeles (Inc.) from Los Angeles? Is Angeles? How far is San Francisco, Calif., from Los Angeles? Does the train make connections at Chicago going out and then dees it pass through St. Paul, Minn.? Would it be possible to get a stop-off at St. Paul?

A young lady who has a lot of dramatic stage experience would like to know how she would go about getting in with a stock company or something of the sort in the West. A VOICE.

The fare from Philadelphia to Los Angeles is $117.05 and the charges for a lower berth would be about $34 extra. These rates are for the directionic which is from Philadelphia to Chicago and from there straight out West. Going this way the journey would take five days, for very good cometions can be made. If you wanted you wanted you wanted you have to buy a ticket here and a ticket there you fare would have to buy a ticket here and a ticket there. Hollywood is a suburb six miles outside of Los Angeles. This city is 33 miles southcast of San Francisco.

You go about getting a stage position in the West in exactly the same way as you do in the East. Apply to a stage manager or to a theatrical agency.

irepe Nuts

Sade of Wheat and Barby

A FOOD

Economy 12

GRAY AND VERMILION DID YOU EVER WATCH THE GIRL AT THE KEYBOARD?

Nothing Disturbs the Smooth Serenity of Her "Hello, Hello," and Even Her Sympathy With a Bereaved Friend Must Be Sandwiched In

THE girl at the telephone board in the railroad station looked up with an inquiring smile.

"3106?" she repeated after some one. She held out her hand for the nickel, dropped it in a box, wrote down the number and pulled out a plug.

"Greendale three-one-o-six, operator," she remarked looking down at the receiver, which seemed to sprout out of the second button of her waist. "Hello, hello, No. 2 for Ontario, please; hello, hello, what is your number, please?—hello, hello?"

A woman came up on the outside of

A ND then Bessie hurried awar. A woman came up on the outside of he counter and drummed impatiently with her fingers.

"I can't get that number." she said,

with her fingers.

"I can't get that number." she said, severely.

"I'll try them again," replied the operator, calmly. "Hello, hello—listen, operator, I don't get any answer on that Chestnut number, five-two-nyunone J—Hello, hello number four for Greendale, please—hello, hello?"

Always that running accompaniment of "hello-hello." which doesn't seem to get any answer, but is very mysical if the operator has a piensant voice.

Another operator came in to relieve the one at the board.

"Well," exclaimed the first one, "What's the matter with you today! You're about fifteen minutes ahead of time—hello, hello—two-one-three-nyun, operator—hello, hello—I like your new All the rest of the time she seems has a regular human being.

All the rest of the time she seems has a regular human being.

Well, exclaimed the first one,
"What's the matter with you today?
You're about fifteen minutes ahead of time—hello, hello—two-one-three-nyun, operator—hello, hello—I like your new hat—hello, hello." It goes on all day long; the same thing.

Nothing is allowed to interrupt the monotony of that "hello, bello," which always ends with an upward lift. Nothing is allowed to interrupt the monotony of that "hello, hello," which always ends with an upward lilt.

A friend arrived at the counter before the fifteen minutes were up, while both operators were there together.

Her eyes were red-rimmed, and her mouth had that drawn expression which comes from continued suffering.

"Oh, when do you go, Bessie, dear?" "hello, hello?"

AND then Bessie hurried away, and the operator picked up her plugs if she were a regular human being.

All the rest of the time she seems just a voice saying "Hello, hello," and repeating your number after you.

THAT "BUSINESS BRAIN"

STARBARARATARARATARARARARARATARARATARARA

will not function when the stomach is overloaded with indigestible, starchy foods. That's the reason that breakfast and noon day lunch should consist of Shredded Wheat Biscuit. It supplies the maximum of nutriment and leaves the brain clear and vibrant, ready for any task. Don't dig your grave with your teeth. Avoid hardened arteries and autointoxication-these come from too much meat.

Two Biscuits with hot milk make a warm, nourishing meal for a few cents.

MEDLAR Baby Sponge Cake is the crystallized result the true perfection of the experience that is only gained by long years of application to an ideal.

For fifty years the Medlar Biscuit Company has been supplying the particular people of Philadelphia with a better cake-Try Medlar Baby Sponge Cake to-day-You'll like it-You can't help it-Your dealer has it. Ask him how good it is-he knows. Baby Sponge size —six slices.

This Dessert

will win you

An excellent cottage pudding can be madebyellong Mediar Haby Spenge Cale and covering with a venilla, strawberry or Convince your self-Try it tonight los dinner.

