Colonel D'Olier Tells Ingersoll Post Nippon Is Dominated by Militarists

KEPT UNDER SURVEILLANCE

Colonel Franklin D'Olier, who recently returned from a trip to Japan and China, during which he sounded opinion in those countries as to future possible disturbances, last night addressed a meeting of the Harry Ingersoll Post, American Legion, and discussed the relations of this country with Japan.

Colonel D'Olier declared the mental attitude and processes of the Japanese closely resembled those of the Teuton. He described the close surveillance maintained on his movements while he was there and said:

"They imagined I was there to organize American reservists. They could not be made to believe differently from what would have been their action in a similar situation.

"The military party is now in power in Japan," he continued. "They have been kept there by the succession of wars that have marked the nation's history in the last thirty years, and should they appear to lose prestige they might undertake measures that would lead to trouble with the United States. They would, by this means get the populace with them and retain their supremacy."

The monthly meeting of John P. Garland Post was held Tuesday night at the Roosevelt Bank Hall, Twenty-first and Wharton streets. A large attendance and new membership were secured, and plans were completed for a dance, with many new features, to be given March 29.

Tomorrow night the Society of the Third Division will show some pictures of the war, and will also show the reels as reels are action pictures taken on every front and sector on which they served—and the Third didn't miss many.

The division is shown in action in all its engagements and also while with the army of occupation in Germany. The pictures were obtained through the courtesy of the Third Division officers and the courtesy of the national society. They will be shown at the Grand Fraternity, 1620 Arch street, at 8 o'clock tomorrow evening.

TO HONOR DEAD HEROES

West Philadelphia High to Unveil Memorial Tablet April 6

The memory of twenty-one boys, pupils of the West Philadelphia High School for Boys, who lost their lives in France during the war, will be honored April 6 at the school.

This day will mark the four anniversary of the entrance of the United States into the war against Germany, and in honor of the event C. C. Heyl, principal of the school, plans to have one of national reputation present. General Pershing will be invited as the principal speaker, while Governor Sprunt and other prominent men also will be invited to make addresses.

In honor of the fallen heroes a bronze tablet will be unveiled in the school. It was designed by Edward Shenton, an illustrator and former pupil of the school. It is being made by Otto Schweizer, a sculptor of this city.

MRS. BONIFACE GIVES BAIL

"Female Ponzl" Puts Up Cash to Appear to Answer New Charge

Mrs. Mildred Boniface, the "female Ponzl," is at the home of a relative in this city today, having furnished $100 cash bail last night to obtain her release from the Gloucester county jail at Woodbury, N. J.

An indictment charging her with obtaining $2300 by false pretenses from Everett Marshall, Newfield, N. J., was quashed yesterday by the Gloucester County Court. After she was discharged from custody she was reintroduced on one on a warrant charging a statutory offense.

DIAMONDS
3/8 Carat $28

We have had diamond rings like this before, the same weight and price, but they didn't begin to make the show this one does. It looks to weigh full half carat, and not one person in a hundred would believe it is worth less than $60 to $75. It is only one of thousands of diamond rings we have on hand and are tomorrow at prices from $18 to $200 per carat. All grades, from the purest white to the rarest blue.
